THE CHRISTIAN'S CHIEF DESIRE.

Sermon by Rev. O. D. Taylor at the Michigan Avenue Baptist Church.

Rev. Orson D. Taylor, of The Dalles, Or., whose name for more than a year has been associated in the public mind here with a criminal case in the courts...

It was a good-sized congregation that assembled to listen to the gentleman. After a sermonette to the children by Mr. Maxson, based on the story of St. Christopher, he introduced Mr. Taylor as one who had been with them for some weeks, and who might not be with them much longer...

"This morning," said he, "I have received the greatest expression of kindness and confidence, in that your pastor who, one day must give an account of stewardship, has invited me to preach to you."

"But that we know that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see Him as He is."

"The purest mortal shrinks from meeting God. Moses of old feared exceedingly when he talked with God, and when he came down from the mountain the people besought him to veil his face, for they could not even look on it because it shone with the glory of God."

"We cannot look at the sun in its full glory, but when its rays caught by a drop of water, are refracted, we behold with delight the beauties of the rainbow. In Christ we see the glory of God the Father reflected so that we may look upon it."

"To see Christ was the greatest desire of the Christian. Who has not wished that he might have lived when Christ was on earth? What child would not have been one of the little ones that he took in his arms and blessed? What a privilege it would have been to have been a lawyer when he was tried. What heroes there were in those days, and the speaker expressed his admiration for St. Peter, the rock on which Christ built his church."

"He saw in him a grand man. He appreciated to some extent his feelings when he denied Christ. It was an awful thing to feel the stamp of a lie on one's face. A lie was never necessary, but Peter thought it was. He was willing, for his love of his master, even to commit perjury, though he had learned at his mother's knee that he who swore falsely lost all hope of this world and the next."

"Then the speaker expressed his admiration for Paul and the sacrifices and hardships he passed through. His shipwrecks, his being stoned, his fighting with wild beasts at Ephesus, and his battling with the powers of the air. He closed with a touching description of how Christ was the hope of the fallen, the sinner, and the out-cast."

A tired stomach is very much like a sprained ankle. If you suffer from any of the symptoms of dyspepsia, your stomach is tired. It needs a crutch. We must relieve it of all work for a time, or until it is restored to its natural strength. To do this successfully, we must use a food which is already digested outside of the body, and which will aid the digestion of other foods that may be taken with it. Such a product is the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

The Shakers have utilized the digestive principles present in plants for the manufacture of this article, and its success has been truly phenomenal. You can try it for the nominal sum of 10 cents, as sample bottles are sold by all druggists at this price.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

This Is Your Opportunity.

On receipt of ten cents, cash or stamps, a generous sample will be mailed of the most popular Catarrh and Hay Fever Cure (Ely's Cream Balm) sufficient to demonstrate the great merits of the remedy.
