Mrs. J. E. Dean will meet all those who would like to take shorthand lessons, at the brick schoolhouse next Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Terms, 25 cents per lesson. 15 19

Rehearsals for the minstrel show are being held, and seed planted for some local cage that will get ripe by the time the boys get their program ready. The Dalles has some good minstrel talent, and the show will be a dandy.

A discovery of borax on the M. R. Doan land in Wild Horse valley, has secured the purchase of 1,600 acres in that vicinity by the Borax King of Nevada, which is a promising outlook for opening up a new industry in Harney county.

An Astoria restaurant man has skipped out, leaving many unsettled accounts. A sign which he always displayed is still hanging in the window. It now has an added meaning and reads as follows: "I lead. Let others follow who can."

Do not fail to call on Dr. Lannerberg, the eye specialist, and have your eyes examined free of charge. If you suffer with headache or nervousness you undoubtedly have imperfect vision that, if corrected, will benefit you for life. Office in the Vogt block.

Tomorrow night Judge Lowell of Pendleton will deliver the next to the last of the series of lectures at the Congregational church. The subject is, "Thou Shalt Not." Judge Lowell is a fine speaker, a logical reasoner, and will give those who hear him a delightful hour.

Senators A. J. Johnson and C. E. Harmon, the former from Scio and the latter Grants Pass, were in the city yesterday, being on the portage railway committee. They are both young men, but from indications at Salem will be considerably older before they are called upon to act in their official capacities.

The case of the State against Osburn, charged with robbing Rothery, was tried Saturday, the jury being out but a short time when it agreed upon a verdict of acquittal. The evidence was entirely circumstantial and the jury evidently did not think it strong enough to preclude other reasonable theories of his innocence.

Can you afford to miss it? We refer to A. M. Williams & Co's generous offerings in woolen dress goods. Their 35 cents grades of very desirable weaves, suitable for either street or house dresses, to close at 20 cents a yard. Some very choice patterns in 50 cents goods going at 30 cents a yard. No need to put off buying that new dress or wrapper any longer.

We received this morning a copy of the Hawaiian Star, published at Honolulu. It is intensely American in its views, and advances some forceful arguments in favor of the United States annexing the Hawaiian islands. We confess to a change of sentiment on the subject after a perusal of its columns, and believe it would be a good thing for this government to at least establish a protectorate over them.

Pease & Mays have not completed the repairs to their big store, but they are far enough along that they are again waiting on customers, and in a few days they will have the best equipped and largest general merchandise store in Eastern Oregon. The new grocery department is being nicely fitted up and will be soon completed, and the big skylight has made a wonderful improvement in the way of lighting the back part of the store.

A single type dropped from the forms of the Pittsburg Leader the other day, and its loss cost the paper $405. It appears that a Pittsburg concern had advertised in that edition of the Leader a special sale of ladies' wrappers at 98 cents each. In handling the form the figure 9 dropped out. The loss was not noticed until next morning, when the store was besieged by ladies wanting to buy wrappers at 8 cents, as advertised. The firm stood by its guns until the last wrapper was sold. Then it sent in a bill for $405 to the Leader, this being the sum representing the difference between 8 cents and 98 cents on each wrapper sold. The Leader paid the bill without protest.

These Passed.

Only eight of the twenty-three applicants for teachers' certificates passed at the recent examination. The questions were more difficult to answer than usual, which accounts for the small number passing, but while this is true, it should be borne in mind that the standard is being steadily advanced, and those who teach must keep pace with it or become back numbers. The following passed:

Third grade—J. M. O'Brien, Robert O'Brien, Dufur; Ada Bell, Leelle L. Bell, Boyd; Ralph S. Shelley, Hood River.

Second grade—Lillie Copple, Hood River; Ira Decker, Wamic.

First grade—Hattie Sternweis, Boyd. The following were recommended for state certificates: Elsie Ball, The Dalles; W. H. Walker, Kingsley.

Miss Ella Cooper of The Dalles, was recommended for state diploma, and H. G. Lake of Antelope, for life diploma.

Court Closes.

The circuit court business today was light, the jurors all having been discharged Saturday night.

In equity—A. M. Williams & Co. against J. E. McCormack et al, was referred to George Dufur to take testimony.

May P. McCormack vs J. E. McCormack, demurrer overruled, default for want of answer and referred to George Dufur to take testimony.

In law—Annie Urquhart against the Manchester Fire Insurance Co., was settled.

A. L. Sproule against Dalles National bank, set for trial first day of May term. Court adjourned until the 26th.

Women's Size Increasing.

Much comment has recently arisen among fashionable people regarding the unusual and even phenomenal size of this new generation of women. In eight out of ten cases these young girls are a full head and shoulders taller than their mammas. Five feet eight or nine inches is no longer regarded as an unusual height for a debutante, and this Junoesque statue is supplemented, as a rule, by broad, shapely shoulders, a firm, round waist, with harmonious proportions of arms, hip and bust. This new woman, from a merely physical standpoint, is not only fair to look upon, but promiss with her clear eyes, rosy skin and steady nerves as a wholesome mother of the coming race.

Funeral of Jessie Butler.

The funeral of the late Jessie Butler, held at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon, were very largely attend. An hour before the hour appointed people were gathering at the church, eager to show in this way their deep feeling of loss and bereavment. That a universal feeling of sorrow filled all hearts was forcefully expressed by the extreme quiet and stillness that pervaded the vast audience.

