OREGON CITY OFFICE ROBBED.

Burglars Make a Hunt of Two Thousand Dollars.

A telegram was received this morning, says the Telegram, in the United States district attorney's office from Postmaster S. R. Green of Oregon City, stating that the postoffice had been entered last night by burglars, the safe had been robbed and in the neighborhood of $2000 in money, registered letters and stamps taken.

District Attorney Murphy at once started for the scene, and this afternoon telephoned to Assistant Attorney Schnabel the following particulars:

"The burglars are not only experts at their business, but are evidently members of a well-organized gang who have recently arrived in Oregon from California. The work of the men on the Oregon City safe is identical with that of the burglars who on Wednesday night last blew open the safe of the Hubbard postoffice. After that job they have come to Oregon City, and are no doubt now in Portland.

"The postoffice in Oregon City occupies the rear of a large store on the main street, the front of the room being taken up with a stationary and cigar store. The burglars effected an entrance by prying open a rear door with a jimmy."

"They must have first gone to the cigar stand, which was mulcted of its choicest cigars and a few cents in change left in the money drawer. The men then attacked the safe of Postmaster Green, successfully opening it and taking every possible thing of value the safe contained, even to the private papers of Mr. Green, which could be of no value to them, and the pennies in the stamp drawer. With cash, registered letters, stamps etc., the robbers must have got away with at least $2000.

"Secret Service Inspector Jordan, who has been to Hubbard investigating the burglary there, was intercepted while returning on the Salem train this afternoon and is now in Oregon City.

"Thus far no clew to the perpetrators of the burglary here, beyond that it is evidently the work of the same men who robbed the Hubbard office, has been obtained."

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

In a General Way It May Be Called a Beautiful Wilderness.

Speaking generally, the province of British Columbia may be called a beautiful wilderness. There are on the coast the thriving cities of Vancouver by the way, Vancouver is on the coast, and Westminster. Gold mining is being developed in the Kootenay district, the coal of Nanaimo is extensively worked, and there is farming along the marshy banks of the Lower Fraser. Canneries and sawmills are dotted here and there along the river bank; yet, with all this, so high and rugged are the mountains, so dense the forests and so difficult the task of making roads or railways, that probably a considerable portion of this beautiful province will long remain covered with giant red woods, firs and cedars and inhabited only by the wolf, bear and eagle.

The man who is not forced to depend on each year's crop for existence, and is fond of the open air or sport, will probably find in British Columbia a congenial occupation in ranching or trying to clear a forest farm, but the writer would not recommend it as a field for general agricultural emigration, when a man has very small means and only his right arm to depend on, as it generally takes four years or more to clear enough land to keep three or four cattle, while if you grow grain you cannot get it to the market from the bush farm. For the trout fisher, rifle shot or artist, it is an "earthly paradise," and for such a man there is a subtle spell about this lonely north land which once it enters his heart can never be driven out.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.
