NEVER MIND THE EDITOR.

A Kansas Man's Opinion of the Newspaper Business.

"It takes money to run a newspaper." -Kansas Times.

What an exaggeration; what a whoptimes; it is a clean case of airy laney. It doesn't take money to run a newspaper. It can run without money. It is a charitable institution, a begging a newspaper is the child of the air a creature of a dream. It can go on and in the bands of a receiver and wound up Office in the Vogt block. with cobwebs in the windows.

It takes wind to run a newspaper; it takes gall to run a newspaper. It takes a scintillating, acrobatic imagination. and a half dozen white shirts and a railroad pass to run a newspaper. But money-heavens to Betsy and six hands ducting a newspaper? Kind words are the medium of exchange that do the business for the editor—kind words and of the time prescribed in the above named defendant. In the name of the state of oregon, you are brighten filled against you in the above entitled court and easier, on or before the first day of the business for the editor—kind words and ing children, and when she reads the generous and touching notice about you, forewarn her to neglect to send fifteen cents to the editor. It would overwhelm him. Money is a corrupt thing. The editor knows it, and what he wants is your heartfelt thanks. Then he can thank the printers and they can thank their grocers.

Take your job work to the job offices, and then come and ask for half rates for the church notices. Get your lodge letter-heads and stationary printed out of town, and then flood the editor with beautiful thoughts in resolutions of respect and cards of thanks. They make such spicy reading, and when you pick it up filled with these mortgary articles, yon are so proud of your little local paper!

But money-scorn the filthy thing. Don't let the pure, innocent editor know anything about it. Keep that for sordid trades people who charge for their wares. The editor gives his bounty away. The Lord loves a cheerful giver. He'll take care of the editor. Don't worry about the editor. He has a charter from the state to act as door-mat for the community. He will get the paper out somehow, and stand up for the town and whoop it up for you when you run for office, and lie about your pigeon-toed daughter's tacky wedding, and blow about your big-footed sons. when they get a $4-a-week job, and weep over your shrivelled soul when it is released from your grasping body, and smile at your giddy wife's second marriage. Don't worry about the editor, he'll get on. The Lord knows how-but

A FROG HUNTING DOG.

The Queer Work Performed by an Irish Setter.

"Talk about your dog stories," said a prominent sporting man the other dey. "I saw something out of Cutoff lake which beat anything their eard of. I was out there hant at a much saw a man riding around on here bags and in front of him was circling an Irish setter. As the follow did not $2 50 have any gun, my curiosity was aroused 200 to know what he was doing, but I supposed he was simply breaking his doc. In a few minutes I saw him ride up to where the dog was on a dead stand and the horseman proceeded to jab a pole he was earrying down into the ground and, bringing it up, took something off the end of it. My curiosity was greater than ever, and circling around I came up with the horseman and asked him what he was doing.

"'Hurting frogs,' was the reply,

" What is the dog doing?' said f. "'Hunting frogs,' was the laconic

"'You don't mean to tell me that the dog will set the frogs, do you?"

" 'I don't mean anything else." "A few more-questions and answers brought out the fact that the dog had seen his master hunting around in the grass for frogs and spearing them and had of his own accord taken up the tesk of locating the green beauties. He was a thoroughly trained hunter on hirds and he soon became very expent in locating frogs, so his owner in formed me, and my observations of his movements confirmed the man's state ments."-Onisin Tice.

To Samuel T. Howe, the above named defendant: business for the editor—kind words and church social tickets. When you see an editor with morey, watch him. He'll be paying his bills and disgracing his profession. Never give money to an editor. Make him trade it out. He likes to swap.

With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.

We furnish "The Chronicle" and N. Y. Weekly Trib une one year for only $1.75.

Write your name and address on a postal card, send it to Geo. W. Best Tribune Office, New York City, and a sample copy of The New York Weekly Trib une will be mailed to von.
