PROPHECY AND ITS FULFILLMENT

James Cummins' Former Wife Had a Dream.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—Jas. Cummins, an aged capitalist, mining engineer and promoter of various enterprises, died in Alameda recently. Cummins was married in Salt Lake City twenty-eight years ago, and three months after his wedding his wife departed for San Francisco on a visit to relatives. From that parting until a few months ago husband and wife never saw or heard from each other. Cummins' whereabouts became effectually swallowed up in mystery, and Mrs. Cummins, after the lapse of a few years, during which she became convinced that her husband must be dead, removed to Oroville, where she still resides. Some years later she discovered her husband had secured a divorce without her knowledge, whereupon she married an undertaker named Sovereign.

A few months ago she dreamt that her former husband was about to return to her; that he would soon thereafter die, and that her husband, the undertaker, would bury him. Remarkable as this may seem, the strange prophecy has been fulfilled.

On his deathbed Cummins produced two keys, stating that they fitted his safe-deposit box in Pueblo, Colo., in which were $150,000 in United States bonds, and his safe-deposit box in Denver, which contained the balance of his securities. He left $10,000 to Mrs. Sovereign and the remainder of his property, estimated at almost $1,000,000, to his son, J. W. Cummins, who has been made executor, and who has departed for Pueblo to take charge of affairs.

Water Famine at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 26.—This city was swept all night by a 60-mile breeze, which made the weather seem more severe, although the cold moderated. At 8 a. m. today the thermometer was 12 deg. above. Buffalo is again experiencing a water famine, owing to slush ice in the Niagara river, which is sucked in at inlet pier and clogs the pumps.

Another Cold Wave Expected.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Weather bureau advices show 20 to 30 degrees below in the Northwest and the freezing weather extends to the Gulf coast. In the middle and South Atlantic states indications are the sun will aid materially today and tomorrow in mitigating the effects of the cold blasts from the west. The high barometer out West is thought, however, to presage another drop in temperature later in the week.

M. Creveuil, being about to leave the city, offers his fine stock of artificial flowers, plants, etc., at greatly reduced prices. Rooms in Masonic building. dec31-tf

Sherman's Successor.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—The Post's Washington special says: Senator Sherman said today: "My acceptance of the portfolio of secretary of state was without any reservation or conditions. Governor Bushnell has six weeks yet before it will be necessary to appoint my successor in the senate. There seems to be a general desire that Hanna should be selected for the seat, and, while I have no assurance on that point, I believe Governor Bushnell will appoint him."

This Is Your Opportunity.

On receipt of ten cents, cash or stamps, a generous sample will be mailed of the most popular Catarrh and Hay Fever Cure (Ely's Cream Balm) sufficient to demonstrate the great merits of the remedy.

ELY BROTHERS,
56 Warren St., New York City.
Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement, "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Poole, Pastor Central Presbyterian Church, Helena, Mont.

Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for catarrh and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.

CRAPS BEFORE DUTY.

The Darky Thought That the New Yorker Was Very Inconsiderate.

A Wall street man tells this story: "I was making the trip from New Orleans to Memphis in April by a Mississippi river steambottom. On the first day out from New Orleans I felt the need of the barber's services and learning that the Memphis Belle was temporarily equipped I sought out that office. I found a single barber in charge, a rather pompous, tall person of color with flowing Dundreary whiskers. He was engaged in doing nothing at all with that grace of execution peculiar to the southern darky. I seated myself in his chair and was soon wrapped in thought upon some business I had begun in New Orleans. The barber began his work leisurely, the while carrying on a one-sided flow of talk to which I replied in monosyllables.

"The day was warm and I was almost dozing away under the soft splashes of his brush when another customer entered. He was a nervous, fidgety sort of man and as there were no newspapers in the room he amused himself in looking at a few prints hung on the walls, the attraction of which soon pulled upon him. Then he walked to the door and looked down the deck where a group of roustabouts were engaged in the game of craps. Figaro had by this time completed the lathering of one side of my face and roused me by turning my head around. I interrupted that life was short, and I didn't care about passing too much of it in being shaved. He was evidently disgusted with my taciturnity and replied with great dignity, but with no haste either of speech or action: 'Cert'nly, sah, cert'nly.'

