

The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

The only Republican Daily Newspaper in Wasco County.

FRIDAY, FEB. 19, 1897

EASTERN OFFICE—230 to 234 Temple Court, N. Y. City. E. KATZ, Agent.

THE PARTY DOWNED.

Today completes the forty since the legislature of Oregon met at Salem, but not at the capitol. At midnight the forty days expire, and there is considerable speculation as to what will be done. The joint convention will meet at noon as usual, and probably adjourn over until evening. Then if no election of senator is possible, the Benson house will adjourn permanently, and the senate will of course have to follow suit.

This will end the farce, and will leave the United States senate in the control of those opposed to Republican ideas. It is doubtful if any tariff measure can be passed, and the Republican party, instead of having control of all branches of the government, will be saddled with a senate opposed to them. It seems hard that the fruits of a national victory must be snatched from the party to gratify the spleen of the Oregonian, the avarice of Joe Simon, and the ambition of Jonathan Bourne; but that is what will be accomplished by failure to elect a Republican senator.

The situation requires no extended comment. It speaks for itself. The national Republican party has been downed at the dictation of these three Multnomah county puritans. It's a very small object to produce so grand results, but history only repeats itself. It is well known that a pig caused the adoption of the federal constitution, for if a New Jersey pig had not escaped from its pen and caused its owner to miss voting, a delegate opposed to the constitution would have been elected, and New Jersey would have voted against the constitution; and the hog was not as well known as the Portland dove, either.

A NEW BOAT.

While the nations of the world have been spending fabulous sums in building immense war vessels, an American inventor has been perfecting a torpedo boat that bids fair to revolutionize naval warfare. It is known as the Holland torpedo boat, the first of the type being about to be launched at Baltimore. It is claimed that it will be able to remain under water for three days at a time without inconvenience. It is 85 feet long, cigar shaped, and costs $150,000. Its armament consists of five torpedoes, each 11 feet long, and it has a speed when submerged of eight miles an hour. It works anywhere from the surface to the depth of fifty feet, and could, of course, go under the largest war vessel, attack torpedoes to her bottom, and blow her up without her presence being suspected. This would tend to give a pleasing uncertainty to life on shipboard, and would, in fact, render the present costly battleships useless.

If the boat is a success, America will, for the second time, revolutionize naval warfare.

What the legislature will do between now and midnight is, of course, all guess work. It is probable, though, that failing to get the obstructionists in, the house will pass a resolution declaring their seats vacant, and then proceed in joint convention to cast their vote for senator. Mitchell will receive a majority of all votes so cast, and will then transfer the fight to Washington. At midnight, or as soon as the joint convention adjourns, the Benson house will adjourn; and thus will end the session.

One of Edison's best points is that his inventions come up to his first announcement of them. The incandescent lamp cost him a world of trouble, but he stuck to it until he gave it commercial standing in the world. He states now that he has found a crystal that in connection with the X ray will disclose to the eye of the surgeon the most delicate tissues of the interior of the body. It is safe to say that all he expects will be realized from his new discovery.

"Otis Patterson is back from Salem," says the Heppner Gazette. "From his general appearance, they didn't do a thing to him down there. He complains that the climate is bad and the water worse." We can understand that Otis is familiar with the Salem climate; but who the dickens told him about the water?

A Tacoma lawyer named Thomas sued for $10,000 for defamation of character, and received judgment for $500. There is really no telling what will happen when a state goes Populist.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
