WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

The weather forecast for tomorrow is "cooler."

New line of step ladders at Maier & Benton's.

One carload of cattle was shipped to Troutdale from the stockyards today.

A big drive in matches. Three papers for 5 cents at Maier & Benton's.

The street sprinkler started this morning, and the recent dust storms make its good work all the more acceptable.

If the cases at Condon are all tried, Judge Bradshaw will have quite a siege of it, as there are forty-two cases on the docket.

On account of the baseball meeting last night, the meeting of the wheelmen was postponed until next Thursday night.

Do not forget that there is an ordinance against riding bicycles on the sidewalks.

The Herald says that a Cuban officer, traveling incognito, and engaged in secret revolutionary work, passed through that town last week.

In Mrs. Wingate's handsome yard is a magnolia in full bloom that has more than 400 blossoms. It is worth walking up that way just for a glance at it.

Goose lake, in Lake county, is much higher this spring than it has been for a number of years. A number of houses and haystacks are completely surrounded by water.

It is expected the delinquent tax roll will be completed today, and the footings made up, so that the rolls will be in the hands of the sheriff and taxes will be again received Monday.

The salmon catch is evidently increasing very rapidly. Saturday a half of one was brought in, and last night a whole one represented the catch. The supply has doubled in two days.

All ball players of the Commercial Club are notified that there will be a practice game at the fair grounds every afternoon at 4 o'clock, and they are all requested to be present and participate in the games.

The ladies of Canyon City have organized a brass band and elected officers. George Cattanch is president and instructor, Mabel Gray secretary, and Mrs. D. I. Asbury treasurer.

There was a fish wheel went down the river this morning. It was on a scow. This item was furnished us free of charge by Sam Thurman. He also told us that one of the wheels caught seventy-five pounds of salmon last night.

A weekly shipment of sturgeon is being made from Huntington, and some good-sized fish have been brought in lately. Fish weighing between 200 and 300 are not an uncommon thing there.

They are taken from Snake river, near Old's Ferry.

Do you want your windows cleaned, carpets taken up, beaten and re laid, or janitor work of any kind done by a first-class man? If so, telephone Henry Johnson at Parkins' barber shop. Phone 119. a10-1f

The river this morning shows considerable small drift, indicating that some of the smaller tributaries are at their highest. It probably comes from the Umatilla, as the Peadleton papers report that stream unusually high, and some of the bridges on the O. R. & N. partly washed out.

Jack Parker, who killed Bud Howard at the time the latter killed Til Glaze in Harney county, has been pardoned by the governor, after serving two years of a seven years' sentence. A strong petition was sent in his behalf, and his own exemplary conduct while in the pen had much to do with the pardon being granted.

They are evidently preparing for a brisk trade in their grocery department. We refer to Pease & Mays, who are to-day unloading five full carloads of merchandise, consisting of beans, canned and dried fruit, tea, coffee, spices and miscellaneous groceries. It is buying goods in such quantities as these that they are enabled to make low prices to the consumer.

Mr. J. F. Knapp, representing the San Francisco Call, has been in the city several days in the interest of that paper, and has given it quite a subscription list here. The Call has pushed steadily to the front since it changed ownership a year or two ago, and is now a dangerous rival to the old leader, the Chronicle. Mr. Knapp is highly pleased with this section and will call attention to its resources through the columns of his paper. He leaves by the Regulator tomorrow, and if he is not delighted with the trip down the Columbia, then indeed has the soft breezes of Southern California made sybarites of its people, and rendered them incapable of enjoying the grand in nature.

The School Board's Action.

