COMPARISONS ARE ODIUS.

Anent the clamor that has been raised against the action of Nevada's legislature in passing the bill permitting prize-fighting, it is with pleasure we note the distinguished consideration extended to the Honorable James Corbett upon his arrival at Reno yesterday.

Much as we have, or may, condemn Nevada for her course in passing the law, we cannot forbear, in justice to her, comparing the action of her chief executive yesterday with that of our own governor, now mayor of Portland, upon the occasion of the visit of the president of the United States. Puffed up with the pride of his own distinguished position, our governor refused to meet the president at the state line, and it was only after a hard wrestle with his pride that he consented to meet him at the depot in the capital of the state. It will be remembered, also, that upon another occasion, being swift to stand upon his dignity, our governor telegraphed another president of the United States that retort courteous, "You attend to your business, and I will attend to mine."

Compare this action of the governor of the great civilized and esthetic state of Oregon with that of the governor of that pocket borough, that commonwealth of Bill Stewart and Bill Sharon, of Jim Fair and Tom Fitch; that outskirt of civilization that, owing its advancement to bacon and beans, looks with contempt on anything savoring of Boston. Observe how its governor and staff, accompanied by nearly one-half the population of the state, crowded to Reno to do honor to the chief bruiser of the art fistie.

The governor takes off his hat in the presence of the great man, and expresses his gratitude to a kind Providence that has graciously permitted him the distinguished honor, and his countenance is irradiated with smiles of joy when the great Jim, before that vast audience, pats him on the back, calls him a "bully boy," and congratulates him on the wonderful stride he and the state have made along the lines of a better and a higher civilization. And when the great Jim spoke feelingly of the manhood of the governor, his uprightness and lack of hypocrisy, the latter could scarcely restrain the tears of joy that gathered in two crystal drops and hung tremulously to his eyelids.

Taken all in all, it was a touching and a fetching scene. Hereafter let not the finger of scorn be pointed at Nevada by the four-eyed denizens of the effete Hub. For Chesterfieldian grace and genuine old Virginia hospitality, the occasion was never excelled, and Nevada can now take first place as the leader, whom none can hope to equal, in social functions. It is another evidence of Nevada's rapid progress. Thirty years ago Jim would have been looked upon by the social leaders, whose jewelry consisted of two six shooters and a knife, as a very common sort of a guy; but today they are relegated to the past, such of them as survived each other's little pleasantries, or escaped the vigilance committees, and the gentleman who travels on his muscle is the fellow that draws the wealth, the talent, the youth, the beauty, the brass bands, the governor and his staff, and all the great and glorious aggregation of state officers in one vast crowd to worship at the shrine of his genius.

Some things are rare and others simply blood-red raw. Of the latter kind is the persisted-in statement made by the Oregonian, and reiterated by legislators, opposed to Senator Mitchell, that Mitchell and his friends are holding up the legislature. There is not a word of truth in it, and those who make the assertion know it. It is made to bolster up a weak cause and for the effect it may have on those who do not take the trouble to inform themselves. Jonathan Bourne, the Oregonian and Joe Simon, assisted by a lot of misguided Populists are holding up the legislature. Assisting them are a few Republicans, with Joe Simon's collar on. Those are the people who are holding the legislature up, and nobody else.

Jonathan Bourne is wasting his sweetness. He should be down in Nevada with Adolph Livingstone and Bill Wheelock, running the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fiasco. He could make big money holding that meeting up.

The state of Nevada ought to start a joint stock company, invite in the Louisiana lottery and open a regular gambling and amusement dive.

BIDS WANTED.

Notice is hereby given that bids for a bridge across Hood river, at the town of Hood River, will be received by the County Court of the State of Oregon for Wasco County, up to the hour of noon Wednesday, March 3, 1897. The bridge span will be 134 feet, will be 4 feet higher than the present bridge, and within four feet of the same. Bids will be received for a Howe truss, Smith truss, Bowstring and a steel bridge. Bids on steel bridge to include proper abutments of stone and other material, usually used under such bridges. Bids for wooden bridges to include piers, as shown in specifications on file with the County Clerk of Wasco County.

The Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Dated at The Dalles, Wasco County, Or., this 7th day of February, A. D., 1897.

A. M. KELSAY, County Clerk.

These results are prevented by the use of the Shaker Digestive Cordial, a remedy discovered and prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, N. Y. It is in itself a food and has power to digest other food taken with it. Thus it rests the diseased stomach and finally masters the worst cases of dyspepsia. It acts promptly and fresh strength and increase of weight soon follows. The first dose, taken immediately after eating, abates the pain and distress so dreaded by dyspeptics. Tantal bottles—enough to prove its merit—10 cents.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.
