WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

The rainfall last night and today is 10 of an inch.

One drunk and disorderly is doing penance in the city jail this morning.

The weather forecast for tonight is showery, for tomorrow fair and cooler.

Don't miss seeing those olive platino photos of Mr. Hammond's at Herrin's gallery.

The west-bound passenger was six hours late this morning, caused by a washout on Meacham creek.

Rev. O. D. Taylor occupied his pulpit yesterday for the first time in several months, and enjoyed being again home with his congregation.

There has been an epidemic of measles throughout the Northwest. Recently Baker City reported 300 cases, but just now The Dalles is the measlesiest town in the state.

Mr. McGann of Lyle conducted the services at the Episcopal church yesterday morning, where a large congregation was in attendance. The music was exceptionally good.

The delayed passenger train stopped here this morning for the hungry passengers to get their breakfast. The cars were almost empty, there being only an average of two passengers to the car.

John Andrews, who was charged with exhibiting obscene pictures, had his preliminary examination before Justice Filloon today, and was bound over to appear before the grand jury, with bonds fixed at $500.

The Champions played a picked nine from the White Stars and Athletic Club yesterday and scored another victory of 10 to 7. This club has accepted the challenge of the Dufar club to play for a bat and ball, and the contest will come off at Dufar May 7th.

Sunday morning was as fair and beautiful an Easter as we would wish to see; but in the afternoon a Chinook wind, suffering from the delirium tremens, came along with a jag on that was simply immense. The way the dust and everything else loose flew was a caution, and it kept it up well through the night, too, bringing some rain before it quit.

The members of the Lutheran Sunday school gave a sacred concert last night in the courthouse, which was well attended. The sickness of Rev. Grey, who had the training of the children in charge, caused some inconvenience, but every little tot did their part well, and it was a success. The room was beautifully decorated.

The services at the Congregational church yesterday morning were particularly impressive, and the church was well filled with an attentive congregation. The singing was up to its usual degree of excellence. Besides the customary anthem and hymns, a solo, "Ashamed of Jesus," was sung by Miss Mamie Cushing. The pastor, W. C. Curtis, chose for the topic of his sermon "The Nature of the Heavenly Life," and made a very effective address, after which eight persons united with the church. The service closed with the administration of the Lord's Supper.

The river yesterday morning was 20.4 and this morning 23.9, a rise of something over three feet in twenty-four hours, ending at 8 o'clock this morning. During the day the rise has been at the rate of about three inches in two hours. The change in the temperature, if extending to the head waters of the Snake and Columbia, may slacken the flood in three or four days, but there is water enough coming from the effects of the warm spell to send the river up to the 30-foot mark. It is now nearly four feet higher than on April 19, 1894, at which time it was falling slightly, standing at 19.5, and having been a foot higher than that.

School Funds.

In accordance with law, the April apportionment of county school funds was sent out from the office of county superintendent today. The total amount distributed, $7,612.65, after deducting the $50, for each of sixty districts entitled to funds, gives $1.15 per capita on the school enumeration. In April '96 the amount distributed was $10,717, the per capita being $2. The greater per centage of delinquent taxes this year has caused the shortage in the county fund and as the delinquent roll is now placed with the sheriff for further collection, it is probable that the August apportionment of '97 will exceed that of August '96.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. O. D. Taylor and wife went to Portland this afternoon.

Prof. German, late of the Normal school at Weston, spent yesterday in this city with his friend, W. C. Allaway.

Miss Mabel Riddell left for English, about ten miles from this city, this morning, where she is to take charge of a school.

Mr. Frank Gunning is seriously ill, and his brethren of the K. of P. have a committee to look after him. Mr. Louis Davenport, his father-in-law, came up from Mosier last night to be with him.

Are Schilling's Best

as good as Schilling's Best tea?

Yes and no. Other coffee, baking powder, and soda, are not usually so bad as other tea. Other spices and flavoring extracts are almost worse.

Easter Services.

The Easter exercises at the Methodist church yesterday morning were beautiful. The decorations were very pretty, and of the usual Easter order, consisting of potted plants, lilies and other flowers. The most unique decoration was a regular tree of the Christmas variety that had grown a prolific crop of highly-colored hen-apples. It was the only genuine egg plant we ever saw, and we wouldn't have believed it then if it had not been in the church. However, when the exercises were through the Sunday school children were each given an egg from the wonderful tree and were delighted with them. The music was all good, and the children's songs not only well rendered, but well selected, the motion song being especially effective. It was sung by about a dozen little girls, dressed in white, and when the little arms went all at once, reaching up as if asking to be taken into someone's strong arms, it made as pretty a tableau as we ever witnessed. There were so many pretty things that we cannot remember them all, but have only a memory of having spent a most delightful hour and a half enjoying with the little folks the beautiful Easter day.

It has been twenty-one years since we attended Easter service before, and it had somewhat an air of newness to us; but after yesterday's experience we will not miss another soon.

Bufeno-Russell.

Married, in this city, on Sunday morning, April 18th, by W. C. Curtis, pastor of the Congregational church, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Third street, William J. Bufeno, of Portland, Or., and Miss Jennie S. Russell, of The Dalles.

The ceremony was simple, only relatives of the parties being present, with the exception of Captain and Mrs. Waud. The parlors were handsomely decorated with a profusion of flowers, apple blossoms prevailing. The marriage took place at 10 o'clock and the young couple left on the afternoon local for Portland. A large number of friends were at the Umalla house to bid them God-speed, but as they had boarded the cars at the depot there was only time to wave handkerchiefs and throw a few handfuls of rice, old shoes and congratulations, all mixed, after them. We wish them the very happiest of honeymoons, that may extend through the next fifty years.

Whence Comes the Flood.

One can get an idea of where the flood is coming from, from the following taken from the Baker City Democrat of Sunday:

The oldest inhabitant of Baker City never saw Powder river when it had on its fighting clothes like the present. A week ago the stream was on a tear, but that was mild as compared to its madness yesterday and last night. All day yesterday it raised rapidly, and last night it was a second Columbia. The great rush of waters has caused a change of channel in many places, and through the city it has widened its banks in many places, causing considerable damage to property owners in its vicinity.

ity. At Donald's grove the overflow has cut a channel on the west side and water to quite a depth is running over the north part of the city and flooding many residence lots. Where the water comes in Front street near the old Brothers' school building it has cut a channel due north down the street in some places three feet deep. The bridge on Valley avenue is out and much of the grade with it. The footbridge on Washington street is impassable. The black bridge lower down is in danger of going out, and if this should occur it will entail a big loss to the city.

Gilbert in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Indiana, April 14, '97.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:

The remains of the late U. S. senator, Daniel W. Voorhees, lay in state here yesterday afternoon in the rotunda of the state capital, and were viewed by fully 15,000 citizens.

The act of the legislature placing the street car fare of this city at 3 cents instead of 5, went into effect yesterday. It will be contested by the companies, who have General Harrison employed for one of their counsel.

The State Tax Board has directed that the paid-up life insurance policies and those having a cash surrender value are to be taxed, as the governor says, at some value. There are policies in the state of this class representing $115,000,000, and some individuals have as much as $100,000 insurance.

The weather here the past week has been cool, with rain or snow most of the time.

There is comparatively no spring plowing done, where, at this time last year, corn was planted. Farmers also complain of the outlook for a wheat crop this year. C. L. GILBERT.

DIED.

In this city, Monday morning April 19th, at 1 o'clock, J. M. Walton, aged about 50 years. The cause of death was chronic bronchitis.