ANTELOPE, April 6, 1897.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:—In the Antelope Herald of a week ago the following article, which explains itself, appeared under the above caption:

The recent action of our school board in demanding the immediate resignation of Prof. Lake from the principalship of our public school is heartily approved by almost every moral, law-abiding citizen within the district, and the unanimous verdict of the people is that, acting upon simply Mr. Lake's own admissions and confessions, and barring the two more serious charges, the directors could have done nothing else than dismiss him if they had any regard whatever for the oath which they took after being elected. To show that the action of the board is heartily approved by the people, we call attention to the fact that Mr. Z. Taylor last week circulated a petition, asking for the return of Mr. Lake to said principalship, but the petition met with such a cold rebuke from our citizens that it was mighty soon dropped, with practically no signatures, except, perhaps, a very few who were indifferent in the matter, or least informed as to the real facts in the case. The school board is composed of three men who were previously warm friends of Mr. Lake, and who were able to give him a most just and partial hearing. The said board were the only ones who heard all the evidence in the matter, and were therefore the only ones able to judge of the merits of the case. They unanimously adopted a resolution demanding Mr. Lake's resignation for repeated conduct unbecoming a principal of a public school, and, let the chips fall where they may, we have no hesitancy in asserting that any citizen who, knowing the facts as they were presented to the directors, will oppose the action taken by said board, is himself guilty of conduct unbecoming a good citizen.

I desire to say that the article above quoted does not state the facts, there being two notable misrepresentations. Mr. Z. Taylor has not at any time, nor has anyone else, circulated a petition asking for the return of Mr. Lake to said principalship, or for any other purpose in connection with the school. It follows that it could not have met with "a cold rebuke," or that "it was mighty soon dropped." In connection with others I canvassed the district to see how many were in favor of Professor Lake's being re-instated, and we found the district almost unanimously in favor of it, there being only about six opposed. A petition was not circulated because we understood that two of the directors would not sanction his return, even though the sentiment of the district were unanimous in favor of his doing so.

The people generally do not believe the statements made concerning Professor Lake, and think he has been wronged, and that only the prejudice of the two directors, Shutt and Condon, prevents them seeing and understanding this.

Z. TAYLOR.

Fanny Davenport Next Week at the Marquam.

Fanny Davenport will be seen at the Marquam Grand next week for the last time in her Sardou plays, and, as a mark of remembrance of her farewell to Sardou, silver souvenirs will be presented to the ladies on the lower floor Monday and Tuesday nights, when "Fedora" and "La Tosca" will be the attraction.

Commencing Wednesday night and for the balance of the engagement, "Gismonda" will be witnessed for the first time in Portland. It is said to be the grandest production known to the stage, and is Sardou's latest success. It was Miss Davenport's intention to eclipse anything Henry Irving had given the stage when she started to get up "Gismonda," and that she has succeeded in doing so, has been conceded on all sides. The sale of seats and boxes commences Friday morning.—Telegram.

THE SIGNS OF SPRING.

On pass the years in wayward course,
And many the happy hours they bring,
With them are friendship, love and flowers,
That come with sweet and joyous spring.

Then turns the mind to great good-will
And fond society of one another.
Then try the girls their cup of joy to fill
In fond association with their "Brother."

'Tis wishing then his joys to multiply,
Which all the rest the years are few,
That every boy looks round with sheepish eye
And hunts him up a "sister" too.

No wonder then school students seemed quite quarish,
And of a damsel fair each thought himself
possessor,
But ah! alas! how soon the poor delusion vanished
When there loomed into view our sandy-haired professor.

The beautiful spring is here again,
With April showers between the sunny hours:
The time when Nature robes in beauty; when
The lovers' eyes in deep-sequestered bowers.

As there they sit in love enraptured,
Comes winged Cupid and deftly shoots his arrow,
A question asked, a question answered:
A glance given back that bears no blight of sorrow.

The song bird sings in the trees above,
And on them each doth cast his blessing,
A share so large each claims of love,
They seem the whole world to be possessing.

And now they promise on life's sea to row;
Each cheerfully to help the other,
He with a steady hand will wield the oar,
While she with pride will man the rudder.

And now, we hope he bears the trials of life,
And ever keeps that sacred promise whole,
While deftly she avoids each coming strife
By steering past each troublous shoal.