"The stranger's curiosity had been aroused by the gambling going on outside, which was as usual accompanied by the 'come sevens' and shrieks of 'craps' which attend that game.

"What game is that, barber?" he demanded of Dundreary. He of the whiskers made one or two artistic plays of his brush over my chin and answered:

"Lah, Gawd, mister, ain't yer ever seen that game? That's craps. Everybody plays it 'round this country."

"The stranger admitted he had seen it played before in the wharves and streets, but said he had not discovered any mental light from his observations. A running exchange of queries and explanations followed between barber and stranger, during which a not over keen razor had begun its course down my right cheek. Both parties to the colloquy were getting interested and I was getting bored.

"The nervous stranger appeared somewhat obtuse, or, perhaps, the vernacular of the barber was inadequate to convey the full meaning of the technical details of craps. At any rate, he pressed for further information. My face had by that time been cleared of beard as to my chin and part of my cheek. Fifteen minutes had been consumed in the process and my patience was becoming thready.

"The barber had exhausted his powers of description and, turning to the stranger, he said:

"Well, sah, if you really wants to know how to shoot craps I kin show you," and placing the razor on the shelf he opened a drawer and withdrew a pair of greasy-looking dice. Then he stepped over to a table and began to give a practical exposition of the mysteries of the game. This was too much.

"Here!" I cried, raising myself in the chair. "Finish up this job before you get to crap shooting."

"Cert'nly, sah," he replied to me and turning to the stranger he added: "One minute an' I'll show you."

"It only took a few minutes to complete his work on me, and as I put on my coat he and the stranger proceeded with the game. As I left the room I could hear him muttering about the 'hurry some people is in an' it is still foh days 'fore we get to Memphis'."

A HOLE IN THE MOUNTAIN.

Wonders of a Cave Near Chattanooga That Puzzle Geologists.

"The most peculiar cave I ever saw," said a Chattanooga man to a Washington Star writer, "is on Raconon mountain, near Chattanooga. It has never been explored, and no one really knows whether or not there is much of a cave. The Indians have several legends concerning it, and it is remarkable that no one has ever entered it. It was supposed by the Indians to be haunted, and there are some gruesome tales told about it. The only opening yet discovered is on top of the mountain. It has been sounded with a line of considerable length without finding a bottom to the chamber through the roof of which the opening exists. There is a constant roaring sound, like the wind sometimes makes. It does not seem like water, and is undoubtedly caused by air circulating in the immense hole in the mountain. There are no volcanic indications, and the cave is a puzzle to geologists."

English Lawyers.

The difference between a counsel and a queen's counsel—or, in the event of a king being on the throne, a K. C.—is that the latter is supposed to be able to appear as the sovereign's advocate. Both are entitled to wear wig and gown; but the gown of the latter is silk, and the former is of "stuff." The queen's counsel can take only what is termed "lending business."

The Daisy in Australia.

The ox-eye daisy, which bothers American farmers, is now spreading in many agricultural districts in Australia, being introduced with hayseed. It causes damage to grass lands.

CURED OF PARALYSIS

Carlos F. Shepard, a Member of the Indianapolis Board of Trade, is About Once More.

A Case of Weighty Interest to Anyone Suffering With Nervous Complaints, for the Patient was Cured by "Feeding" the Nerves. This is a New Term in Medicine.

From the News, Indianapolis, Ind.

One of the best known men about the Indianapolis Board of Trade is Carlos F. Shepard, who for several years has been connected with the house of H. E. Kinney, grain broker. Mr. Shepard is a bluff, hearty, old gentleman of medium height, gray-headed and with a mustache like a French veteran. He is a man of very decided views on all subjects and is especially orthodox in politics and medicine. Notwithstanding his firmness in his convictions and the vigor with which he maintains them he is a man of many friends for many men, even though sometimes obstinate in their opinions, have the force of character that win admiration and friendship.

