A PETITION FOR MR. JONES.

THE DALLES, Or., Jan. 16.—G. Jacobsen, who expects to be postmaster at The Dalles if Mitchell is elected senator, was engaged today circulating a petition asking F. N. Jones of Bakeoven, Wasco county, representative-elect, to go into the Mitchell senatorial caucus. Senator Dufur was here and started the scheme, and expects to secure the land office appointment in return. The first name on the petition is Frank Menefee, a relative and partner of Dufur's; the second is John Cradlebaugh, defeated candidate for district attorney last June on the Democratic ticket, and the third is Bert Thurston, who was the leader of the Bryan forces here during the presidential campaign. Others on the petition are not prominent. It is not expected that Representative Jones will pay much attention to the petition, as he is known to be a man of firm convictions and capable of acting for himself.

When a cause becomes so desperate that nothing remains to bolster it up with but falsehood, its death is but a question of time, and a short time at that. It required native genius, and one would almost be forced to think newspaper training, to concentrate so much lie as is contained in the article above quoted from the Oregonian of yesterday into so limited a space. Let us examine it:

The petition did not ask F. N. Jones, "representative elect" of this county, to "go into the Mitchell senatorial caucus;" but it did ask said Jones to assist in organizing the house, that the business of the state might be attended to, and it asked nothing more. Senator Dufur was not here, and did not start the scheme; and being a Democrat, it is presumed does not have any hilarious prospects of getting the land office, or any other, under this administration.

The name of "John Cradlebaugh, defeated candidate for district attorney last June on the Democratic ticket," is not second on the list, but is the fifteenth; while the name of Bert Thurston is not third on the list, but twenty-fifth.

With regard to Mr. Jacobsen's aspirations for the postoffice we are uninformed; but will say that it is the first time we have heard it intimated that he had desires in that direction. However, if this is true, we know no law against any citizen seeking an appointment.

As for Mr. Cradlebaugh being defeated for district attorney, the author of the dispatch quoted seems to think it a disgrace for a Democrat to be beaten by a Republican; yet Cradlebaugh himself has a better opinion of Republicans than that, notwithstanding his defeat.

Now, then, if the gentleman who telephoned that article to the Oregonian read the petition, he lied knowingly and maliciously concerning every material allegation therein contained. He lied concerning the object of the petition. He lied concerning Senator Dufur. He lied concerning Cradlebaugh's name on the petition, and did it the second time in regard to Thurston's. He lied concerning Jacobsen being a candidate for postmaster; and he lied generously, promiscuously and in unlimited quantity.

We appreciate fully his delicate sarcasm concerning the prominence of the people named, but deprecate his judgment in pronouncing almost all the business men in town as being of no prominence.

Ananias and Sapphira, Baron Munchausen and Eli Perkins need no longer be held up as shining lights in the firmament of falsehood; but The Dalles correspondent can fill its cerulean-hued skies from zenith to nadir, the visible incarnation, the avatar of untruth.

ANOTHER REASON.

The situation at Salem remains unchanged, and bids fair to get no better. Were it only the election of a senator that divided the house, the matter might be settled, but behind the senatorial election looms up the old Portland fight that has for years interfered with legislation and gives promise of remaining alive indefinitely to worry the state. The Portland factions are at war, one side wanting the charter amended, and the other wanting it to remain as it is. To the Portland delegation this fight is of more importance than the senatorial question, or any, or all other questions.

This furnishes really a stronger motive for holding up the senatorial election, and the Multnomah bosses use the latter as a blind. Of course they do not want Mitchell, but they would not hold out on that proposition alone. They are, as usual, working the country members to get what chestnuts they can.

A Cure for Lame Back.

"My daughter, when recovering from an attack of fever, was a great sufferer from pain in the back and hips," writes London Grover, of Sardis, Ky. "After using quite a number of remedies without any benefit she tried one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and it has given entire relief." Chamberlain's Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

The progressive ladies of Westfield, Ind., issued a "Woman's Edition" of the Westfield News, bearing date of April 3, 1896. The paper is filled with matter of interest to women, and we notice the following from a correspondent, which the editors printed, realizing that it treats upon a matter of vital importance to their sex: "The best remedy for croup, colds and bronchitis that I have been able to find is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For family use it has no equal. I gladly recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

The Grandest Remedy.

Mr. R. E. Greeve, merchant of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by the use of two bottles. For past three years has been at tending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottle free at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug store. (2)