The exercises were opened by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Wood, with the usual burial scriptural reading of the M. E. church. A quartette choir sang as opening hymn "Lead Kindly Light;" then prayer was offered, followed by a solo by Miss Elliot of Portland.

The pastor introduced his remarks by relating some bits of history of Jessie's life, and began his address by using a favorite quotation of her's, and one she had repeated to her mother the night before her death, "I know that my Redeemer liveth." He touchingly alluded to her conversion in the church, and feelingly spoke of her zeal for the work of saving souls. "Her sense of duty was clear and definite, and she faithfully performed her work. Her influence for good was felt by all her young friends in the Epworth League, the Sunday school, the church, the school—all knew that Jessie was moved by a divine force to seek their good. Under this new-born and holy influence, her social and religious development was very rapid and most marked. Jessie, on her 16th birthday, gave her name to the church, united with the Epworth League, and when the Queen Esther missionary circle was formed she entered heartily into that. At her death she was third vice-president of the League. How we shall miss her! but for her 'to die was gain.' 'She cannot return to us, but we can go to her.' In our chastened grief we are consoled by the Christian hope, that 'though absent from the body she is present with the Lord, and there in bliss supreme she waits our coming.'"

The floral offerings were numerous and very beautiful, the League, her class in the public school and many friends sending tokens of loving remembrance. Farewell, young, loyal, Christian soldier! We meet no more this side of heaven; but in joyous expectation, we wait the glad reunion.

A FRIEND.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Fred Dee is down from Arlington. Mr. J. O'Brien is over from Klickitat. Mr. Ellis Rhinehart, the cattle buyer, is in the city.

Engineer George Lang is visiting his old time friends here.

R. A. and W. A. Wallace of Rufus are registered at the Umatilla.

Mrs. D. M. French returned last night, after some time spent in California.

Mr. A. L. Veasey came up from Portland for a brief visit yesterday.

Mr. W. H. Biggs, after a three days' visit to Sherman county, arrived home last night.

Miss Gertrude Reeder left for her home in Goldendale after a short visit with the Misses Bolton.

Mr. H. S. Turner of the Dispatch is in from Dufur. He tells us the atmosphere and earth are both wet out that way.

Mr. Chas. Lay arrived in the city from the East yesterday morning, being summoned by a telegram to the bedside of his sisters, whom he found improved.

Mr. S. L. Brooks is home from Portland. He tells us the Dalles City will be off the ways by the first of next week, and will soon thereafter resume her run. She will be in much better shape than ever before, having been much strengthened in undergoing repairs.

BORN.

At 8-Mile, February 14th, to the wife of T. C. Fargher, an eight-pound son.

Land Office Decisions.

The following land contests have been decided by the local office, and all in favor of the contestants:

Feb. 3—Lewis C. Heuneghan vs. William Worden. Franklin Sauter vs. Chas. Ness.

Feb. 5—S. D. Otis vs. John Gordon.

Feb. 9—Joseph Lister vs. M. R. Stowell.

Feb. 10—Wallace Port vs. J. R. Morgan.

Feb. 11—U. S. Cowles vs. W. C. Jenison.

Feb. 13—Thomas Brogan vs. Martin Murray.

Bound Over.

Clemens, the man who was found occupying a house near Mr. Haight's without the knowledge of the owner, and who was arrested last Saturday charged with larceny, had his examination before Justice Fillion this morning, and was bound over to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $250. Clemens handled his own case, and, as is usual in cases where a man acts as his own attorney, he had a fool for a client. The testimony against him is rather weak, the parties having him arrested being unable to identify the alleged stolen goods.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the Liver and Kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store. (2)

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of an execution, issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Wasco County, in an action entitled J. W. Blakeley vs. Andrew Ganger and Mary Ganger, and to me directed and delivered, I did on the 11th day of February, 1897, levy upon, and will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, on Monday, the 15th day of March, 1897, at 2 o'clock p. m. of said day, at the front door of the courthouse in Dalles City, in Wasco County, Oregon, the following described property, to-wit:

Commencing at the Northeast corner of the Northwest quarter (NW 1/4) of the Northeast quarter (NE 1/4) of section seventeen (17) in Township two (2) North of Range thirteen (13) East of the Willamette Meridian in the State of Oregon; thence south twenty-four chains and seventy links (24.70); thence in a Northwesterly direction fourteen chains and seventy links (14.70) to the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company's Railroad track limit; thence westerly along the north side of said railroad limit, to the north line of said section seventeen (17); thence east along said section line to the place of beginning; or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy the sum of $628.55, less $2.70, paid on said judgment August 9, 1896, with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from June 15th, A. D., 1890, and $51.68 damages and costs, together with the costs and accruing costs.

Taken and levied upon as the property of Andrew Ganger and Mary Ganger to satisfy said sum of $628.55, less $2.70 paid on said judgment, and interest thereon, in favor of J. W. Blakeley, and $51.68 damages and costs, together with the costs and accruing costs. T. J. DRIVER, Sheriff of Wasco County, State of Oregon. By ROBERT KELLY, Deputy. Dated at Dalles City, Oregon, Feb. 11, 1897. feb15-54-11
