WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

The docket for this term of court is a remarkably short one.

At the city council meeting Saturday night six lots were ordered sold.

The city jail had one inmate last night, a man who seems to be off his balance mentally.

The highways are said to be, by those who travel them, simply the abomination of desolation.

Hood River has a delegation of half a dozen of its leading citizens here to take part in the business of the courts.

What was the matter with the weather today? If it wasn't a harbinger (whatever that is) of spring, what was it?

Miss Gladys Jones and Miss Harriet Stevens, assisted by local talent, in concert tomorrow evening at the Congregational church. Admission 50 cents.

A. M. Williams & Co. are offering the balance of their stock of children's and misses' jackets and long cloaks at one-half price. All ladies' jackets at actual cost.

Professor S. J. McMillan, the second Sandow, will give an exhibition of his feats of strength at the Commercial Club rooms tonight, and all members are requested to be present.

The circuit court term has brought quite a number of citizens from the outside precincts to do service as jurors, among them our old friend, C. W. Haight, who lives down on the borders of Crook county.

Do not fail to call on Dr. Lannerberg, the eye specialist, and have your eyes examined free of charge. If you suffer with headache or nervousness you undoubtedly have imperfect vision that, if corrected, will benefit you for life. Office in the Vogt block.

The Newberg Graphic is responsible for this almost incredible story: "As strange as it may appear in this day and age of the world, a man walked into this office the other day and tendered the proprietor the loan of $300 or $400. It was not accepted either."

The Woman's Relief Corps having changed their meeting night to the second and fourth Monday of each month, will hold their regular meeting this evening at Fraternity hall, at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present. The G. A. R. post and their families are invited guests for this evening.

Tommy Conger killed on Pine creek, in Grant county, recently, a monster gray eagle, positively one of the largest ever captured in that county. Its wings measured 8 feet 2 inches from tip to tip. The bird was large enough to carry a child, its claws measuring 8 inches from tip to tip, one of its spurs being 3 1/2 inches in length.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Esther Almina Reno, wife of George Reno, died at her home at Mosier from consumption. She has been sick for some time, and was about 43 years of age at the time of her death. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. John Miller. The funeral will take place from the family residence at Mosier tomorrow at 12 o'clock.

The soft weather for the last few days has been causing considerable annoyance to the train men on the Elgin branch of the O. R. & N., by loosening rocks in the canyon south of Elgin.

These loosened rocks, some of them weighing several hundred pounds, roll down on the track, causing the trains to stop until they are rolled out of the way.

A story is going the rounds in Umatilla county to the effect that Joe Hinkle, a school teacher at Juniper, probably owes his life to some of his scholars. The report has it that Mr. Hinkle fell asleep with his feet in the stove during school recess last week, and his shoes and trousers were on fire when some of his scholars rushed in, roused their teacher, and saved him.

The lecture Sunday night at the Vogt, by Mrs. Clara Hoffman, was well attended and is very highly complimented. Mrs. Hoffman in handling the temperance question puts it in an entirely new and very taking light. Such lectures as her's do more good for the cause, than a thousand of the old stereotyped kind with a fearful example as a text, and a pale faced widow with nine small children as a moral.

Veni vidi and went away perfectly satisfied and fully convinced that men are still capable of holding the reins of government, even in domestic matters. When is all this? Next Friday, Feb. 12th, at 7:30 p. m., in the auditorium of M. E. church there will be a literary and musical program by some of the best male talent in The Dalles. After the program, refreshments will be served, consisting of clam chowder, coffee, cake and sandwiches. Remember that all cooking and service will be performed by the men. All ladies are asked to give this special notice and to bring well sharpened appetites.

Doorkeeper Blundell is a very small man; but he has a reputation for wit which survives past sessions of the legislature, of several of which he has been a member from Douglas county. Blundell got into a friendly controversy the other day about the occupations of the residents of Yaquina bay. "Lazy?" said Blundell. "They're the laziest and sleepest people on earth. They live on raw oysters, and when the tide has ebbed the table's set. Their pulse is like a clam's, and beats once in five minutes. They wake up just once in two years, and then it's only to inquire if congress has passed the river and harbor bill." Of course, Blundell was simply jesting.

The Saturday Review says that when he was in Egypt, Mark Twain hired two Arabs as guides to take him to the pyramids. He was familiar enough with Arabic, he thought, to understand and be understood with perfect ease. To his consternation, he found that he could not comprehend a word that either of the guides uttered. At the pyramids he met a friend, to whom he made known his dilemma. It was very mysterious, Twain thought. "Why, the explanation is simple enough," said the friend. "Please enlighten me, then," said Twain. "Why, you should have hired younger men. These old fellows have lost their teeth, and, of course, they don't speak Arabic. They speak gum Arabic."

Good Templars hall was crowded Saturday night on the occasion of the public installation of officers for the ensuing term. After the installation ceremonies were completed, a fine program was rendered, and later a general good time was had and a lunch generously served.

Dalles Lodge, No. 2, is in a flourishing condition, new members being added weekly. Following were the officers installed: C. T., Mrs. J. E. Barnett; V. T., Mrs. J. Berger; Secretary, Chris. Schwabe; Asst. Sec., Miss Vesta Bolton; Financial Secy., W. D. Harper; Treasurer, Ed Michell; Chaplain, Mrs. Ulrich; Marshal, Archie Barnett; Deputy Marshal, Miss Effie Bolton; Sentinel, Mrs. Blagdon; Guard, Edward Davenport; Supt. Juvenile Temple, Miss Edith Randall; P. C. T., Freas Saunders.

