A VENGEPUL HUNGARIAN

He Behended the Man Who Bad Outwrestled Rim

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 15 .- After being bested by Joseph Kalata in a wrestling bout, John Cournott, a Hungarian, beheaded his successful rival. The men were rivals for the hand of Anna Jopkapotah, with whose father they boarded.

There was a gathering at the house and Cournott challenged Kalata to a wrestling match. Cournott was defeated, and in his anger left the room, returning in a few minutes with a butcher-knife. Rushing at Kalata, he swung the hnife around his head, and with all the force he could muster brought it down on Kalata's neck. The keen blade out its way through the muscles, arteries and jugular vein, severthem and stopping only at the opposite +ide of the neck. Kalata fell to the floor without so much as a groan. Cournott was arrested.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. THE RESULTS OF LONG, HARD RIDING.

FULLY 3,000 MILES ON HIS WHEEL.

He Makes Some Reflections on the Benefits of the Sport and Tells of its Dangers.

From the Press, Utica, N. Y.

The Rev. Wm. P. F. Ferguson, whose picture we give above, will not be unfamiliar by sight to many readers. A young man, he has still had an extended experience as foreign missionary, teacher, editor, lecturer and pastor that has given him a wide ac-quaintance in many parts of the country. In an interview a few days ago he said:

"In the early summer of 784 I went upon a tour through Canada on my wheel. My route was from Utica to Cape Vincent thence by steamer to Kingston, and from there along the north shore of the lake to Toronto and around to Niagara Falls. I arrived at Cape Vincent at 5 o'clock, having ridden against wincent at 5 o'clock, having ridden against a strong head wind all day.

"After a delightful sail through the Thousand Islands, I stepped on shore in that quaint old city of Kingston. A slight shower had fallen and the streets were damp, so that wisdom would have dictated that I, leg-weary as I was, should have kept in decree but so anytious was I to see the old decree but so anytious was I to see the old. doors, but so anxious was I to see the old city that I spent the whole evening in the

"Five o'clock the next morning brought "Five o'clock the next morning orought a very unwelcome discovery. I was lame in both ankles and knees. The head wind and the damp streets had proved an unfortunate combination. I gave, however, little thought to it, supposing it would wear off in a few hours, and the first flush of sunlight saw me speeding out the splendid road that leads toward Napane.

leads toward Napanec.
"Night overtook me at a little village near Port Hope, but found me still lame. I rested the next day, and the next, but it was too late; the mischief was done. I rode a good many miles during the rest of the season, but never a day and seldom a mile without pain. "The winter came and I put away my wheel, saying 'now I shall get well,' but to my disappointment I grew worse. Some days my knees almost forbade walking and my ankles would not permit me to wear shoes. At times I suffered severe pain, so severe as to make study a practical impos-sibility, yet it must be understood that I concealed the condition of affairs as far spread slightly and my anxiety increased.

. consulted two physicians and followed their excellent advice, but without result. So the winter passed. One day in March I happened to take in my hand a newspaper in which a good deal of space was taken by an article in relation to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I did not at that time know what Pills. I did not at that time know what they were supposed to cure. I should have paid no attention to the article had I not caught the name of a lady whom I knew. Reading, I found that she, in similar circumstances, had been greatly benefited by the use of Pink Pills, and knowing her as I did I had no doubt of the truth of the statement that she had authorized.

The first box was not gone before I saw a change, and the third had not been finished before all signs of my rheumatic troubles were gone to stay.

troubles were gone to stay.
"I say 'gone to stay,' for though there Elegent has been every opportunity for a return of the trouble, I have not felt the first twinge of it. I have wheeled thousands of miles and never before with so little discomfort. I have had some of the most severe tests of strength and endurance, and have come through them without an ache. For example, one afternoon 1 rode seventy miles, preached that night and made fifty miles of the hardest kind of road before noon the next day. Another instance was a 'Century run, the last forty miles of which were made in a downtour of rain through mud

"You should think I would recommend them to others? Well, I have, and have had the pleasure of seeing very good results in a number of instances. Yes, I should feel that I was neglecting a duty if I failed to suggest Pink Pills to any friend whom I knew to be suffering from rheumatism.
