We sell Hoe Cake soap.—Pease & Mays. a2-3m

The following is a part of ordinance No. 162, to provide for the taxing and killing of dogs: The owners or persons having in charge any dog permitted to run at large within the city limits, shall, on or before the 12th day of May of each year, pay into the city treasury the sum of $1.50 for each and every male dog, and the sum of $3 for each and every slut or female dog, which shall entitle him to a receipt from the treasurer, which receipt shall be numbered and shall designate the sex of the dog and the owner's name and the amount paid; and upon the presentation of each receipt to the recorder, he shall issue a license to the holder thereof, which shall designate the owner's name and the number of the license, which number shall correspond with that worn by the dog or slint.

The marshal will seize, kill and properly bury in some suitable place outside the city limits any and all dogs found running at large, in violation of the above provisions; also any and all dogs wearing collars running at large on which the owner or keeper has failed to pay or renew the license.

Any person or inhabitant of this city permitting any dog of which he is the owner or over which he has the control, to go abroad in any of the streets, squares lanes or public places of this city without having first paid the license required by this ordinance, and having the number thereof stamped or engraved on the collar upon such dog, shall upon conviction thereof before the recorder, be subject to a fine not less than $5 nor more than $50, or imprisonment for not more than fifteen days.

Sale of School District Bonds.

School District No. 29, in Wasco county, Oregon, having voted to bond said district in the sum of $3,000, to be in six bonds of $500 each, payable absolutely in twenty years, and redeemable at the pleasure of said district after ten years, with interest coupons attached, interest payable semi-annually. Principal and interest payable at the office of the county treasurer of said county or at such place as may be designated in the city of New York, at the option of the purchaser, and the rate of interest shall be such as may be designated in the bid which may be accepted, not exceeding the rate of 8 per cent.

Therefore, in pursuance of the law in such cases I will receive sealed bids for said bonds as above described, at my office in Dalles City, Oregon, up to the hour of 2 o'clock p. m. of the 21st day of April, 1897, all bids to be accompanied by certified check for 5 per cent. of the amount of the bid, the successful bidder to furnish blank bonds. Bids for less than par will not be considered. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Dalles City, Oregon, March 20, 1897.
