A YOUNG WOMAN'S TALE.

Dressed in Male Attire, She Helped Rob Sheep Camps.

Miss Christiana Lecaff, who recently came to the city, relates a wonderful story of her life and adventures, says the Walla Walla Statesman. A few weeks ago Miss Lecaff came to Walla Walla under the name of Mrs. Anna McDonald, for medical treatment. She had been working for several months past, so she states, for a Mr. E. V. Pence, near Watsburg, until her failing health compelled her to come to this city. She attended the Salvation Army meetings, which resulted in her conversion a week ago Saturday evening. Since that time she has been burdened with the conviction that, to be entirely free from sin, she would have to make a full confession of her numerous misdeeds. Miss Lecaff made this confession to the army officers, and related her experiences to a Statesman reporter, which is better told in her own way.

I was not quite 15 years of age when I ran away from home with a Mr. McDonald. My home was in Carlton, Mont., in the Bitter Root valley. I left home with McDonald because I expected to find life easier. My father made me work out on his farm, and did not give me the advantages of schooling that a girl of my age should have had. My stepmother, too, abused me, and when McDonald, one of my father's hired men, suggested that we run away, I naturally supposed he meant for us to get married, and I agreed to go with him. This was in 1892. We went away, but were never married, and for the first year after leaving home we wandered from place to place in Montana. I donned male attire, and we made our living the first year by robbing sheep camps. Once McDonald planned to rob an old man in the mountains. We carried out the plan, but did not get much for our trouble. A watch, that McDonald afterward sold for $30, a fine overcoat worth $50, a saddle, a fine revolver and several dollars was all we got. McDonald held a revolver to the old man's head, while he was gagged. This robbery occurred in the old bachelor's hut, and we were never arrested for the crime. This was the biggest haul we ever made, and the revolver was given to me by McDonald. We burglarized two houses in Missoula, Mont., and were arrested on suspicion for one of the burglaries, but escaped conviction.

I gave birth to my oldest child in the farmhouse at Helena in 1893, and there McDonald and I were arrested. McDonald hired an attorney to defend us, giving him a bill of sale of some horses we had near Helena for his pay. The lawyer succeeded in securing our acquittal, and then advised us to leave on the first train. We left, and getting off the train at a small station near where the horses were, we took them with us. Our robberies were confined to Montana, and since coming to Washington we have done nothing wrong outside of living together without being married. In the spring of 1895 McDonald and I came to Walla Walla from Anateone. I was in poor health, and came here to be treated. We attended the Adventist campmeeting then in session here, and both became converted, but I don't think it was genuine. My youngest child was born here about 16 months ago, and is now in care of a Mrs. Galtenbein, of this city. I have three children living.

A Valuable Prescription. Editor Morrison of Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2025 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed strength. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Get a Bottle at Blakeley and Houghton's Drug Store.

Crime of a Negro.

TRANTON, N. J., March 30.—The city detective department has sent a description of Isaac Martin, a colored lad, who has for years been an atache of Trenton hotels, and whom they want for wreaking his vengeance upon Clara L. M., his brother-in-law's wife. Martin attended the inaugural in Washington, and on his return he heard stories of Clara's doings. Going to the girl's house he found her in a bed. He cut all her clothing into ribbons with a razor, and, as this did not extort a confession, he striped her like a zebra with iodine. He then took care that she was securely fastened, and, kissing her, left for parts unknown. As the iodine mixture dried it burned the girl's flesh, and her screams attracted the attention of neighbors, who released her.

Frosts in California Fruit Belt.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—The local office of the United States weather bureau has received advices from the various fruit sections of the state to the effect that during the last two nights killing frosts have seriously damaged the fruit crop. Prunes and apples are not sufficiently advanced to receive so much harm as apricots and almonds, which in many sections have been totally destroyed, while peach trees and vines have also been injured, though in less degree.

Drowned at a Ford.

GAINESVILLE, Tex., March 29.—Miss Ruby Smith, daughter of Alderman Smith, of this place, and Albert Thompson, a young man who was accompanying her from Era to this city, were drowned last night five miles west of here in attempting to ford a creek that had become a raging torrent, as a result of the unprecedented rainfall of yesterday and last night.

Chicago Tanners Strike.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Fifteen hundred men employed in the tanneries, struck today. The strike is over the question of hours of labor, the employers insisting on ten hours a working day instead of eight, as at present. Many bosses, it is claimed, have decided not hereafter to recognize the unions, and to put the ten-hour day into effect next week.
