TOUGH ON SHEEP OWNERS.

The action of the board of county commissioners of Klickitat county concerning quarantining for sixty days the sheep of Wasco, Gilliam, Sherman and Umatilla counties, is disingenuous and somewhat arbitrary. The reason given for their action is that scab exists in Umatilla and Gilliam counties, and that from their position Wasco and Sherman county sheep are exposed to it, and consequently are dangerous to Washington sheep. If this were the true reason, no fault could be found with it; but it is not. The law is simply taken advantage of to keep Oregon sheep out of the state of Washington and to protect the stockmen of Washington in their ranges. Hence we say the action of the board is disingenuous. If it were simply the protection of Washington sheep from infectious diseases, why should not the certificate of the Klickitat sheep inspector be sufficient guaranty that the sheep were free from disease, instead of compelling the quarantining of sheep for sixty days? Why compel sheepmen with clean flocks to bring their sheep within five miles of the Columbia and keep them there for two months?

It may be all right to keep Oregon sheep off the government's land in Washington, but it strikes us that the manner of its doing is not quite honest. It is in a sense a law in restraint of trade, and heaven knows trade is stagnant enough without having any legal restraints put upon it. Besides it cuts Klickitat off from considerable revenue in the shape of taxes on Oregon sheep, which have heretofore been paid cheerfully.

MISTAKEN IDEAS.

Congressman Shattuck of Ohio has appointed D. J. Bandy, a Negro boy of Cincinnati, to a cadetship at the naval academy at Annapolis. It is just such blameworthy foolishness on the part of people who ought to know better that makes one half the trouble in the world. Admitting that under the law the Negro boy has just as much right to the appointment as his white brother, the unwritten law of race prejudice comes up to make the written law inoperative.

It was not kindness on Shattuck's part to give the boy the appointment, but instead it was the worst kind of cruelty. Neither Congressman Shattuck nor the secretary of war, nor the power of the United States boiled down and concentrated, if all brought to the assistance of Bandy, can ever break down the prejudice or smooth his pathway through Annapolis. The races will not mix, nor should they, and Bandy's life at Annapolis will be made a burden to him. He will be shunned, taunted, harassed and abused, and all these so shamefully that he will either have to leave or will be a morose and gloomy cynic when he graduates. We do not defend in advance the actions of the white cadets in mistreating him, but they will do it just the same, and Shattuck, knowing this, is guilty of a mistake that is almost a crime.

A correspondent of the St. Louis Republic telling of his experience in the flooded districts along the Mississippi says: "On the Casteel plantation the waters imprisoned a family in a one-story cabin. As the water rose and the danger became momentarily greater, the head of the family of seven got into his dug-out and took in four precious pounds and paddled a half mile to the levee, where he landed them safely. Then he went back for his wife and five children. He found them nearly drowned, and it was only by desperate efforts that he succeeded in saving them. When the family was seen by your correspondent they were on the levee, and there seemed to be no question in the mind of the woman as to the propriety of her husband's mode of procedure." The dogs may have been worth saving, but the man certainly was not.

Senator Corbett seems to be about as far away from the senatorial seat which he was appointed to fill as he was before he left Portland. The senate does not seem to be bothering itself much about the matter, notwithstanding the visit of one of Oregon's Democracy to Washington to assist in seating Corbett.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
