WILLIAM H. CLAGETT.

The dispatches announce that Judge William H. Clagett will be a candidate for U. S. senator from Idaho, to succeed Fred T. Dubois, the present senator. Six years ago Clagett, who was at that time a Republican, made a strong fight against Dubois for the senatorship, but was beaten. Now he comes up as a Populist and stands a fair show for election, that party by combining with the Democrats outvoting the Republicans.

Judge Clagett is one of the most flowery speakers on the coast, a lawyer of fair ability and a shrewd politician. He was for a time the partner of Frank Gansahl, one of the finest mining lawyers on the coast. The firm was in business during the first Cœur d'Alene excitement, with headquarters at Murray, and were the leaders of that remarkably brilliant bar. Clagett is a hard fighter, and if he does not win will make Dubois, and all the other candidates know he was around while the battle was going on.

It is claimed that it costs the state for taking convicts to the penitentiary $13,000 a year, and to convey the insane about $15,000 a year, or in round numbers for the two jobs nearly $30,000 a year. It is proposed to reduce this expense, several suggestions being made, one of which is to reduce the fees, and another to have the work done by regular salaried officers, stationed at Salem, who will go to the different counties after prisoners and the insane. It is probable the first plan will be adopted, as there is a strong sentiment against giving Salem any more than it already has, though it seems poor policy to be kicking at the capital, when we spite ourselves only by doing so.

Secretary Herbert says the battleship Texas is all right, and has suffered no more accidents than other ships of her class. He says, in effect, that instead of it being the Texas, it is the great American newspaper that is rotten. Herbert knows what he is talking about, only he does not draw the line between the newspapers and the Associated Press that furnishes the dispatches.

The Venezuelan government has decided to accept the treaty made for it by the United States in the dispute with England over boundaries. There was some dissatisfaction at first, but when the Venezuelans examined into the terms of the arrangement they were more than satisfied with what the government had accomplished for them.

Dennis Ryan, the St. Paul millionaire, was married at Spokane Wednesday to Miss Mary Campbell, also of St. Paul. There is no record of the marriage license, and as the ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock in the morning and the couple immediately left for St. Paul, considerable comment has been caused in Spokane's upper tendom.

The convention of the American Federation of Labor, in convention at Cincinnati yesterday, reaffirmed the boycott against the Armour Packing Co., and it was resolved to push the boycott vigorously. The strike and the boycott are both un-American, but that is no reason why they should not be carried on in America.

Maceo being alive, General Weyler has ordered stopped all preparations for the celebration of his death. No measly Spaniard can outdo us, and if Weyler postpones the festivities, we will postpone the obsequies.

When Maceo reads the obituary notices of himself, he will be glad he is alive.

President Cleveland had quite good luck on his recent duck-shooting trip to South Carolina, bagging sixty-five of the birds in one day. Cleveland generally hits what he shoots at, no matter how high his aim, missing only once, and that when he missed the presidency in 1892.

The Cuban war is a grand thing for some people. The dispatches this morning state that a company of 250 men is being raised at Port Angeles, Washington, to go to Cuba. This affords them a long-desired opportunity to get away.

This Is Your Opportunity.
