

The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

The only Republican Daily Newspaper in Wasco County.

FRIDAY, - - - JAN. 29, 1897

EASTERN OFFICE—230 to 234 Temple Court, N. Y. City. E. KATZ, Agent.

GREATER THAN THE PEOPLE.

The stockmen of Wasco county are exceedingly sore over Mr. Jones' action in refusing to assist in organizing the legislature. They are interested in the election of a United States senator, of course, but only as a means to an end. They want a joint memorial to congress asking the opening of the Cascade Forest Reserve to pasturage, and they want it with an exceeding great want. That was one of the things that caused them to battle so manfully for Mr. Jones' election. He was one of them. His interests seemed to be their's; but they have been sadly disappointed.

Mr. Jones will, no doubt, pursue the course he has entered upon to the end. There is no law to stop him; no law to compel him to do those things he was elected to do. He is a law unto himself. We do not envy him, though, on his return to his home among his former friends and neighbors.

By every rule of honor and honesty, every representative who solicited the votes of the people is bound to accept the office to which they elected him, and as far as possible carry out their wishes. Mr. Jones was elected to the legislature, not simply to go to Salem. By accepting the nomination he prevented some other man going to the legislature, and performing the duty he refuses to perform. That is a matter he can settle with his own conscience; but it is safe to say that he will be much older before he is again nominated for an office in Oregon.

The suits of the United States against Seufert and Taffe to condemn a right of way for a boat railway, are not being pushed very rapidly. The motions for new trials were argued and submitted some time ago, but Judge Bellinger has not yet passed an opinion on them. People who expect the boat railway completed in two or three years, can re-model their opinions, taking the length of time it takes to secure the right of way as a basis of measurement. If it takes as long, in proportion to the amount accomplished, the road will not be completed before "A. D. 2000." While we have never been in favor of a boat railway, always believing as we believe now, that a canal is preferable, we realize that it is a boat railway or nothing, because the government engineers want to try the experiment, and hence we hope that the preliminary work may soon be completed and that the work of construction be begun.

Judge George Turner, after being nominated for senator at Olympia yesterday, made a speech, thanking the legislators for their support. His political status is well set forth in the following quotation from his speech, in which he intimates that God is assisting him to be a Populist. This is easily explained when once it is understood that desire for office is, and always has been, Turner's God. He said: "While I have been a Republican in the past, I am now a member of the People's party, and as long as I live I never expect to cast another Republican ballot, as long as God helps me. I am not prepared to surrender my old convictions in regard to the tariff, but I will never vote for a tariff measure prepared under the auspices which allow the raising of $15,000,000 to use in a presidential campaign."

Lyman J. Gage, president of the First National Bank of Chicago, has been selected by President-elect McKinley to fill the position of secretary of the treasury. Mr. Gage is considered by many as a gold democrat; by others as an independent Republican. Mr. Gage has never attained any great prominence politically, and it strikes us his appointment is a mistake, judging only of the reports of his political status. Cleveland tried a mugwump, and the experiment was not a success.

Fifty-four fusionists voted for George Turner for United States senator from Washington yesterday. This being a clear majority, he will in all probability be elected, or has been elected today. Turner is a man of some ability and much egotism. He is a dark, gloomy looking fellow, with a full lip, giving his face the appearance of an African. Of the whole lot of candidates it is safe to say the Washington legislature has selected the worst.

The bill to license prize-fighting has passed both houses of the Nevada legislature, and only awaits the governor's signature to become a law. A Nevada paper says that if the governor pays any attention to public sentiment he will sign the bill, as 90 per cent of the people desire the bill to become a law. It adds that "the moral weight of the churches will be against it; but that the moral weight of the churches in Nevada is a very light quantity."

The progressive ladies of Westfield, Ind., issued a "Woman's Edition" of the Westfield News, bearing date of April 3, 1896. The paper is filled with matter of interest to women, and we notice the following from a correspondent, which the editors printed, realizing that it treats upon a matter of vital importance to their sex: "The best remedy for croup, colds and bronchitis that I have been able to find is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For family use it has no equal. I gladly recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
