WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

No. 8 did not arrive till 1 o'clock. The weather report for tonight and Saturday is fair.

Mr. C. M. Grimes shipped four cars of cattle to Portland this afternoon.

A train of seventeen cars passed through today bound for New York.

Mr. Rhea, of Ione, brought in a car load of cattle this morning for the Portland market.

The city recorder's court was rather lonesome this morning. Not even a D. D. cast his shadow across the door.

This is an "Age of Soap." Why use any but the very best. Best soap means Hoe Cake. Sold by Pease & Mays. a2-3m

An army of collectors is on the street today gathering in the sheekels. The collectors report that collections are exceedingly good.

Mr. Welsh and A. Brown have several horses in training at the race track, and they are expecting to have several more placed in their charge.

Yellow washing powder will make your clothes the same color. Avoid this by using Soap Foam. It's pure white. a2-3m

The town of Fossil is considerably excited this week over the discovery of gold about one mile from town, on top of the hill above Squire Donaldson's ranch.

Mr. Max Vogt has a force of men working on the Chapman block. He expects to remodel some of the offices and make repairs wherever they are needed.

Harmony Juvenile Temple will postpone their entertainment, which was to take place tomorrow afternoon, for one week, on account of one of its members, Roy White.

Mrs. Anna Morris, in the Krause building on Fifth street, near the Court street school, is prepared to do all kinds of dressmaking. Suits from $3 up. mch22-2w

Marshal Lauer, with the assistance of the gentle zephyrs, has put our streets in good condition for driving and wheeling. A number of our enthusiastic wheelmen have been sampling our roads, and pronounce them in excellent condition for this time of the year.

John Fiester, Dick Fiester and William Eutid are in jail in Grant's Pass, charged with burglary in having broken into James Devaney's smokehouse in Martin. This makes three members of the Fiester family in charge of Josephine county, as the father of the two Fiester boys is in jail, under sentence of death, for killing his wife.

Yesterday Mrs. T. J. Seufert again won the ladies bowling medal at the club. This is the third time Mrs. Seufert has carried off the coveted prize. The following ladies have carried the medal for a week or more: Miss Alma Schanno, Mrs. C. Stephens, Miss Ione Ruch, Mrs. J. S. Fish, Miss C. Martin and Mrs. Hobson.

Mr. B. F. Seneheimer, W. J. Clark and Dave Ackeman, three traveling men from Portland, returned yesterday from a six weeks trip in the interior. They went as far as Burns and report that in spite of the unfavorable weather, sheep and all kinds of stock are doing well. The sheepmen expect to break all records with the clip this year.

Mr. A. A. Bonney received a telegram today announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. B. Bonney, at Woodburn. Mrs. Bonney was 85 years old today, death having overtaken her on birthday. She was an Oregon pioneer, crossing the plains in 1847 and settling in the Willamette valley, where she has since resided. Mrs. Bonney leaves three sons and five daughters.

A tramp at Arlington last week asked a woman for something to eat. She said she would furnish it if the tramp would saw some wood. The tramp agreed to the proposition, was fed and shown the wood pile. The woman went out in the yard an hour later to see how the fellow was getting along, and found the following note on the sawbuck: "Just tell me that you saw me, but didn't see me saw."

Sheep are finding better market this spring than for some time, says the Fossil Journal. Yearling and 2-year-old wethers find a ready at $1.50 and $2 per head, respectively. W. S. Brown of Fremont, Nebraska, has come out to Oregon this spring in quest of a band of sheep. He will purchase a large band of 2-year-old wethers. Lacy & White, sheepbuyers, have returned to Fossil, after spending a week in the interior. They purchased wethers from Messrs. Iremonger, Trospen and others in the Caleb country.

Mrs. Addie Hostetler, wife of Edward Hostetler, died at Salem on Wednesday. The Statesman says: "The sad and sudden death of Mrs. Hostetler leaves three motherless daughters, Lillie, aged 9; Nellie, aged 7, and Lon, aged 5 years. Besides these mourning little ones, the grief occasioned by her demise is shared by her devoted husband, parents and only sister, Mrs. A. C. Geiger of The Dalles, all of whom, as well as J. C. Hostetler of The Dalles, were with the deceased at the sad climax of her five weeks of suffering."

About 6 o'clock yesterday, Roy, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. White, died of spinal meningitis. He had been ill for the past three weeks, but not until the last week has his life been despaired of, the parents hoping against hope that their oldest son might be spared them. He was a bright boy, and a pupil in the room of Miss Ball at the public school. The funeral will take place from the family residence on Fifteenth street, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. C. Baker, formerly of the Baptist church in this city.

Messrs. O'Reilly and O'Brien of the O. R. & N., accompanied by E. E. Lytle and T. A. Hudson of The Dalles, came up Saturday and spent the day looking over the proposed route of Columbia River & Southern Railway. They also took a run out to the top of Gordon Ridge in order to get a good view of the surrounding country. They were highly pleased with their trip, and returned fully satisfied that the railroad project would be a paying investment. They gave out the positive assurance that the road would be finished by the time wheat begins to move this fall.—Wasco News.

Yesterday being all fools' day, it was properly observed by members of that organization. It is reported that one of the boys in the pit at the club alley tied a string on the king pin, and every time a lady bowled a ball, no matter whether it stayed on the alley or not, he would pull the string, when down went the pins, and up went a shout of delight at the good scores being made. But this could not last forever, one of the ladies seeing what was going on asked "Pat" what he meant by such conduct. "Well, this is April 1st," was the answer she received. Even our mayor is said to have stood on a corner nearly all day waiting for a person that never came.

In securing the services of Mr. J. W. Smith to take charge of their shoe department, Pease & Mays have again shown their desire to give their patrons the best service possible. Mr. Smith has had several years experience in some of the larger Eastern cities, and for the past three years has been with E. C. Goddard & Co., of Portland, leaving that firm to accept his present position. Mr. Smith is a competent and capable shoe man, and will be pleased to fit all who are in any way troubled with ill fitting shoes, besides catering to the demands of those who wear up-to-date shoes. Pease & Mays are determined to make the shoe department one of the leading features of their mammoth store.

Mrs. A. Inveen, residing at 729 Henry St., Alton, Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctored for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by the physicians, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which effected a complete cure. This is published at her request, as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her.
