CUBA IN THE SENATE

Morgan and Hale Have a Passage at Arms.

BOTH SENATORS WERE EXCITED

Former Accused the Latter of Being in Communication With the Spanish Government.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The resolution of Senator Morgan, of Alabama, declaring that a state of war exists in Cuba, was taken up by the senate today, and Morgan addressed the senate in favor of the resolution.

An exciting debate between Morgan and Hale occurred during Morgan's speech. Hale denied Morgan's statement that the Spanish prisons were stuffed with Americans. Morgan asked Hale where his information came from, and then asserted that he (Morgan) knew who the informant was. The country knew who it was. The senator from Maine (Hale) could not conceal the fact, asserted Morgan, that he was in communication with the Spanish government.

Hale made an indignant denial, stating that none of his information came from Spanish sources, and it was entirely from Americans.

The Morgan Cuban resolution went to the senate calendar, thus losing the privileged place. Morgan gave notice that he would make a motion tomorrow to take it up with a view to securing final action.

The bankruptcy bill was then taken up at 2:15 p. m., and Stewart of Nevada took the floor to speak on it.

BRYAN AT THE WHITEHOUSE.
The Ex-Candidate Pays the President a Social Visit.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—W. J. Bryan, late Democratic candidate for president, called at the White House today with Representative McMillin, of Tennessee, and Attorney-General Smythe, of Nebraska, to pay his respects to his late opponent. He was greeted warmly by McKinley. The latter said that he had received a copy of Bryan's book a few days ago, but had not had the time to read it. After exchanging courtesies and pleasantries, Bryan retired.

Bryan expressed a desire to be shown through the Whitehouse, and Doorkeeper Dubois conducted him through the various parlors and conservatories. In the main corridor, just as he was emerging, he met Mrs. McKinley, who was going out for a drive, and saluted her cordially.

Bryan was besieged with newspaper men, who asked for his views on the Ohio and Michigan elections yesterday.

"They indicate that confidence has been restored," he said, laughing, "and need no explanation from me; they speak for themselves."

ESCAPE OF A NAVAL ENSIGN.
A Terrible Struggle Against Death by Asphyxiation.

New York, April 6.—For seven hours Ensign G. L. P. Stone, of the coast defense battle-ship Puritan, fought for air and life in a water tight compartment of that vessel last Saturday.

The story of his narrow escape from death by asphyxiation in the foul atmosphere was told today for the first time. Ensign Stone is a member of a prominent Georgia family of that name, and the writer for Captain John R. Bartlett, who is in command of the battle-ship. The ensign was placed in charge of a squad of five men detailed to descend into the double bottom of the Puritan and inspect and clean it. When the men came out they closed all the hatches, not knowing that Stone had been left behind in one of the compartments.

Seven hours later a seaman heard a faint tapping on one of the hatches. He listened and it was repeated more faintly. He reported it, and then it was recognized that it might have come from Stone, who had been missing some time. The screws were removed and the hatch lifted. At the very mouth of the opening they saw the white, upturned face of the ensign. He had pressed his lips close to the metal cover of his prison in his efforts to obtain fresh air. He was half-conscious, but still had sufficient presence of mind to cling to the ladder. In one hand tightly gripped was a shoe which he had removed, and it was with this he had rapped for hours on the ceiling of his cell.

Old papers for sale at 10 cents per hundred. A large lot of old daily and weekly CHRONICLES on hand, the accumulation of 1896. Very good for putting under carpets, on account of uniform size.

WILL PROTECT THE RESERVES.

Proposed New Forestry Regulations Are Comprehensive.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The substance of a detailed and voluminous report to be submitted by the government forestry commission to the body designated by the national academy of science is embraced in the following letter which has just been submitted by the commission to the secretary of the interior, in advance of the formal report to be made early in May:

"Legislation relating to reserved forest lands of the public domain, which the commission of the national academy will recommend in its final report, now in course of preparation, provides for the following:

"First—That authority be given the secretary of war to make details of troops, at the request of the secretary of the interior, to protect temporarily and until the forest service is organized, the property of the government in forest reservations, for fire and trespass, and to enforce such rules and regulations as he may make for their care.

"Second—Establishment of a permanent forest bureau in the department of the interior, composed of trained officers to administer, maintain and improve the reserve forest lands.

"Third—Appointment of a commission to institute as rapidly as possible, under the supervision of the director of the geological survey topographical surveys of the reservations, and determine what portions of them shall be permanently reserved on account of their forest covering, and what portions should be opened to entry and sale.

"Fourth—To authorize the secretary of the interior to issue necessary rules and regulations for the protection of the growth and improvement of forests on reservations; for the sale of timber, firewood and fencing from them to actual settlers in and adjacent to the reservations, and to owners of mines legally located therein for use in such mines; granting permits to saw-mill owners to reservations for the purpose of manufacturing such lumber as may be sold to actual settlers in and adjacent to the reservations, and to owners of mines located therein; for allowing actual settlers timber for immediate personal use; for allowing public entry and cross reservations; for granting to county commissioners right of way for irrigating ditches; for permitting prospectors to enter reservations in search of valuable minerals."

The commissions will recommend that the reservations be opened to location of mining claims under the general mineral laws.

The Log of the Mayflower.

LONDON, April 6.—The archbishop of Canterbury will personally deliver into the hands of Mr. Bayard, on the latter's return to this city, the log of the Mayflower, which the consistorial court recently decided to present to the United States.

Mrs. A. Inveen, residing at 720 Henry St., Alton, Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctored for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by the physicians, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which effected a complete cure. This is published at her request, as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Demands Reparation for a Threat.

TANGIER, Morocco, April 6.—Acting upon instructions received from Washington, United States Consul Burk has made an energetic demand for ample reparation for the threat of a Moorish soldier to shoot Vice-Consul Castleton at Larache.

With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.

HON. W. J. BRYAN'S BOOK.

THE FIRST BATTLE

THE FIRST BATTLE is an interesting story of the great political struggle of 1896. Its most important events and the many issues involved; a logical treatise on Bi-metalism as uttered by eminent exponents, including the part taken by Hon. W. J. Bryan in the silver agitation prior to the Democratic National Convention, and during the campaign; the best examples of his wonderful oratory; the most noteworthy incidents of his famous tour; a careful review of the political situation; a discussion of the election returns and the significance thereof; and the future possibilities of Bi-metalism as a political issue.