So a few months ago when the news came to his old associates on the Board of Trade that Mr. Shepard had received a stroke of paralysis and that the probabilities were that his days of usefulness were over, and that perhaps, his hours were numbered, the deepest sympathy went out to the stricken man and his family. It seemed to all his friends almost impossible that this rugged old man, always so wholesomely hearty and cheerful, always a picture of health for could have been so suddenly laid low. But it was true and many weeks passed before his well-known form and kindly face returned to his former business haunts. His reappearance was made the occasion of a hearty welcome and the story of his illness and recovery is well worth the telling.

"I was taken sick," said Mr. Shepard, "on the 17th of August, 1895. As I had all along been of the opinion that it was made for me to entertain the thought that I was to be laid up for more than a day or two. I am 58 years old, and for 40 years up to the time of my attack, I had not had a day's sickness. The doctors who diagnosed my case saw at once that it was something serious. They at first said that it was lumbago then sciatic rheumatism. They finally came to the conclusion they did not know what was the matter with me. I experienced no pain, my head was clear, my appetite good, but I lost the use of myself from my hips down. This was a hard stroke to an active man who has always had an easy going pair of legs. My brother-in-law, who is a physician, came from a neighboring city to see me. He pronounced my affliction to be locomotor ataxia. I am of the opinion that he diagnosed the case correctly for I was absolutely paralyzed from the hips down."

"Before he came, however, a day or so before I had begun taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. That was on the 20th day of last October. I read an article in the Indianapolis News and saw testimonials describing cases cured that were similar to mine. It struck me that the remedy could not do me any harm and I began to take the pills.

"Before I began taking them I could not stir a peg, but had to be carried from place to place. I had not got far into the first box when I felt that deliverance from my enforced inaction had come. Before I finished the second box I was able to walk alone with the aid of a cane. About home I do not use a cane now but when I come out on the slippery pavements I feel that I need a little support to make my footing sure. It is at least a hundred persons, what I want to print all this? Why, my dear sir, I never gave a recommendation to any proprietary medicine before in my life. Perhaps it may not be a bad thing to do so this time if it will help any sufferer to regain health and bodily activity."

Carlos F. Shepard has been a resident of Indianapolis for over twenty years. He lives at No. 729 East Ohio Street. He has always been an active, enterprising man and his many friends will rejoice that he has literally been put upon his feet again. He is not only well-known locally but to grain shippers all over Indiana and Illinois.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are an unfailing remedy for all diseases arising from a poor and watery condition of the blood, such as pale and sallow complexion, general muscular weakness, loss of appetite, depression of spirits, lack of ambition, anemia, chlorosis or green sickness, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath on slight exertion, coldness of hands and feet, swelling of the feet and limbs, pain in the back, nervous headache, dizziness, loss of memory, feebleness of will, ringing in the ears, early decay, all forms of female weakness, leucorrhoea, tardy or irregular periods, suppression of menses, hysteria, paralysis, locomotor ataxia, rheumatism, sciatic, all diseases depending on vitiated humor in the blood, causing serofula, swelled glands, fever sores, rickets, hip-joint diseases, hunchback, acquired deformities, decayed bones, chronic erysipelas, catarrh, consumption of the bowels and lungs, and also for invigorating the blood and system when broken down by overwork, worry, disease, excesses and indiscretions of living, recovery from acute diseases, such as fevers, etc., loss of vital powers, spermatorrhoea, early decay, premature old age. These pills are not a purgative medicine. They contain nothing that could injure the most delicate system. They act directly on the blood, supplying to the blood its life-giving qualities by assisting it to absorb oxygen, that great supporter of all organic life. In this way the blood, becoming "built up" and being supplied with its lacking constituents, becomes rich and red, nourishes the various organs, stimulating them to activity in the performance of their functions, and thus to eliminate diseases from the system.

These Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and are never sold in bulk. They may be had of all druggists, or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment inexpensive compared with other remedies.