The Minstrel Show.

Mr. R. K. Love came up from Portland yesterday to complete arrangements for the minstrel show to be given by members of The Dalles Commercial Club in about three or four weeks from this time. Mr. Love is an artist in the minstrel line, and expects to spend three days of each week here in training the company selected by him.

The Dalles has some good talent, and the coming show is already looked forward to as the event of the season.

A Copious Prevaricator.

Junius Crosby, a Boston drummer, gave the Oregonian a great fill about getting capsized in the Columbia river at Wyeth recently, the article appearing in Saturday's paper. If Junius can eat beans as rapidly as he can improvise, there will be a famine in the Hub when he gets back. There are some slight discrepancies in his story. He says he knew where his friend, Charlie Green, lived, because his mail was addressed to Wyeth. There is no postoffice at Wyeth. He says he caught a floating railroad tie, the first piece of drift he came across, yet it is an impossibility to find a piece of drift in the river at this time of year. He says he could hear the proverbial dull roar of the rapids, when they can't be heard a mile above them at any time. He says that he caught on a boom, put in the river to catch drift about a mile above the Cascades; yet there is no such boom anywhere below Wyeth. He says the only man he met at Wyeth was "a big backwoods-looking fellow, who came from somewhere and shoved a sack of mail aboard." As we have said, Wyeth has no postoffice, and gets no mail, trains only stopping when flagged. To be brief, Junius Crosby has a kaleidoscopic imagination, that ought to save him a trip to Alaska, where he says he is bound. All he has to do is to give his imagination free play, and save the price of his ticket. Junius is a dandy.

Excitement at Prineville.

One day last week the usually quiet village of Prineville was aroused from its lethargy by an all-round fight, which, for the number of participants, the zest with which they went at it, the sexes represented, the lawsuits accruing therefrom stands without a peer, says the Prineville Journal. The fun was started by Mrs. Della Frazier taking it upon herself to give Emmet Holman a hiding for insulting her. The beleaguered party naturally objected to this treatment, whereupon Theo. Cadle flew to the rescue. Then followed a scene of the wildest hilarity, a sort of free-for-all fight. No arrests were made until several days afterwards, when Theo. Cadle was called before Recorder Bell, and, upon hearing, fined $15. Later he was again called upon to defend himself, this time before Justice Biggs and a jury.

George Cline has also been arrested and will have a hearing next Friday. It is understood more arrests are to follow.

Hold-Up

Saturday night Thomas Lacey, who is the track-walker for the O. R. & N. from Hood River to Mosier, while crossing a trestle, was held up by a tramp. The tramp was hidden under the edge of the trestle, and as Lacey passed him he fired a shot, and then by the time Lacey had recovered from his surprise, he found himself covered by a pistol in the hands of the tramp. He was asked if he had any money, and replying in the negative, the tramp went through his pockets and finding nothing, took his watch, which Lacey valued at $40.

The other track-walker was held up, probably by the same tramp; but upon being called upon to halt, never limped a bit. He just filed his own recognizance and helped himself to that kind of bonds known as "leg bail." He fled so fast and so far in fifteen minutes that it took him a whole day to get back on the freight train, but he saved what property he had with him.

Special Meeting.

Special meetings of Court The Dalles, next Thursday, Feb. 9th at 7:30 p. m., in the small hall adjoining the court chambers. There will also be a special meeting on Saturday the 13th inst, and the usual meeting on Friday, the 12th. Special business will come before the court, and also initiation of candidates. The D. G. C. R. will be in attendance at all meetings, and a full attendance is requested. Yours in L. U. B. & C., OTTO BIRGFELD, C. R.

Ira Campbell Married.

Ira Campbell of the Eugene Guard, has gone and got married, without saying a word to any of us, his old newspaper friends, and then he goes circulating down into Mexico for a bridal tour. Ira is a genial, generous quill driver, who deserves a quarter section of heaven right here on earth, and he has taken the only step possible to secure it.

The Joint Session.

Thirty-seven Republicans and two Democrats met in the joint convention at Salem today. After roll call an adjournment was taken until this evening.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Dr. Guss Kinney of Astoria is in the city today. Mrs. Geo. Herbert is quite sick with typhoid fever. Mrs. J. H. Wood went to Biggs Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Clark. W. A. Bert Campbell was a passenger on the boat for Portland this morning.

Misses Mary and Minnie Lay are very ill with pneumonia. A trained nurse arrived from Portland today to attend them.

Miss Harriet Stevens arrived in the city today, Miss Jones being delayed until tomorrow, as she is to sing in a concert in Portland tonight.

DIED.

In this city, Feb. 7, 1897, Mrs. Josephine R. Mussel, wife of J. L. Mussel, aged 31 years.

The remains will be taken to Moro tomorrow for interment.

I have given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a fair test and consider it one of the very best remedies for croup that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contract yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for croup and colds in children—Geo. E. Wolff, clerk of the Circuit Court, Ferdinandia, Fla. THE BEAN AUTOMATIC SPRAY PUMP.

Is, unquestionably, the most successful and perfect working Spraying Device yet invented.

It is a universal testimony that more, as well as better, work can be accomplished with the Bean Spray Pump than with any other pump on the market.

With this pump one man can charge the receptable and leave it to direct the spray just where it is wanted, and thus with sufficient hose pass from tree to tree. The solution is delivered in a fine mist or spray, penetrating every nook and corner, thus doing better and more effective work than is possible by any other method, and with no waste whatsoever of solution.

For further particulars see special circular or call upon or correspond with.
