THE STORES CAPTURED

The Greek Forces Make a Rich Haul.

CUBANS SPURN SPAIN'S OFFERS

Gomez Says: "The Only Exchange for Peace, Is Liberty and Independence. These or Nothing."

ATHENS, April 23, 9 a. m.—After the bombardment of Katrina, on the Gulf of Salonica, by the Greek squadron, had put to flight two battalions of Turks and the inhabitants of that place, the Greek fleet landed a detachment and found the Turks had left behind immense stores of provisions destined for the armies of Edhem Pasha. These valuable stores had been left unprotected in the belief by the Turks that a blockade of Greece by the powers would prevent the Greek fleet from attacking the Turkish towns in the Gulf of Salonica, which is near the railroad to Salonica, and which has been used as a point to land stores for the Turkish army and forward them to the front.

The capture of these stores, not to mention the loss of the stores, places a serious difficulty in the path of Edhem Pasha, and it is stated here that as soon as the Turkish commander-in-chief heard the news of the capture of Platona and Katarina he dispatched 10,000 men towards the coast of Macedonia, fearing a flank attack from the Gulf of Salonica.

The Greek fleet, in returning from the capture of Katrina bombarded the post of Litchoro.

A dispatch from Larissa says yesterday after the Greeks fortified Mayrechori, to which place they retreated after evacuating Nezeros, they reoccupied Ratzina and Hegania, which although abandoned by the Greeks, the Turks failed to occupy.

SPURNED BY THE CUBANS.

Weyler's Overtures for Peace Treated With Contempt.

NEW YORK, April 23.—A letter to the World from Havana, dated April 14, says:

General Weyler has put down his last card here and lost. His commission has reported to him that General Gomez will not receive it. The members are Senors Marcos Garcia, of Sancti Spiritus; Sportuno of Trinidad, and Fernandez, of Cienfuegos. They sought to carry to the rebel chieftain a message that if he would end the war Spain would grant the most perfect autonomy to Cuba under the safest guarantee. General Gomez sent word that they could not enter his camp; his sole exchange for peace was liberty and independence.

The World courier saw General Weyler on the deck of a steamer at Tunas last Monday night, ordering the guardia civil to clear the pier of the crowd waiting to take the road. The soldiers clubbed the people with guns, but the crowd did not move fast enough to suit the general. He swore fearful oaths, calling the people vile names, and finally sent Escibano, his chief of staff, to make the people go away. Escibano with a club laid about him knocking down several of the quietest and most influential citizens of the district. Petro Lopez, a cattle owner, shipping cattle, was knocked down a hatchway by one of Weyler's lieutenants.

Weyler went to Juncal, returning at 5 a. m. He refused to go in the cars to Sancti Spiritus, but went on horseback. As he passed along he drew soldiers from the forts. Some of the soldiers were overcome by the heat, and the dead were left along the road. Weyler crossed the road at the spot where Quinten Bandera had crossed with a large force of Cubans the day before.

Gomez, Bandera and other patriot leaders were camped near Sancti Spiritus. Their location was well known, but Weyler made no effort to attack them. Bandera then with perfect ease crossed the trocha and is now in Puerto Principe.

Signs that Spain is hard pushed are becoming more and more manifest. The troops guarding the imperial ways are being withdrawn and the garrisons of the interior towns and cities are being registered. Soldiers by hundreds are leaving for Spain by every steamer. Their places are taken by forces transferred from the country. Thus the interior is being rapidly abandoned, the ports are more strongly protected and a considerable number of troops sent back home.

All of these are moves in the desperate game Spain is now forced to play. She must have money and to raise a loan is impossible as long as the war in Cuba continues. General Weyler, therefore, is getting ready to declare the island pacified. As a proof it will be announced that there is no longer use for a large army, and consequently it is being reduced.

The rebels are active in every province. They never were more powerful.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

James Palmer, Accused of Killing Eli Risen, at La Grande.

JULIETTA, April 22.—This place was considerably stirred up this morning by the arrest of James Palmer by Constable J. R. Collins, acting under instructions from Sheriff Hunter, of Moscow. Palmer is accused of the murder of Eli Risen, June 19, three years ago, at La Grande, Or. On the morning of that day that town was awakened by three shots fired in rapid succession, when soon afterward the body of Risen was found lying on a crosswalk, shot through the back. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of murder at the hands of James Palmer, who had departed for regions unknown. The cause of the quarrel, it is supposed, was the attention paid to Palmer's wife by Risen. Palmer came here three or four months ago, gaining a living by wood-chopping and other odd jobs, and was generally considered a quiet and honest man. He is apparently about 30 years old, and took his arrest coolly. The constable and prisoner left in a buggy for Moscow.

Mrs. A. Inveen, residing at 720 Henry St., Aton, Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctored for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by the physicians, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which affected a complete cure. This is published at her request, as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

After Six Years.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., April 22.—After being shut down nearly six years, the Port Ludlow sawmill, one of the largest on the Sound, will resume operations the middle of June. The mill and accessories will furnish employment for 350 men. The starting of the mill will be brought about by the increased foreign demand for lumber.

Fine pure tea is nerve food. The other kind is nerve-killing to a slight extent, to a great extent, or to a very great extent—it depends upon the tea. Some tea is almost so badly colored as to be poisonous.

McKENNA TO BE PROMOTED.

First Vacancy Upon the Supreme Bench Will Be His.

CHICAGO, April 23.—A Times-Herald special from Washington says:

Although President McKinley has made no disclosures concerning the matter, so far as known, there is an understanding that when the first vacancy occurs upon the supreme bench, Attorney-General McKenna will be appointed to a place in the court, and Judge William Day, of Canton, will be his successor.

Judge Day was one of McKinley's first choices for the cabinet, but Mr. Day, who is responsible to the heirs of his wife's father for the management of their estate, which has for some time been in anything but a satisfactory condition, did not think he could take either this post or that of solicitor-general, which he was also urged to accept. It is well known that Mr. McKenna prefers to be upon the bench, and that now that Judge Day has succeeded in relieving himself of a large part of the responsibility concerning the property committed to his care in Canton, it is believed he will be willing to become a member of the McKinley administration.

Mr. McKenna, it has been remarked, goes to the supreme court every decision day and listens carefully to the proceedings. Among his intimate friends there is an understanding that he expects to go on the bench within a year or two in case there should be a vacancy.

Whether or not Justice Field will be willing to retire next August, when his term of service will exceed that of Chief Justice Marshall, remains to be seen. Among his colleagues on the bench there is a belief that Justice Field has no intention of retiring, and that he will die in the harness.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the Liver and Kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store. (2)

King Humbert's Escape.

ROME, April 22.—At 2:30 this afternoon, while King Humbert was on his way to the races, a man named Pietro Acciarito, an iron-worker, out of employment, attempted to stab his majesty with a dagger. The man was seized before he could carry out his purpose, and the king proceeded to the Campenelle race course, seemingly unharmed. Arriving at the race course, his majesty was greatly cheered.

Acciarito appears to be a political fanatic. He says he has no accomplices.

The Grandest Remedy.

Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant of Chillhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by the use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottle free at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug store. (2)

THE FIRST BATTLE

THE FIRST BATTLE is an interesting story of the great political struggle of 1896, its most important events and the many issues involved; a logical treatise on Bi-metalism as uttered by eminent exponents, including the part taken by Hon. W. J. Bryan in the silver agitation prior to the Democratic National Convention, and during the campaign; the best examples of his wonderful oratory, the most noteworthy incidents of his famous tour, a careful review of the political situation, a discussion of the election returns and the significance thereof, and the future possibilities of Bi-metalism as a political issue.
