CARLISLE'S

REPORT

Statement of Government's Financial Condition.

THE DEBT IS STEADILY INCREASING

Estimated Year's Deficiency Exceeds Sixty-four Millions .- The Retirement of Treasury Notes is Strongly Urged.

Washington, Dec. 21.-In his discussion of the currency the secretary makes an exhaustive argument in favor of the retirement from circulation of United States, and treasury notes in the course to be paid by the people in the future. of which he save:

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21 .- What may p ove to be the beginning of the end of the Durrant case took place in the supreme court today. The brief of Theodore Durrant was filed, although there has been much discussion as to whether doing so having elapsed. However, sion. Attorney-General Fitzgerald also filed a brief, ably replying to the defendant's counsel. Durrant is now given ten days in which to file a brief in reply.

EFFECT OF MUSIC.

The Nervous System Influenced by Different Kinds of Sounds. The old story that Saul when out of temper used to summon David to play the harp, and found the music to be a sedative, may prove to be more than a simple historic incident, for both Charcot and Tarchanow have declared that musical sounds are a remedial agency in disease which no physician can afford to ignore, says the New York Herald.

Mr. Warthin, of Michigan, who has given a great deal of thought to this subject, asserts that different kinds of sounds are more effective than drugs in the cure of disease. For instance, he boldly assures us that the music of Valkyrie will increase perspiration, and, therefore, cure certain forms of ailment caused by checking its flow. The operative energy is not the music as such, but the peculiar vibrations made by it. Tannhauser, on the other hand, is a vibratory soporific and induces a serene state of mind and body

M. Coriveaud, of Paris, asserts that violin playing is at least a temporary remedy for sciatica. He adduces the instance of a patient who found almost instant relief in that way and who successfully resorted to it whenever threatened with an attack.

Perhaps this is an appeal to the imagination, but what matters it if the patient is cured? Perhaps, again, there is a law hidden somewhere in the pile of apparent impossibilities-one which will some time be discovered for our benefit. We never smile with incredulity at anything in these wonder-working Evading the Rule.

One of the regulations at the new Congressional library in Washington is that visitors must carry no parcels into the building. So says the Post, of that city, and then goes on to relate an amusing occurrence: A rather tall, broad shouldered young woman arrived at the door of the library, having in her hand a neat brown paper package. "No bundles are allowed inside the building." said the attendant. "You must leave it here till you come out." The young woman objected. The man said it was the rule. The young woman said it was absurd. The man was firm. He must obey orders. The young woman hesitated; then she undid the parcel, hung several pairs of black hose over her arm "There, you may keep that until I come out."

Eczema in Worst Form Face a Loathsome Sight Could not Leave House

HAD TO SACRIFICE HAIR

In Despair Dismiss Doctors and Begin the Use of CUTICURA REMEDIES

Effect Wonderful In Three Wecks Scales Cone In Six Weeks Cure is Complete

About four years ago Eczema made its appearance on my head in its worst form. I attended by two physicians, but notwith anding their t.catment it continued spreading, until my face was covered with scales and became a horrid loathsome sight. For three months I did not leave the house, and people passing would turn and look back when seeing me at the window. I had a fine head of hair, seven years' growth, and had to sacrifice it. I was in despair. The physicians had falled even to relieve me, when one of them recommended CUTICURA SOAP. My father dismissed the doctors and procured a full set of CUTICURA REMEDIES. I commenced using them according to directions, and in three weeks from the time I began, the scales had left my face and the skin lost its florid hue. In six weeks I was entirely cared. My face was smooth and my complexion clearer and finer than it had ever been before. I used three boxes of CUTICURA, one half dozen cakes of CUTICURA SOAP, and one bottle of CUTICURA-RESOLVENT. Persons having any doubt about this testimonial being genuine, can write to my address and I will cheerfully tell them more about CUTICURA REMEDIES.
