WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

Winquatt literary society was organized at the high school last night.

Don't forget the football game New Year's afternoon at the fair ground.

The Enterprise Raisin seeder will seed a pound of raisins in five minutes. Price $1.00 at Maier & Benton.

Rain commenced falling last night shortly after dark, and up to this morning twelve hundredths of an inch had fallen.

The sun came out about noon as smiling and cheerful as though he had not been sulking behind the clouds for a month or so.

Mr. Stadlerman was held up the other side of Mill creek bridge last night by a couple of footpads, but they got nothing for their trouble.

It is reported that J. A. Powers, who formerly kept a store at Mosier, has struck a mine in British Columbia, for which he has been offered $25,000.

Parties coming in from Wapinitia report the plows running on the higher ground along the road; but most of these are engaged in breaking sod, most of the ground being too wet to plow.

The Woodmen Circle are contemplating having the minstrel entertainment ready to put on in February. They wish to give an especially good show, so have deferred the date until February.

At I. C. Nickelsen's Book and Music store the holiday rush continues, as he offers a large left-over stock of books, albums, bibles, toilet sets, silverware, watches and jewelry at prices below any competitors. dec28-31

Foot-ball the fair grounds New Year's afternoon. Many of our people never saw a scientific game of kicking the pig skin, and this will probably be the only opportunity in a long time. The game promises to be a strong one. Admission 25 cents.

The Dalles is having plenty of amusement just now. Last week it was Martin in a six days' engagement. St Perkins two nights this week. Yaw tonight, Uncle Tom's Cabin tomorrow night, and the skating rink and Salvation Army every night.

Monday when the St Perkins band was playing, a runaway occurred in the East End, but nobody paid any attention to it, just let it run. Music bath charm more potent than a runaway team for Dalles people; which shows that our cult (whatever that is) is all the same Boston man's. That's one of the things we are noted for, that and our tout ensemble, especially the tout.

Tomorrow is the last day in which proof can be made on cash entries of forfeited railroad land. The taxable property of the counties where the lands are located, will be largely increased on this account, as there have been many thousand acres purchased.

The St Perkins show last night was a genuine hilk. The curtain was down most of the time, while traps were being packed for shipment, and the play was cut right and left to get through and go off on the train. The first night's show was good enough, but last night was the worst kind of a fake. For one thing it served to demonstrate the necessity of getting the curtain up promptly and early.

Thursday evening the Salvation Army will have something new in the way of a "Trade Union" march and meeting. After the meeting, coffee and cake will be served at 10 cents. The services of burying the old year and welcoming the new one, will take place at 11 o'clock.

The Woodmen Circle will give a literary and musical entertainment at Fraternity hall on New Year's night. The entertainment will conclude with a social hop. Miss J. Montague Griswold, who is an elocutionist of rare talent, of Portland, will recite on this occasion. Admission, ladies 10 cents, gentlemen 25 cents.

Song and Supper.

There was a very pleasant party at Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Crandall's last evening, and among those present beside the host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Condon, Mr. and Mrs. F. Bronson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Varney, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Sampson, Dr. and Mrs. Doane, Mr. and Mrs. Huntington, Mrs. Groat, Misses Alma and Anna Taylor, Lizzie and Georgia Sampson and Messrs Chas. Clarke and Henry Burchdorf. Music was the principal feature of the evening, topped out with an elegant luncheon.

Notice.

Bids will be received until Thursday evening, January 7th, for the keeping of the county poor. Bids should be filed with the county clerk at the court house, before that time. By order Board County Commissioners. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved.

A. M. KELSEY, Clerk.

Class Gathering.

About twenty-six of the members of Mr. Wm. Michell's Sunday school class, which numbers thirty, were entertained at his residence, on Fourth and Washington streets last evening. The young ladies had apparently looked forward to this annual gathering, and so were ready to enjoy every pleasure afforded. The early part of the evening was spent in sketching, each one being given a card bearing the name of some article or animal to sketch. As the artistic ability of the different participants was shown, and the critics endeavored to name each article drawn, a great deal of amusement was created. Miss Jennie Young came out ahead in the guessing contest and Miss Lola Eubank, although proving herself equal to drawing as fine a bicycle as every adorned a blackboard, failed when it came to judging of her companions' abilities. After Mrs. Michell had served lunch, some very fine charades were acted and again kept the guests busy guessing. Then all joined heartily in singing till a late hour.

The members of the class present were: Misses Nettie Fredden, Julia and Clara Nickelsen, Edie Fisher, Jessie and Carrie Butler, Alice Ball, Martha and Constance Whealdon, Mable Cross, Effie and Vesta Bolton, Katie Sargeant, Grace Willerton, Jennie Young, Francis Van Vactor, Mollie Norman, Maie and Edna Barnett, Emma and Maude St. Johns, Martha Schooling, Ardie Looney.

Former members—Misses Edith Randall, Lola Eubank and Lizzie Schooling.

A Change of Mode.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Dec. 30, 1896.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:

Through the medium of your paper the undersigned desires to respectfully request the members of the Oregon legislature to so change the law regarding the manner and time of auditing the bills of the road supervisors. Under the present law, as I understand, if a man is appointed to that office and refuses to serve, he is liable to a heavy fine and if he serves he must wait until the end of the year before he can have his bills audited and get his pay, and is liable to have his bills cut down if in the judgment of the county court he has done too much work. The natural result is that, under the present law, many roads are more or less neglected, the supervisors, many of whom are poor men, not daring to take the chances and wait so long for their pay. Now what I would ask is that the law be changed so that the road supervisors' bills shall be audited and paid at the regular sessions of the county courts at the same time when other county officials are settled with, and by such frequent settlements we will have better roads. The courts will know at all times past how the work is progressing, and if too much is being done, can check it, or if too little, increase it. All the public is interested in good roads, and I hope our legislators will take speedy action in this matter.

Respectfully,
W. E. WINANS.

For Ladies Only.

Leap year ends tomorrow night, and comes no more until 1904. Therefore, we have been considering the advisability of publishing the list of young ladies left over. We think the bargain counter feature of our idea a fine one, and we believe The Dalles could offer some remarkably choice selections in this line. Our acquaintance is entirely too limited to undertake the affair unless we can get assistance; but if the ladies will kindly send in their names, with such information as to them may seem best, we will gladly publish them. Just before the seaside season we will have a special clearance advertisement of remnants that will clear out the stock. We do not propose to be behind our contemporaries; not if it takes the last button off our coat.

Be on Time Tonight.

The concert tonight will be the affair of the season, and there will be the largest audience the Vogt has held for a long time. The company leaves for Walla Walla tonight, but arrangements have been made for holding the train for them. In order to give plenty of time, however, the doors will be opened at 7 o'clock, and the curtain will go up promptly at a quarter to 8. It is urgently requested by the management that all be in their seats at that time, so that none may be disturbed by late comers.

Lost.

Last evening, a pocket book containing a check for $9.30, issued by Walter Klindt, to bearer. Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving same at this office. d30 2t.
