COFFEE WAR IS STILL RAGING.

Neither Company Shows Any Sign of Yielding.

TOLEDO, Jan. 18.—The fight between the Arbuckles and the sugar trust regarding the price of coffee will continue more bitter than ever.

"Only for the injunction suit hanging over our heads," said the chief director of the Woolson Spice Company, "we would cut the price of coffee another half cent a pound. We cannot do it, however, in face of the order of the court. Instead of losing $1000 a day, as it is stated by the Arbuckles in their petition against us, on account of cutting prices, we are making $1000 per day which our books will show.

"We have no fear of the outcome of the suit, because we can show that the business is prospering. The price of coffee is too high now and we can afford to lower it if the courts will only permit us to do so. We are running night and day and employ 600 hands, and if the suit comes our way we will employ 1200 inside the next 10 days. If the suit goes against us, then we will be compelled to move from Toledo and secure a location elsewhere. Our purpose is to make Toledo the great and only coffee center of the world.

"The trouble with Arbuckle is that he bought coffee for 11 cents per pound when he could have purchased it a short time afterward for 9 to 9½ cents per pound. He is trying to sell coffee on the basis of his 11 cents per pound purchase, while we are willing to give the public the benefit of our 9 cents purchase for the same class of goods. This is where the whole fight hinges. Arbuckle made a bad deal in buying coffee and he wants the public to help him out, while we bought at market prices and are willing and ready to let the public enjoy the benefit of our economical purchase. We are in the coffee business for the money that is in it and not for our health, and propose to stay there regardless of threats and intimidation.

HEALTH OF THE CZAR.

An Old Wound Causes His Majesty Serious Trouble.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—In official circles here and on the continent the greatest importance is attached to a dispatch from St. Petersburg yesterday, announcing that Dr. Bergmann, an eminent German specialist, had been summoned to perform an operation on the czar to prevent a possible extension of the slight osseous excrescence which has appeared on his cranium at the place where he was struck by a Japanese fanatic in 1891. This, combined with overwork, has caused the czar to suffer from vertigo for some time past. The fact that such news was allowed to be sent abroad shows the gravity of the situation.

The czar received his wound while making a tour of the world with Prince George of Greece, who, by knocking the assailant down, saved his companion from further and possibly more serious injury.

Texas are Happy.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 18.—The Texas delegation which on Saturday afternoon presented a petition of 103,300 names to President-elect McKinley at Canton, in behalf of John Grant, of Texas, for a cabinet appointment, passed through the city last evening en route home. They were met at the station by a number of prominent representatives of the city. A spread was prepared in the dining-room of the Terminal hotel for them. After refreshments were disposed of, many of them took carriages and drove about the city.

They left the union station at 8 o'clock last night. As the train pulled out a dozen bouquets were thrown into the car by St. Louis admirers of John Grant.

The members of the delegation were much pleased with the result of their visit to Major McKinley. They feel quite confident that Mr. Grant will get a place in the cabinet.

PERU MUST SETTLE UP

Olney Demands Payment of the McCord Claims.

ALASKAN CANNERS FORM A TRUST

Indiana Barber Wants Beards Taxed, so as to Make the Barbers of His State Prosperous.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The administration is determined that Peru shall pay the claim for $200,000 growing out of the outrage committed in 1885 upon V. H. McCord, a consul of the United States. A cable dispatch has just been sent to Mr. McKenzie, the United States minister stationed at Lima, directing him to inform the Peruvian government that the case must be settled without delay. A communication received from the minister a few days ago stated that Peru desired to investigate the case. Secretary Olney at once advised Mr. McKenzie that Peru had had more than 10 years to investigate, and the time was quite sufficient.

In 1885 V. H. McCord, the United States consular agent at Arequipa, was imprisoned and sentenced to be shot by the Peruvian authorities. He was marched out on a parade ground and placed before a file of soldiers. The officer in command asked the prisoner if he had anything to say, and McCord said no. A consultation of officers was held, and it was decided not to shoot him. He was remanded to prison and held 10,000 soles. He refused to pay the fine and was deprived of food and drink and placed in a bare cell. McCord's friends finally paid the fine, and the prisoner was released. He filed a claim for $200,000 against the government of Peru, and it has been a subject of intermittent negotiation.

McCord, as well as being United States consular agent, was manager of railroad. During the revolution of 1885, he was ordered to place an engine and train at the disposal of the government for the transportation of troops. He did this, but the engineer the following day detached the engine and delivered it to the rebels. For this offense McCord was arrested.

Secretary Olney has just cabled United States Minister McKenzie at Lima, regarding the Peruvian government's demand for more time, and demanding an immediate settlement of the claim.

The United States cruiser Philadelphia is on the way from Valparaiso to Callao, Peru, and, while its visit has nothing to do with the McCord claim, the presence of an American warship will probably have some persuasive influence with the government of Peru.

Would Tax Beards and Also Goggles. ANDERSON, Ind., Jan. 18.—An Embargo is threatened on Indiana Whiskerettes and "windbreakers" by Jim Reeves, an Anderson barber, who has prepared a bill and is endeavoring to get some representative or senator in the present assembly to father it. Reeves is quite in earnest about it, and gives as a ground for its presentation that it would restore prosperity to the barbers and at the same time the means of raising the public debt. The bill provides for a tax of $10 per year on every man wearing chin whiskers, or "side slugs." It also provides for a tax on goatees. Moustaches are freed from all taxation.

The matter is attracting a great deal of attention, and is regarded by almost everybody as an unheard of trampling on American rights. Reeves defends the bill eloquently, and points out where humanity all down the line would be benefited and beautified by the enactment of such a law. He is backed by quite a forcible array of barbers all over the state.

ALASKA SALMON WILL HIGH.

Packers Form a Combine to Advance Prices.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—An important pooling arrangement has been brought about between the Alaska Packers Association and the Alaska Improvement Company that will materially affect the salmon industry in northern waters and the price of canned salmon in the country next season.

The details of the pending agreement, which will effectually relieve the Alaska Packers' Association of all competition in both fishing and marketing of the product of the Alaska canneries, were adjusted a few days ago by President Henry Fortmann, on behalf of the Alaska Packers' Association, and Managing Superintendent Barling, of the improvement company.

The agreement does not affect the last season's catch, which is being handled by the two rival organizations, the same as in past years. It will revolutionize things during the coming season, however, for by the terms of the agreement the entire product of the Alaska canneries will be pooled and marketed at prices which will eliminate existing competition, and are expected to greatly advance the prices now in vogue.

Tea is better fresh—if it isn't, what does the grocer mean by telling you that he has some tea just come from abroad?

Fresh doesn't mean just picked; it means just roasted. Schilling's Best is roasted as fast as your grocer wants it—no faster—in San Francisco.

All the Family.

With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.
