THE DAVIS SIDE-SHOW.

The forty-day hold-up at Salem will go down into history as the worst conducted political battle ever fought in any state in the union. There has been no organized fight on either side, unless the combination presided over by Jonathan Bourne can be classed as such. It has been the struggle of two or three mobs, each without intelligent leadership; but of all the silly side-show ever accompanying the political circus, the Davis house is entitled to the chromo.

One would think that Davis and the two or three imbeciles that are associated with him, would take a tumble to themselves: that they would discover that they have no existence. Davis was legally elected speaker of the temporary organization, though by questionable methods, and remained speaker until the house removed him. Of its right to remove him there is no more question than of its right to appoint him; but Davis evidently took his cue from Joe Simon, and thinks that the moment he was elected he became greater than the power that elected him.

As a case of aggregated and aggravated individual and collective assninity, Davis is a Gulliver among the Lilliputians.

IT WORKED ON HIM.

Mr. Jones letter, which appears on our local page, gives quite a description of his pedigree. As we read it over we called to mind a story of a man going to Texas in an early day. He was crossing the Sabine river, the boundary between Louisiana and Texas, on a ferryboat. Addressing the ferryman, he asked how it was that Texas was so full of sharpers and men without much principle, yet who were all making money.

The ferryman jokingly replied that when those fellows came to Texas they all took a drink of Sabine water, and that was the cause of it. Without saying a word, the stranger dipped up a pint cup full of water and drank it. When the boat reached the shore he mounted his horse and put out on the run, without paying the ferryman. The latter looked at the disappearing horseman a moment, and then remarked: "Well, I'll be darned if I ever saw that water take effect so quick before."

Jones' pedigree is good, but the Oregon climate took effect on him too sudden.

The Oregonian takes Bliss, Hoar, Thurston, and all the other eastern senators and politicians who have ventured suggestions concerning the legislative muddle in this state to task. It tells them to mind their own business as curtly as Penoyer did Cleveland. It is true it took Penoyer to task also for his boorishness; but there is a vast difference between boorishness on the part of Penoyer, and on the part of the Oregonian. They are entirely different animals. While reading the riot act to these gentlemen for interfering in something that is none of their business, it proceeds to lecture the United States senate on its duties in connection with the admission of senators. The Oregonian editor is becoming senile, and its utterances are but the silly vaporing of toothless age, they have lost their bite.

Senator Smith voted in the senate to adjourn until Monday, but he gave notice that he did not intend to stay in Salem indefinitely. There are a good many others in his frame of mind, and an early adjournment may be looked for. There are some who realize this will be positively their last appearance before the public, would like to hold on as long as possible, but they cannot hold the sensible ones long.

The Bourne contingent do not want much. All that mob asks is that the majority "exhibit a little patriotism" and allow the minority to organize the legislature and elect a senator. In return for this they propose to give nothing, thinking the majority should be satisfied with showing their patriotism.

Carl Poppenheimer, a German who was naturalized in St. Louis last October, returned to Germany a short time ago and renounced his allegiance to this country. This is said to be the only case of the kind on record since 1866.

The Grandest Remedy.
Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant of Chillhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by the use of two bottles. For past three years has been tending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottle free at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug store.

Is it "overwork" that has filled this country with nervous dyspeptics?—that takes the flesh off their bones, the vitality from their blood, and makes them feeble, emaciated and inefficient? No. It is bad cooking, over-eating of indigestible stuff, and other health-destroying habits.

The remedy is an artificially digested food such as the Shaker Digestive Cordial. Instead of irritating the already inflamed stomach the Cordial gives it a chance to rest by nourishing the system itself and digesting the other food taken with it. Is not the idea rational? The Cordial is palatable and relieves immediately. No money risked to decide on its value. A 10 cent trial bottle does that.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.
