PLAGUE IN MARSEILLES

Terrible Deaths Occur in the French City.

THE PEOPLE ARE PANIC-STRICKEN

Authorities, However, Deny That It Is the Dread Bubonic Disease--Sanitary Measures in Europe.

MARSEILLES, Jan. 23.—The greatest feeling of alarm prevails here among the masses of the population on account of a number of sudden deaths which have occurred in one street. Some ten days ago a report was circulated here that a case of bubonic plague had been discovered. This was promptly denied and precautions taken to guard against the introduction of the plague was redoubled, and especially in the vicinity of the old and new ports, where the maritime population congregates. In those neighborhoods, seamen and others from all parts of the world are to be found in great numbers, and in the vicinity of the old port, especially, the streets are narrow and in the extreme, lined with old and overpopulated houses, and in every way unhealthy, the cobblestone roadway as a rule having gutters through which vile drainage flows. Since the alarm, steps have been taken to clean the streets as much as possible, and domiciliary visits have been made by the health officers in the most dangerous quarters.

Under the circumstances it is not extraordinary that the authorities were greatly alarmed when the report was first spread that a case of bubonic plague had been discovered, but it was not until today that the public became frightened. It was announced that nine sudden deaths had occurred in one street within a few days, and of course the plague was claimed, rightly or wrongly, in every case. The health officers declare that all nine cases were deaths from "infectious pneumonia," but the public is very far from being satisfied.

Dispatches received from Paris show that the government is fully alive to the danger of the situation. Decrees have been issued forbidding pilgrims from leaving Algeria, Tunis and Senegambia this year for Mecca, and merchandise from India must, under severe penalty, be imported through five designated ports, of which this is one. At these ports of entry Indian merchandise will be allowed to land only after having been most thoroughly fumigated and otherwise disinfected. Quantities of anti-plague serum are being sent here to other ports, and all ships from the East will be carefully examined and quarantined, if necessary.

LASH PLEADED GUILTY.

Has Not Yet Said Who Are the Others Implicated With Him.

BENDLETON, Or., Jan. 23.—Defaulting border George R. Lash this morning pleaded guilty of the larceny of public money. The court will pass sentence Tuesday. Lash was driven to the courthouse from his residence, where he has been sick under the doctor's care, and with officers patrolling before the house. Lash was immediately arraigned, and entered a plea of guilty. Some of the court officials, all warm personal friends of Lash, were overcome by emotion, and were compelled to leave the room.

Lash, after saying that others were implicated in the crime, refused to disclose their names. This caused a sensation against many persons, that can only be removed by Lash making a clean breast of the whole matter.

QUICK RETRIBUTION.

Spanish Caught in a Trap Laid by Their Countrymen.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 23.—A Special to the Commercial Tribune from Key West says:

A horrible story comes from Jumento, province of Santa Clara, telling of quick retribution to the Spaniards for their treachery and barbarous methods of war. Spanish force, under Captain Martelli, entered the place, which had been the camp of the insurgents, and before going away poisoned a well and a spring used for affording excellent water. That evening a Spanish band of guerrillas entered the town, and used the water,

Cold Weather at Spokane.

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 24.—Saturday night the advance agent of the blizzard struck Spokane in the shape of a cold wind, and the temperature fell 40 degrees in three hours. The severe cold and wind continued all day, and tonight the thermometer registers 10 degrees above.

Reports from the country indicate that the cold wave is general throughout Eastern Washington and Idaho.

Cold Wave in Texas.

DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 24.—A norther made its advent here this morning, and the mercury dropped from 46 to 16 degrees above zero, and it is hourly growing colder. from which over 25 men died. The guerilla captain charged the Cuban residents with the deed, and shot them dead. He then turned the women over to the tender mercies of the men, who shot young boys who attempted to save their mothers and sisters. He burned the village. The next day some of the Spanish troops told the guerillas the story of the trap they had set for the Cubans, and learned that their own companions in arms had been caught by their own barbarous plots.

We know of but one community in the world where dyspepsia is practically unknown, and that is the Snakers of Mount Lebanon, N. Y. These good people have been studying the subject of digestion for more than a hundred years, and that they understand it pretty thoroughly, is evinced in the foregoing fact. Their Digestive Cordial is the safest and best remedy in cases of indigestion that we know of. A trial bottle can be had through your druggists for the trifling sum of 10 cents.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial supplies the system with food already digested, and at the same time aids the digestion of other foods. It will almost instantly relieve the ordinary symptoms of indigestion, and no suffer need to be told what these are. (5)

Ice-Covered Austin.

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 24.—A cold wave struck this section today, and increased until tonight, when a drizzling rain began, which is freezing as it falls, covering everything with ice. Reports from stock ranges in the west of the state say a fear of severe loss is felt, as many herds are without shelter. A slight snow was reported to the north of the city.
