THE LAWS VIOLATED

Japanese Coolies Illegally Landed at Honolulu.

AUTHORITIES DEPORTED THEM

Japanese Consul Was Wroth. However, and Has Sent to Tokio for a Warship.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Advices this morning from Honolulu, per steamer Rio de Janeiro, under date of March 23d, say:

The Hawaiian government has been having serious trouble with Japanese immigrants. The Japanese tramp steamer Shinshui Maru arrived here on the 27th ult, with 695 Japanese laborers. The custom-house people found that 535 were not entitled to land. W. J. Gallagher and a Japanese member of a local immigration company were arrested for violating the immigration laws, and are now awaiting trial.

On the 10th inst. the immigrants were brought before the supreme court on a writ of habeas corpus. The court decided that the decision of the collector of customs was final, which meant the Japanese must return to their native country.

Another examination was made, and finally 252 men were allowed a landing; the balance, 413, were placed on board the steamer, which had been detained in port, by reason of the government's refusal to grant the captain clearance papers. The vessel departed for Yokohama on the 29th.

The incident created much excitement among the Japanese, who thought their countrymen were being discriminated against, and at a mass meeting they adopted a resolution calling on their government to investigate the case.

The Japanese consul here sent a request to Tokio for a war vessel. He also advised the captain of the Shinshui Maru to return the rejected immigrants to Japan, promising that the company shall be reimbursed if this country has violated the treaty.

On the 19th, the steamer Sakura Maru arrived from Yokohama. Out of her 816 immigrants but 153 will be allowed to land, and the others must be returned to Japan at the expense of the steamer.

The whole trouble has been caused by local immigration companies, who have attempted to bring men in without proper authority. The law says that an immigrant must possess a labor contract or $50 in coin. The rejected Japs had neither. The Japanese say they intend to cause trouble for this government. They seem to think that their consul has more authority than the Hawaiian government.

THE CAREER OF GENERAL RIVERA.

History of His Struggle in Free Cuba's Cause.

HAVANA, March 31.—General Ruiz Rivera, General Maceo's successor in Pinar del Rio, who was captured by General Hernandez Velasco on Sunday near Cabezas de Rio Hondo, came to Cuba in 1893. For four years he followed the calling of a civil engineer at Barcelona, Spain. He remained in Cuba during the long war of rebellion, which was suspended, though not subdued, by the articles of peace signed at Zanjos. He refused to sign the peace, and for a time continued war with Maceo and Vidal, but finally left the island in the steamer Hernando Catalica, furnished by General Martinez de Campos.

For fourteen months he was the secretary of the Spanish American gas works at Havana. Later he held positions of trust in London, Madrid, Manila and Honduras. During his residence here the last time, a fresh revolution broke out. Not sympathizing altogether with the plans of the leaders of it, he left the island for the British colonies, and in due time brought up in New York. He has a wife in New York, but no children. He returned to Cuba September 8 last, at the invitation of Maceo. Besides Spanish, he speaks French and English correctly. In a conversation today with the representative of the Associated Press, General Rivera expressed gratitude at the treatment he had received from his captor, but he declined to talk with reference to the rebellion.

General Rivera looks to be about 50 years of age. His features, though somewhat drawn, are finely cut, and his expression is animated. His hair and his long moustache are quite gray. More than twenty years ago, while leading a charge of Cuban revolutionists against a Spanish convoy, he lost the forefinger of his right hand, which was carried away by a rifle ball.

At the interview between General Rivera and the correspondent of the Associated Press, Colonel Bacallao, who was captured with Rivera, was present. He is a dark-complexioned young man with dignified carriage. He did not take part in the conversation. Bacallao is a native of Colon.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest dangers from La Grippe is of it resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dread disease. It will affect a permanent cure in less time than any other treatment. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

A Bold Maneuver.

CANEA, Crete, March 31, 5 p. m.—The insurgents, by a bold stroke, occupied the hill on the south side of Suda bay last evening. They were promptly shelled by the British, Austrian and Russian warships. At daybreak the fighting was resumed, and the Cretans were driven from their positions. As soon as the firing ceased they made another attempt to recover the ground, and the warships promptly resumed the firing, which was very heavy for several hours. During the cannonade, three Turks were killed and five wounded.

The Russian consul at Retimo reports that when he communicated to the Cretans at Siphonolos the proclamation of the admirals inviting them to lay down their arms, the Cretans reported that the only boon they would except from the powers was political union with Greece.

A Valuable Prescription.

Editor Morrison of Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2025 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed strength. ### SENTIMENT IN RUSSIA.

Great Britain Is Blamed for the Cretan Crisis.

NEW YORK, March 31.—A Herald dispatch from St. Petersburg, says: The irritation as regards impediments put forward against the prompt settlement of affairs in the East, which prevents any serious or continuous policy among the powers, and which causes Greek enthusiasm by waking up fallacious hopes, finds vent here in a torrent of newspaper abuse against England. In the St. Petersburg Riga, a well-known political writer named Goltstein leads his article with the heading: "Caught Redhanded," and says that England wants the Greeks to sow discord in Europe, out of which she would make political capital.

The Gleaner in this connection says: "The whole responsibility for the Cretan situation rests on the inertness of the powers. Had they acted firmly and rapidly last autumn, the present condition of affairs would not exist, and the powers would not find themselves in the anomalous condition of defending the Turks against the Christians. With the same weakness they are now vacillating with Turkish matters."

A telegram from Vienna says that if England refuses to join the blockade, all the other powers will continue the blockade without her.

Curiously enough, all this comes short of the absolutely authentic telegrams from the French foreign office, saying that Lord Salisbury and M. Hanotaux's interview has been most satisfactory, showing that a perfect entente prevails between the two governments.

Blockade of Greek Ports.

PARIS, March 31.—It is announced here this afternoon that the powers have decided to proceed with a partial blockade of Greece at an early date.

Insurgents Are Prepared.

LONDON, March 31.—A dispatch from a correspondent of the Daily Chronicle at Ellassona, headquarters of the Turkish army in Macedonia says:

"War is inevitable if the negotiations of the powers fail. Thirty thousand insurgent armed to the teeth are waiting at a certain point on the frontier. A week from today is the anniversary of Greek independence. It is difficult to believe it can pass without the enthusiasm breaking its bounds, though Prince Constantine's orders are to exercise the utmost strictness to prevent unauthorized action."

Fighting at Iszelin.

CANEA, March 31.—The Christians bombarded the blockhouse above Iszelin, a fort which, together with foreign ironclads, replied with shells. The bombardment continued until 11 o'clock at night and was resumed this morning. The result is not known.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J.
