The Thirteen Superstition.

Every superstition has its foundation either in fact or in some historic incident cited as a precedent. The thirteen superstition, for instance, is first mentioned about the sixth century by a Latin monastic writer of France, who France, who stated that it was unlucky for thirteen people to sit down at table together, as at "the last supper" when Christ and his twelve apostles supped together, two of them died within a year.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the Liver and Kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood.

James Stephens recently broke the record in this neck o' the woods for killing antelope, says the Glasgow, Mont., Gazette. A large band walked across the ice on Cherry creek, and not into a pasture. Stephens posted himself at the opening and turned a pack of hounds loose on the game.

A drowning man would have little use for a method of rescue which would require days. A dyspeptic doesn't want to bother with a remedy that is going to take weeks to show its beneficial effects. The Mount Lebanon Shakers are offering a product under the name of Shaker Digestive Cordial which yields immediate relief.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial relieves by resting the stomach and aiding the digestion of food.
Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

New York Weekly Tribune. Farm and Villagers, Fathers and Mothers, Sons and Daughters, All the Family. With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories. Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family. We furnish "The Chronicle" and N. Y. Weekly Tribune one year for only $1.75. Write your name and address on a postal card, send it to Geo. W. Best, Tribune Office, New York City, and a sample copy of The New York Weekly Tribune will be mailed to you.
