ALLOWED FOUR DAYS

Powers Demand Recall of Greek Forces.

FIGHTING ON ISLAND CONTINUES

The Sultan Preparing to Invade Thessaly—European Governments Have Their Eyes on Constantinople.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—It is stated here today that there is good authority for believing the result of the conferences between representatives of the great powers at Constantinople and Athens will be the presentation of collective notes to Turkey and Greece tomorrow. Greece will be allowed four days to recall her land and sea forces from Crete.

It is reported from Canea that several insurgent leaders have sent to Vice-Admiral Canevaro, of the Italian fleet, a signed declaration that the Cretans will accept no solution of the pending question but political union with Greece.

Fighting continues between the insurgents and Mussulmans near Retimo and elsewhere. The Christians besieged the Turkish garrisons in the blockhouse at Malta for several days.

Today a body of Turkish regulars and irregulars left Canea with a convoy to revictual the blockhouse. The insurgents attacked the column and killed several of the escort, whereupon the Turkish battle-ship Fuad opened fire upon the insurgents with shells, and continued firing until stopped by order of the foreign admirals. The convoy was finally compelled to retire.

THREE BOYS DROWNED.

Upset in the Breakers off the Bay of Tillamook.

TILLAMOOK, Or., Feb. 27.—A terrible accident occurred here today, whereby three boys, Ernest Bernard, aged 15; Cecil Miller, aged 16, and George Leasia, aged 16, lost their lives.

The three boys were digging clams near the bar, and the tide was still strongly on the ebb, when the young fellows sighted the steamer Chilkat coming in over the bar. In a spirit of boyish bravado, they determined to go out and meet her. The tide was much stronger than the boys supposed, and they were carried rapidly out and into the breakers, where their boat was upset and three of them drowned.

The following account of the disaster was given by Captain Dunham, of the Chilkat:

"While steaming into the bay today, my attention was drawn to what seemed to me to be three lions. My wife, however, insisted that they were human beings, and, on observing closer, I saw that they were three boys clinging to a small boat, which had been upset in the surf. The boat was inside the bar, and near the shore, and the boys were clinging to it and screaming at the top of their voices for help. I whistled the sign of distress to draw the attention of some one on shore, and then turned the ship about and went as near to the shore as I dared, and lowered one of my boats. By this time the breakers had washed two of the boys off, and I saw no more of them. There was a strong current out, and the largest boy continued to cling to the boat and drifted out of the breakers.

"By this time the steamer Elmore arrived at the bar on her way out. I told the captain what had happened, and he immediately crossed the bar and steamed about, hunting for the boys, and especially the one clinging to the boat, but he did not find any of them. I recrossed the bar to the ocean and looked about, but, being unable to find either of the boys, I steamed off south, in the direction that I thought that the boy clinging to the boat had drifted. After going about a half a mile, I sighted the boy on the boat, about a quarter of a mile further south. I steamed on toward him as rapidly as possible, but, when about 300 feet away from him, an unusually large wave upset the boat and the boy threw up his hands and sank, and I saw him no more."

After steaming about for some time, the captain recrossed the bar into the harbor, and gave the alarm. A large number of men was soon on the beach, and on the shores of the bay, inside the bar, but late this evening the bodies had not been recovered.

The parents of the unfortunate lads live here, and the untimely fate of the young fellows has cast a gloom over the city.

A CORNER IN WOOL.

Syndicate Anticipates Restoration of a High Tariff.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—A Boston special says:

One of the largest corners on wool ever attempted in the United States exists at present in this city, in anticipation of the restoration of a tariff on wool. The existence of the corner has been a well-guarded secret for two weeks, but the operations of the men and their agents at London and Hamburg have become so bold as to attract attention, and thus the secret got out.

The steamer Columbian, which arrived yesterday, brought 8000 bales of wool, making a total of 261,160 bales, which has arrived in port during the present month. A syndicate was recently formed in this city to buy all the wool offered in European markets, in anticipation of a duty of ten per cent being put on wool by congress at the extra session, and the increased receipts are thus accounted for.

Buyers have already purchased 15,000 bales of wool abroad, and will continue to purchase the same up to the time of the imposition of the duty, calculated at 11 cents a pound. The syndicate has raised a pile of money, and only a few days ago cabled $5,000,000 to its London agents. It is calculated that 1,000,000 bales, or 500,000,000 pounds, of Australian and South American wool, will be brought to this country by the syndicate within the time given.

Rumor That He May Abdicate.

PARIS, Feb. 27.—Reports are current here and elsewhere in Europe today that if the powers insist upon the Greek troops evacuating Crete, King George will abdicate in favor of Crown Prince Constantine, the Duke of Sparta, whose wife, Princess Sophia, is sister to Emperor William of Germany.

A Greek Steamer Seized.

CANEA, Feb. 27.—The Greek steamer Tysus, after landing provisions and ammunition at Platonica for the Greeks, took on board 100 prisoners. She was stopped at Draponia by an Italian warship and taken to Suda bay.

HANNA AND HOAR.

They Consulted Over the Situation in Oregon.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Chairman Hanna and party arrived at the Arlington hotel this morning. Hanna went to the capitol immediately and was in conference with the Republican senators. He had an extended consultation with Senator Hoar, chairman of the judiciary committee, upon the senatorial situation in Oregon.

An effort is being made by Hanna, as chairman of the national committee, to secure the election of a Republican senator from Oregon. The fact that the legislature never organized raises the question as to the ability of those now sitting at Salem to adjourn.

There has been considerable telegraphic correspondence between Hanna and the Republicans of Oregon, and it may result in an agreement of the Republicans of the legislature to elect a senator.

Hoar indicated to Hanna his belief that an appointment by the governor would not be accepted by the senate.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. SPANISH OPINION OF LEE.

Marquis de Palmeria Made a Scandalous Attack on General Lee.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—A dispatch to the Herald from Havana says:

The Marquis de Palmeria made a scandalous personal attack on General Lee Wednesday night in the presence of several newspaper correspondents which said that the release of Scott had been demanded because he was both arrested and kept in prison in defiance of the law.

"Who told you that?" shouted General Palmeria, the secretary of state.

"General Lee," replied a correspondent, calmly.

"General Lee is a liar, impostor and rebel," shouted the little marquis with an oath.

This incident is telegraphed merely to show how the wind is blowing in the palace, and to let you see what must be the treatment and position of an ordinary citizen, when our consul-general is reviled openly by one of the heads of the government here.

Vesuvius Stopped the Dauntless.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 27.—The Dauntless is making a reputation as a runaway. Friday afternoon the tug steamed out of her dock carelessly and started down the river. Near the Vesuvius she put on a little spurt. Four shrill blasts from the cruiser were heard, but the tug did not mind. Then came the signal, but still the tug kept on, this time being 500 yards down the river. The Vesuvius squared around abruptly, marines appearing on her deck, and a hoarse hail came across: "Stop, or we'll make you."

This was followed again by the peremptory whistle blasts. Seeing that Captain Pillsbury was in earnest and that the Vesuvius was coming after him, the Dauntless came about and went gracefully back to her anchorage.

All the Family.

With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.
