It is not many mining machines that turn out minted gold; but the Roseburg Review says that George Forty, who is mining on Orford beach, found a $2.50 gold coin in his machine one day last week. The piece was coined in 1861.

The Paytons tonight give their last entertainment here, the fine melo-drama "Driven from Home." The piece furnishes many climaxes and gives scope to Mr. Payton's genius. Don't forget that this is the last chance to see this talented company.

This has been one of those superlatively nasty days that give one the blues and swell the list of suicides. It commenced snowing a dirty, sloppy, sticky, mushy conglomeration early in the morning, and kept it up all day. The only feature about it that was not bad, was the fact that the slush melted as it fell.

The adjournment of the Davis house was informal. The members went home without taking the waste-baskets and ink-stands. D. V. S. Snyder, who acted as assistant clerk, was refused a certificate of his services by Speaker Davis, and he filed a part of the house records in his pocket, saying he would keep them until his certificate is issued.

The school election will be held Monday at the city recorder's office. A director to serve three years, and a clerk to serve one year are to be elected. The polls open at 2 o'clock and close at 6. So far we have not heard the names of any candidates for the office of director, and for the office of clerk but two, that of the present incumbent, E. Jacobsen, and George P. Morgon.

So much litigation has grown out of the attempt of Mrs. Delia Frazier to horsewhip Emmett Holman that Crook county is threatened with an increase of taxes. The Prineville Review says: "A halt is demanded by the citizens, not only of this place, but of the entire county, in reference to the cases now pending, and those which have occurred during the week. The start in the first case was trivial, but arrests and rearrests have been made, and our city and county have been put to useless expense, and it is time to call a halt."

The Paytons Last Night.

The Payton's last night put on the very strong play, "Only a Tramp," and unfortunately to a smallhouse. Those that were there, however, thoroughly appreciated it and showed their appreciation by hearty applause. Senter Payton has wonderful facial expression, that alone entitling him to rank as an artist, and when one gets to watching the play of his features, the thread of the play can easily be lost sight of. Last night he was simply perfect. The work of the balance of the company was all good, Miss Lucy playing a very strong part, and Vina was simply a bewitching soubrette. Curts, as usual, was a success as a villain, and the support all through was of a better character than heretofore.

The company closes its engagement tonight, and should be greeted with a full house. It is seldom so good a company visits us, and they should have proper encouragement to return.

Strange Action of a Sheriff.

A homeless woman and two little hungry children were unloaded from this morning's train on the O. R. & N., at the union depot. They were strangers, adrift in a large city for the first time, and their destitute, ragged appearance excited general sympathy. They wandered about the neighborhood of the union station for awhile, and then were bundled into a hack and hauled away. No one thought any more of it until the poor woman brought up on the steps of the county court house.

The woman was Mary E. Simmons, of Moro, Sherman county, who seems to have been shipped to Portland by the officials of Sherman county simply to get rid of her and let the woman loose in a big and heartless town. If the other counties in the state follow the example set by the officials of Sherman county, Portland's charitable institutions may be called upon to have a small army camping in each yard.

County Judge Northup is wondering what Sheriff Holder of Sherman county meant by shipping Mrs. Simmons and her children to Portland, without some investigation first.

Mrs. Simmons is the mother of six children, three or four of whom are scattered around at different points, working for a living, and probably having the lives beat out of their bodies because they are not older and stronger. Mrs. Simmons was deserted by her none-too-diligent husband at White Salmon, Wash., some two years ago. She has been existing at Moro since that time, and has been sick, requiring public charity at times. She was unable to keep her children by working out, so Sheriff Holder instructed a deputy to bring the woman to Portland, where her children would be admitted to the orphan's home. Mrs. Simmons' fare was paid and a deputy gave her some money and accompanied her as far as the East Portland depot, where he left the woman this morning, telling her to go to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society.

When they arrived at the home they had no letter or a scrap of paper to identify them. The Aid Society's home was full, and Superintendent Gardner had to refuse them admission. The superintendent told her that children from outside counties could not be received there, and then he wrote a note to Judge Northup.

About an hour later the woman and her children brought up at the court house, where Mrs. Simmons troubles were laid before the judge.

The woman had had nothing to eat since last night and although she had some money, she had not had a chance to eat.

The judge heard her story, and then agreed to send her to the poor farm until the county-judge of Sherman county was communicated with, and the sheriff's strange action with the woman and her children explained.

The woman wishes to get her children admitted to a home and then find work.

She was informed she could do better at home.

The above is clipped from last night's Telegram, and is this sequel to the story published in the paper not long ago. Mrs. Simmons was in Moro county, and while there a silly boy of 20 or 21 years became infatuated with her. The boy's father interfered, to prevent him making a fool of himself, but as nature had given him a good start in that direction, the old man couldn't head him off. The boy and the woman skipped, coming to this place, where they were arrested. The sheriff of Sherman county came after them, and took them back. The shipping of the woman probably suggested itself as the simplest means of getting rid of the trouble, but it looks rather hard that the woman and her five children should be compelled to leave the county to protect the boy. Better have shipped him and let the woman remain.

The Local Minstrels.

The minstrel show Monday night is going to be a decided success. The parts have been carefully and conscientiously rehearsed, until everything moves as smooth as clock work. The costumes have all been completed, and are certainly calculated to attract attention. It is unnecessary to go into detail, since the talented artist who painted the advertising sheets caught not only the features of the actors, but also the cut and style of the costumes. The box sheet is still open, and seats can be reserved up to the evening of the play. There

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiekilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store. (4)

Dalles-Moro Stage Leaves the Umattilla house 8 a. m. Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. DOUGLAS ALLEN, Prop.

If we could trace Dyspepsia to its source, it would lead back to our kitchens. In fact, the secret of good health is good cooking. If well cooked, foods are partially digested; if poorly cooked, they are less digestible than in their raw state. If you are victim of faulty cooking; that is, if you suffer from Dyspepsia, the rational cure must be looked for in an artificially digested food, and a food which will at the same time aid the digestion of other foods. Such a preparation virtually rests the tired digestive organs, thereby restoring them to their natural strength.

The Digestive Cordial, as prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, is such a preparation, and a single 10 cent bottle will convince you of its value. If your druggist doesn't keep it, he will be glad to get it through his wholesale house.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.
