WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

So happy a life was never, love, As that which childhood leads Before it learns to sever, love. The roses from the weeds; When to be very duteous, love, Is all one has to do; And every flower is beautiful, love, And every folly true.

The weather forecast for tonight and Wednesday is showers.

The city recorder this morning, besides fining four Indians $10 each for being drunk and disorderly, had one white man, whom he let go with a fine of $5.

In giving the list of officers elected by the D. P. & A. N. yesterday, we put Mr. M. T. Nolan in as treasurer, while, as a matter of fact, he was elected vice-president.

The supreme court handed down decisions in thirteen cases, among them three from Prineville, in which Hon. J. F. Moore was the attorney. He is to be congratulated on his success, having won all three cases.

We received yesterday the list of names of those graduating from the medical department of the University of Oregon. Among them we note that of Mrs. Belle Cooper-Rinehart, of this city, and Harrie A. Littlefield, brother of Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw.

There was a pleasant birthday party at Mr. C. B. Cushing's last night, it being a double affair given in honor of Miss Mamie Cushing and Mr. Charles Clarke. The occasion was appropriately celebrated, the young people being assisted by a host of their friends.

Nightwatchman Wiley arrested four Indians last night in the East End, they being drunk and boisterous. He got them as far as the corner of Court and Second, when they skipped around the McInerney corner, and scattered on him. Two of them took through the alley by Haworth's printery, with Wiley in hot pursuit, and as they did not stop he fired his pistol three or four times. One of the swashes fell and was run in, while the other was stopped at the end of the alley by citizens attracted by the noise of the shooting. The third was captured by Councilman Ross, and the fourth was gathered in, we do not know how. This morning they were up before Recorder Phelps, who fined them $10 each, for which sum they are now doing work for the city.

Some of the big poplars on Second, next to Court, have been chopped down. They have not been in good shape since the flood of 1894, at which time all of them took a lean, almost a tumble to themselves. They are of quick growth and would prove a valuable shade tree were it not for their habit of sending their roots down into the sewers and clogging them. On account of this habit they are more of a nuisance than anything else.

There Are Others.

In last night's CHRONICLE appeared an account of a base ball game played Sunday at the fair grounds, between the Champions and White Stars. Now, as one of the White Stars, I desire to make a few corrections in regard to the account of the game and the score. The Champions say they can justly claim the championship of Eastern Oregon and they are open for all comers. The White Stars and Champions have played but two games of ball this season. The first game the White Stars came off the victors with a score of 19 to 9, the Champions being shut out or "goose egged" six innings. They also say they won a great victory. Three of our best players were unable to be there, being the second and third base men and center fielder, which handicapped the White Stars, and claim they won no victory at all. The correct score by innings was: Champions.....7 0 2 0 2 3 5 5 x—24 White Stars.....3 0 1 2 1 0 0 3 1—11 The Champions have the score this way:

Champions.....7 0 2 1 1 3 5 5 x—24 White Stars.....3 0 1 4 0 0 0 3—11

A comparison of the two scores, the correct and incorrect, will show that the Champions did not win such a great victory after all. In order to give themselves the title of champions of Eastern Oregon, they will have to meet the White Stars again. We dispute their fictitious title of "Champions," and next Sunday we will be ready to again meet them. We hope they will not adopt the tactics of Fitzsimmons and say "We will retire on our laurels," for they have none.

LAST HONORS TO JENNISON.

Funeral of the Superintendent of Construction of the Western Union Company.

The funeral of Henry E. Jennison, superintendent of construction of the Western Union Telegraph Company, who lost his life through gas in a tunnel in Colorado last Friday, was held from All Saint's church to Forest Lawn cemetery yesterday afternoon, Rector Mackay officiating.

The church was crowded with the friends from all parts of the west. The casket was all but concealed beneath an avalanche of flowers, in designs and bouquets.

A large number of telegraph and railway officials from different parts of the territory, over which Jennison had jurisdiction, attended the funeral. Many others sent beautiful floral tributes.

Among those present from abroad were: G. M. Hohl, superintendent of the Kansas City, St. Joseph & Council Bluffs railway and I. T. Dyer, superintendent of telegraph of the same road, St. Joseph, Mo.; Rodney Smith, manager Western Union Telegraph Company, from the same city, also F. W. Mackey, manager Missouri and Kansas Telephone Company, St. Joseph; C. W. McDaniel, superintendent of the Missouri & Kansas Telephone Company, Kansas City; W. C. Burrows, manager Western Union Telegraph Company, and wife, Leavenworth, Kas.; George E. Lawton, night chief operator Western Union Telegraph Company, Denver; William Butler and J. L. Reynolds, Western Union Telegraph Company, Denver; A. Duffy of the Union Pacific, Cheyenne; Charles A. Simons, general foreman of the Union Pacific; R. J. Armstrong of the Union Pacific; C. E. Yates, superintendent of Telegraph Burlington & Missouri railway, Lincoln; R. A. Hutchison, manager of Western Union Telegraph Company, Lincoln; A. M. Dickey, Western Union Telegraph Company, Lincoln; G. W. Stamsel, Union Pacific at Grand Island; C. W. Pierce, Union Pacific at Valley, Neb.; J. T. Callahan, Union Pacific railway, Schuyler, Neb.; T. C. Howard of St. Joseph.

The pall bearers were L. H. Korty, superintendent of telegraph, Union Pacific railway; W. P. McFarland, superintendent of telegraph of the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railway; C. E. Horton, assistant superintendent, and W. W. Umsted, manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company; E. D. Parker, assistant superintendent of construction, Western Union Telegraph Company, and C. W. Moore of Superintendent Dickey's office.

The funeral obsequies were beautiful and impressive. Mrs. G. W. Johnson sang "Nearer My God to Thee," accompanied by Miss Josephine Thatcher on the organ.

Rev. T. J. MacKay spoke tenderly and feelingly of the dead man, paying a high tribute to his exemplary character and personal worth. He said the profusion of floral tributes testified to the esteem in which Mr. Jennison was held in this city, where he was well known and loved by all of his acquaintances.

"We have lost a brave and gallant comrade of life's battle," he said, "and I wish that all men would strive to emulate the example of this noble man who sacrificed his own life at the post of duty, leading the men under his command to perform a dangerous duty rather than driving them and shielding himself."

When Mrs. Johnson sang "Just as I am Without One Plea," the beautiful casket was borne down the aisle, away to Forest Lawn cemetery, where all that was mortal of Henry E. Jennison was consigned to the tomb.—Omaha World's Herald.

Success of Woman's Enfranchisement in New Zealand.

It is now four years since the electoral franchise was granted to all women twenty-one years of age by act of the local parliament; and, as the parliaments in New Zealand last for three years, there have been two general elections in which the women's vote has been a most important factor. It is only just to note that there are no symptoms of public regret at the step thus taken, nor are there, so far, any indications of the change having altered in other respects the ordinary usages of society. On the other hand, it is important to observe that the change was no new idea in New Zealand. It was not the result of female agitation, either through the press or on the platform. There were no "Women's Rights" leagues organized; nor was any public attempt made to denounce the selfishness of men, or to magnify the virtues and intellectual powers of women. To the persons who have put themselves forward in positions of prominence in the "Women's Rights" movements in America and Great Britain the attitude of the women of New Zealand would undoubtedly have seemed slow and supine to an extraordinary degree. They held no meetings; they sent no petitions; they published no letters or pamphlets—either to denounce men or to praise women. What they did was to take advantage of every opportunity that was given them of taking part in the management of public affairs, and of showing an active and intelligent interest in public questions.—Hon. Hugh H. Lusk, in the April Forum.
