ALLEGED COLLUSION

Russia Said to Be Secretly Supporting Greece.

ISSUE A PEREMPTORY SUMMONS

Gomez Is Reported Wounded, and the Insurgents in the Philippines Win a Victory.

LONDON, March 16.—The Chronicle says the ultimatum to precede the blockade will take the form of a peremptory summons from the admirals to the Greek authorities.

The Chronicle believes that although owing to pressure brought to bear by the powers, Bulgaria and Serbia will remain neutral, yet, in the event of war, Serbia will send troops into old Serbia to establish her claims there.

The Times correspondent is informed that the advance of Turkish troops across the frontier is now confidently expected. Fifteen thousand Greek will embark tonight and tomorrow for Volo. The government is reserving £16,000 in specie for the payment of the July coupons.

M. Averoff, the wealthy Greek of Alexandria, who contributed a million drachmas toward to expense of the restoration of the Stadion, has offered to provide the government with 40,000 uniforms. Greeks of Marseilles have sent £1000 as a contribution to the emergency war fund.

The Times correspondent at Canea says that autonomy is not in the least degree understood by the Mussulmans there, and it is not impossible that there will be trouble when they learn that it means the departure of the garrison and officials. A strong force ought to be present when the official proclamation is formally made.

AN ALLEGED COLLUSION.

Russia is Said to Be Secretly Supporting Greece.

NEW YORK, March 16.—A cable dispatch from the Press correspondent at Athens says:

"I learn that secret negotiations are proceeding between King George and the Russian government. This information comes from an absolutely trustworthy authority. Russia is undoubtedly playing a two-faced game with Turkey and with the powers. There is an understanding that when the Greek army crosses the frontier Russia shall find a pretext to seize Constantinople.

"The understanding, so far as King George is concerned, is that in the general conflict in the Balkans, which is sure to be followed by fighting on the frontier and the dissolution of the Turkish empire, which would follow a seizure of Constantinople by the Russians, Greece is to be encouraged to seize Macedonia, with the czar's promise in advance that she shall be permitted to retain the province.

Blockade Not Yet Proclaimed.

CANEA, March 16.—Noon.—The admirals of the foreign fleets have not yet proclaimed a blockade of the island. The Greek squadron, with the exception of two vessels, has left Cretan waters, and the two vessels referred to are preparing to leave.

Gomez Reported Wounded.

HAVANA, March 16.—It is reported here that General Maximo Gomez, the great insurgent leader, was seriously wounded in a fight which occurred recently at Arroyo Blanco, Santa Clara, between the Spanish under General Bernal and the insurgents force under Gomez.

Battle at the Philippines.

NEW YORK, March 16.—A special cable to the Herald from Manila says 2000 troops under Solodo were led on March 9 by the native guides into an ambush near a strong position occupied by the rebels. The latter, 8000 in number, attacked the Spaniards and defeated them. The Spaniards retreated in confusion, after almost a hand-to-hand fight. The extent of the Spanish loss is unknown.

ONLY A MASS OF RUINS.

Ely-Walker Store at St. Louis is a Total Loss.

St. Louis, March 16.—Nothing remains of the big block bounded by 8th and St. Charles streets and Washington avenue, occupied by the Ely-Walker Dry Goods company, but a mass of ruins. At 1 o'clock today the flames had not entirely been subdued. A conservative estimate made today places the loss at $1,600,000.

The Ely-Walker stock of goods, valued at about $1,200,000, is a total loss. The loss on the building, owned by John R. Lionberger, is estimated at $300,000. The adjoining building, owned by Liggett & Myers, was damaged about $10,000. The Veersteeg-Grant Shoe Company's loss is $25,000; Gauss-Shelton Hat Company, $20,000. The insurance aggregates $1,000,000.

A defective electric light wire is supposed to have caused the fire.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all the diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Northwest Applications.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Among the applications for appointment to presidential offices under the treasury department are John Scott, Port Townsend, as assistant secretary; A. M. Jess, Grant's Pass, Or., for collector of internal revenue at Portland.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest dangers from La Grippe is of it resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dread disease. It will affect a permanent cure in less time than any other treatment. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

UNCOOKED FOOD.

