

The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

The Only Republican Daily Newspaper in Wasco County.

THURSDAY, - MARCH 11, 1897

EASTERN OFFICE—230 to 234 Temple Court, N. Y. City. E. KATZ, Agent.

J. N. DOLPH.

The death of Senator Dolph has caused deep regret to every loyal citizen of Oregon; nor will it cease with our borders, for he had achieved a national reputation and earned the respect of the people, regardless of political opinions or differences. By steady application he mastered his chosen profession, climbing steadily upwards until his feet rested on the uppermost round. In politics he pursued the same course, and won his way to the top by merit alone, for he had none of those graces that go so far towards winning and holding friends. His friendships were formed along the line in which his successes were achieved. They were of slow growth, but once formed were firm and lasting.

Oregon has lost an honored citizen, an honest and conscientious servant, whose labors in behalf of the state have accomplished much more for her than most of us yet realize. As time passes we will come to realize more and more the true value of his services, and to more fully appreciate the sturdy ruggedness of his character, a ruggedness that caused him to be thought cold, haughty and repellent, but which only concealed a kindly and generous heart.

DESERVES PROMOTION.

According to the Pendleton Tribune, the chairman of the board of school directors of district 69, in Umatilla county, is filling entirely too humble a position in the political arena. He deserves to be promoted, not by steps, but at one fell swoop, to the head of some of the great party organizations, being perhaps best equipped for the position of grand sachem of Tammany. At the recent school election he presided. He ruled that no woman in the precinct except his own wife was eligible to vote, closed the polls early in the day, in spite of the protests of the voters, denied many the right to vote for frivolous reasons, and declared the man of his choice elected director, although the ballot box—the chairman's hat—had been upset, the ballots spilled upon the floor and not counted. The beauty of the scheme was that he made it work; that was where the "success succeeded."

It is on the principle that "a fellow-feeling makes us wondrous kind" that the European powers are taking the position they do in the affair between Turkey and Greece. The crowned heads are naturally uneasy as they see the power of royalty slipping slowly but surely away from one of them, the degenerate Turk. On the ruins of monarchial France has grown the grand republic, and one such example in Europe is, for the kings, sufficient. They do not fear the growth of Greece, but they do fear the destruction of monarchism. They fear the growth of the doctrine of political freedom and of Republican principles. This is what causes their prompt action in defence of the Turk. It is self-preservation that moves them.

It is amusing to read in the dispatches that the local officers are using every effort to keep disreputable persons out of Carson City, and in the same dispatch that "a large number of prominent pugilists are expected next week." It is said that Mitchell will challenge the winner for himself and several others. So will Maher the Mighty and Choyanski the Choice. Goddard the Good will also have his say, and if reports are true, when the fight is over there will be an oratorical contest that will outclass the fistie battle. Lofty themes will be discussed with all the fierce argument of hard coin, and when Pugilistic coin talks, it talks most plebeianly loud.

The "Oceanic," now under contract for construction, is to be the most magnificent steamship conceived by the genius of man. It will be over 700 feet long, almost a moving island on the face of the ocean. It will afford palatial accommodations for nearly as many people as there are in our little city. A morning and evening paper will be published for the amusement and pleasure of this cosmopolitan aggregation of modern civilization. The Great Eastern will be totally eclipsed, both as to size and furnishings.

A story comes from the East that a big boa constrictor swallowed one of a pair of baby lions. The cubs were named McKinley and Bryan, and the snake, while of vast capacity in the swallowing way, drew the line at Bryan. There is something in a name after all.

The ancients who named the month of March were up to date, at least up to that date when they named it after the God of War, Mars. It is blustering, bluffing, quarrelsome and disagreeable, possessing all the characteristics of its namesake.

Meeting of Stockholders D. P. & A. N. Co. Notice is hereby given that there will be a stockholders' meeting of The Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Co., at their office Saturday, April 3, 1897, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of electing seven directors and transacting such other business as may properly come before said meeting. By order of the president.

The Dalles, Or., March 1, 1897. ORION KINERSLY, Secretary.

Something to Depend On. Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with LaGrippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from the first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.
