THE SENATORIAL FIGHT.

The senatorial situation is decidedly mixed, and what the result will be is very much in doubt. So far it is Mitchell against the field, and all kinds of combinations are being made or suggested. Among the Republican members Mitchell is said to have thirty-eight votes that can be depended on, or eight short of a majority. While he is making his fight as a Republican, it is quite certain that both Democrats and Populists feel more friendly to him than to any other Republican that could be named. The important question is, "Do they feel friendly enough to vote for him?" That no one can tell. Young, the chairman of the Populist state central committee, asserts that Mitchell will get no Populist votes; but Young may not have the Populist members buttoned as tightly in his pocket as he imagines.

In the meanwhile there are rumors of sacks, and more sacks, just as there always are. Bourne is said to have one, and a long one, and others are reported that are of full depth. The fight is growing warm, but will not reach a welding heat until the 19th, when the first vote is taken.

The legislature will meet and organize Monday, and will adjourn about Tuesday or Wednesday until the following Monday to give the speaker a chance to name his committees. Portland is the battle-ground just now, and valiant warriors, ranging from the big rilled 1400 pounder from Portland, to the homeopathic pellets from some of the country precincts are gathered for the conflict. The latter are really suffering from the weight of responsibility each feels resting entirely on himself.

Our guess at the result is that Mitchell will succeed himself.

The funding bill is creating whole lots of fun in the lower house of congress. Johnson of California waded into Hearst, the owner of the San Francisco Examiner, and Boatner and others waded into Johnson. The real fellow who needs just such an ignoble death as being talked to it, Collis P. Huntington, was not mentioned by either side. Johnson drew the enemies fire away from his boss. The funding bill is a dead cold steal of $130,000,000 and interest for 100 years, that is all that can be gotten out of it. It proposes for the government to lend the money to the railroads at one or two per cent a year, and as the government pays about four per cent, the difference between what it received and what it paid out would be $300,000,000. The roads have cost the government enough now, and it should foreclose, get what it can, pocket its loses, and be done with it.

Among the other matters coming before the legislature will be the making of some arrangement for working the state convicts. There seems to be a general objection to convict labor being employed at any work that competes with free labor. In view of this it is probable that a bill will be passed providing for the employment of convict labor on public roads. This would not interfere with anyone, for if there is any place a white man hates to work it is on the public highway. There the good citizen imagines all he has to do is to put in his time and do nothing.

We print the proposed registration law in full that our readers may know just what the law will be. The bill will be submitted to the legislature, and we think passed without material amendment. The law is a good one, and would give us an abolutely fair election without possibility of fraud by colonization or otherwise. When we have an election law that permits every citizen to vote and have his ballot counted, and prevents every person not a citizen voting, nothing more can be desired in that line. The proposed law will accomplish this.

Mr. Walter Germain, whom we presume must be an authority on dress, since he writes learnedly on the care of clothing, among other things advises thusly: "Never lounge about your room in your clothes, nothing destroys them so much. When you come in during the afternoon or at night, remove your coat, waistcoat and trousers and put on a bath robe. Always have an old coat at the office."

California has taken a regular wheat scare, and among the speculators the bulls express the opinion that "wheat will bring $2 per cental, or $1.20 a bushel before the new crop comes in. Californians are figuring the state supply as that of the world, and are, of course, mistaken.

A Cure for Lame Back.

"My daughter, when recovering from an attack of fever, was a great sufferer from pain in the back and hips," writes Louden Grover, of Sardis, Ky. "After using quite a number of remedies without any benefit she tried one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and it has given entire relief." Chamberlain's Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.