The Strange Fare of Three Hearty California Women.

Every Article of Food Consumed Is in the Natural State—Why This Odd Regime Is Preferred.

There are three charming women in Berkeley who constitute the exception necessary to prove the rule that man is a cooking animal. They regard cooking as barbarity. Their dainty palates rebel at the suggestion of any food that has had its crude nature modified by fire. To them the chef and all his works are anathema maranatha. They eat three hearty uncooked meals every day, and are as plump as partridges, as rosy as pippins and as happy as sandboys withal.

This gastronomical eccentric trio consists of Mrs. L. Beal and her two daughters, Alice and Mary Beal. The Beals are a cultured English family. Their wealth and intelligence preclude the idea that their extraordinary diet should have been adopted through either economy or imperfect investigation into matters of science. They moved from England to the South Sea islands, where Mr. Beal was a representative of her majesty's royal government. When Mr. Beal died they came to California, and have been living in a very pretty little place which nestles among the Berkeley hills.

It was during their residence in the islands of the South sea that the Beals acquired their taste for uncooked food.

The Beals are in no sense simple eaters of fruit. Their regimen includes all kinds of vegetables, cereals, fruit, berries—every thing, in fact, except meat. But nothing is permitted to approach the oven or the pot, the frying pan or the griddle.

The first article on the Beal breakfast menu is mush. That is, they call it mush, but no one would recognize it as the time-honored article. The raw material is taken from the original package and deposited in the dish of each breakfast. To this is added milk to suit. The Beals do not confine themselves to one kind of mush, but devour by turns oats in different forms, corn meal and wheats, but always raw as the article comes from the grocery. To this are added fruits, nuts and one vegetable, all in a state of nature.

At luncheon uncooked bread takes the place of the uncooked mush. Wheat, corn or barley coarsely ground and mixed with milk is the substitute for bread upon the Beal table. Luncheon is completed much like the breakfast. Dinner is completed by adding two vegetables to the luncheon menu and by varying the uncooked "bread." Any vegetable that may be in season is allowed—string beans, cabbage, turnips, carrots, artichokes or asparagus, as the case may be. Green corn eaten from the cob uncooked is said to be a great luxury, and raw green peas are described as delicious. When fresh fruits are out of season the dried fruits are accepted as a substitute. Canned fruits are never served, because they are cooked before canning. Among the dried fruits prunes find the greatest favor with the Beal family. Tea and coffee are never used, because the Beals regard the brewing thereof as a form of cookery.

"We live upon uncooked food simply because we believe that it is the best," said Mrs. Beal. "It is not a religious mania, but it is done because we are satisfied that it is proper from a scientific point of view. Our dietary habits are the result of our experience while living in the islands, and now that we are in the heart of civilization, we do not see any reason to change it."

The simplicity that is exhibited in eating is carried through the remainder of the house. The furnishing of the place is very simple, but of the finest that can be purchased. The floors of the house are uncarpeted, but are of hardwood, highly polished, with rugs made from the pelts of wild animals found in the islands. The raiment of Mrs. Beal and her daughters is as simple and yet as expensive as the rest of their environments.—San Francisco Examiner.

With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. M. J. WOODCOCK, Agent, Wamio, Or.

When my little girl was one month old, she had a scab form on her face. It kept spreading until she was completely covered from head to foot. Then she had boils. She had boils on her head at one time, and more on her body. When six months old she did not weigh seven pounds, a pound and a half less than at birth. Then her skin started to dry up and got so bad she could not shut her eyes to sleep, but lay with them half open. About this time, I started using CUTICURA REMEDY, and in one month she was completely cured. The doctor and drug bills were over one hundred dollars, the CUTICURA bill was not more than five dollars. My child is now strong, healthy, and large as any child of her age (see photo), and it is all owing to CUTICURA. Yours with a Mother's Blessing, Mrs. G. H. TUCKER, JR., 622 Walker St., Milwaukee, Wis.

SPEDDY CURE TREATMENT.—Warm baths with CUTICURA SOAP, gentle applications of CUTICURA (ointment), and mild doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT (dosed purifier).
