JONES TO LECTURE.

The Oregonian yesterday printed the following in a position in its columns where it was not over-prominent. It corrects one of the five deliberate lies told in the article in its Sunday issue:

The petition circulated in The Dalles on Saturday, directed to Mr. F. N. Jones, one of the representatives of Wasco county, demanding that he go in the house caucus, will have no effect on him. Representative Jones is old enough and big enough to act for himself. He was elected as a representative, unpledged, and purposes to remain so and act in the best interests of the state. The dispatch from The Dalles, published yesterday, relative to the petition, contained an error. Senator Dufur if not promised the land office at The Dalles. It is his brother, W. H. H. Dufur; but his hope of securing such place is contingent on his brother's senatorial vote for Mitchell. When the petition is presented to Representative Jones, the bearer will likely be read a lecture that he will have good cause to remember.

And so Jones is going into the lecture business. Well! Well! What will come next? As to his being old enough and big enough to act for himself, we doubt it, or he would not submit to the dictation of Jonathan Bourne; and as to his being elected "unpledged," we call attention to a communication from Hood River, on our local page, giving this statement the lie direct.

It would seem from the article above quoted that Jones is much bigger now than last June, for now he has grown so great that we petty men must creep beneath his huge legs in fear and trembling lest he lecture us on our temerity in daring to approach him with a petition. "Upon what meat hath this our Caesar fed?" Has Bourne given it a new bottle with a white nipple, or promoted it to "spoon victuals?" Alas! We know not. We only know that the Oregonian has caught on to our representative's avoirdupois, and is trying to scare us with him.

NOT ALL OUR WAY.

There is doubt expressed by leading statesmen as to the benefits to be derived from the treaty between this country and England, submitting all disputes to arbitration. It is claimed that under the terms of the treaty the Monroe doctrine cannot be interpreted by us, but will be entirely under the control of King Oscar of Sweden.

It may be all right, but results will determine the fact. While we have the highest regard for Mr. Olney, and recognize his ability as a statesman, we at the same time realize that the trained diplomats of England generally keep the long end of the lever, and it is safe to assume that England has not surrendered or the United States gained much by the treaty. Each country will stay by it as long as it suits them, but if ever the Monroe doctrine is called in question, this country will jump the treaty without any compunctions of conscience. Ex-Secretary Tracy points out the fact that if Spain should sell Cuba to England, this country could not resist her occupancy of the island, but would have to submit the matter to an European monarch.

There was a slight change in the situation at Salem yesterday, in the answering to their names by three of the Democrats. This may have been done in good faith, or it may have been, as Bilyeu expressed it, "a desire to come in and see what was going on." If some of Joe Simon's henchmen would do as well as the Democrats, the situation would settle itself speedily; but Simon's men are like himself—shameless.

Another petition to Hon. F. N. Jones is being circulated quietly among the select few. We have not had the pleasure of seeing it, but presume from its source it is an indorsement of his course. It is also presumed that all the "prominent" people of the city have signed it, excepting, of course, the "big four" mentioned by the mendacious gentleman from this city in his communication to the Oregonian.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton, Refrigerator Line.
