PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Wm. Heinbothem of Columbus is the guest of Mrs. W. H. Biggs.

Mr. W. B. Iddings came up from Hood River this afternoon.

Miss Daisy Beall returned to Portland today by boat, after a week's visit in the city.

Fred Wilson and Ed. Wingate are in Portland and will probably be home tomorrow.

Mrs. J. Fagan went to Condon last night to visit her sister and will remain a month.

Mr. Hugh Glenn arrived from Goble last night. He reports the weather down that way for the past month as being described by the one word, rain.

The many friends of Mr. Charles Frazer will be pleased to learn that he is again able to be out, being down town this morning for the first time in several months.

Mr. S. L. Brooks, who has been in Portland for some time looking after the overhauling of the D. P. & A. N. Co.'s boats, had a light stroke of paralysis last Saturday, in his left arm. He is recovering quite rapidly from it, and is expected home tomorrow.

Wonderful Things That Are Near.

The Philadelphia Press foreshadows the coming of the millennium as follows:

Flying is solved. The principle is known. A mechanical expedient is all that is now needed to make it successful. Practical flight is today not more than five or ten years off.

A glow worm makes light with about one three-hundredth part of the force used in ordinary artificial light. When men know how to make light as cheap, streets and homes will be as light as day for a mere fraction of what light now costs.

Compressed air has long been known to be the best way, theoretically, to store force for use in transportation. There is no waste and no deterioration.

When these come the only use for gas will be for cooking—if this is not done by electricity. Factories, also, before many years, will be run by transmitted electric power.

Another Levee Gives Way. GREENVILLE, Miss., March 31.—Last night the levee broke at Selas Landing.

There are now four breaks on the Mississippi front hourly pouring devastating torrents into this fertile valley. The entire Mississippi delta from Australia la-ding south to Vicksburg will be overflowed.

No Reflection.

The festivities at the coming of age of the present Lord Hopetoun included a service at the parish church, which was filled with members of the great Hoppe family and also with members of the Hoppe clan.

Orange Roley Poley.

Make a light dough, the same as for apple dumplings, roll it out in a narrow long sheet about a quarter of an inch thick. Spread thickly over it peeled and sliced oranges, sprinkle it plentifully with white sugar, scatter over all a large teaspoonful of grated orange peel, then roll it up, fold the edges well to keep the juice from running out.
