WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

Forecast—Tomorrow fair and warmer. The electric power plant at Lyle is very liable to materialize.

The salmon run is extremely light, there not being sufficient caught to supply the local market.

The piledriver is at work today putting in some additional piles along the D. P. & A. N. roadway.

Those who have business with the postoffice tomorrow should remember that the office will be open from 10 to 11, instead of from 12 to 1.

The Tabernacle of Israel at the Methodist Church Tuesday afternoon and evening. Admission 15 cents for all under 14, all others 25 cents.

Last evening Miss Rintoul lost a bundle of "Pacific Echoes" between Ninth and Second streets. Anyone finding them leave with C. L. Phillips.

The weather, while cool, is not interfering with shearing in Morrow county, which is now in full blast. Wool is coming in slowly, and is in much better condition than last season.

This is one of the days you read about, warm, calm, fragrant with flowers and skies as blue as those which reflected good old Grandmother Eve's eyes in Paradise, when she was a one-day-old woman.

Two six-horse teams loaded with merchandise for Prineville, left yesterday. There is lots of freight to be moved, but it is held back to give it to the wool teams for a return load. The merchants get their freight cheaper, and the teamsters also derive a benefit from this plan.

The sale of useful and fancy articles by the ladies of the St. Paul's Guild, which took place at the residence of Mrs. J. S. Schenck yesterday afternoon, was not only a success in every way, but the social features of the affair made it one of the most delightful of afternoons.

The branch of the Wasco Warehouse at Arlington has already received 100 sacks of wool of the '97 clip, and Mr. Lord tells us the Baldwin Sheep & Land Co. have two six-horse loads on the way in to the warehouse here. It will probably be the first of the season received here.

A hobo, who attempted to steal a ride from Northport on the brakebeam of the Spokane & Northwestern train Monday night, had an unpleasant experience, says the Spokane Chronicle. Near Addy the track is covered with water for a long distance, and the water was so deep that the tramp could, with difficulty, keep up his head out of it. At times he was completely submerged, and he would probably have drowned had not some of the passengers heard his cries for help. The train was stopped, and the half-drowned hobo rescued from his perilous position. He continued his journey toward Spokane on foot.

The long expected mail from the east arrived last night and in consequence the postoffice officials have had a busy day following a busy night. One of the delayed trains passed down shortly before midnight followed at 1:20 this morning by the regular train. The O. R. & N. did some remarkably good work in getting their track in order so quickly, work that is thoroughly appreciated both by the traveling public and business men anxious to get their mail.

The Aurora, of Enterprise, says: "Should the proposed Seven Devils railroad be built and extend down Snake river to Lewiston, it will mean a great deal to Wallowa county. A good wagon road can be opened up to tap the railroad on Snake river, near the Seven Devils, a distance of less than sixty miles from Enterprise and twenty miles from the Imnaha, the famous fruit and stockraising section, thereby bringing us in touch with a good market for our products."

Judge Lowell has filed an opinion in the expense case of the Umatilla sheriff. He says: "I am of the opinion that the county court has the power and authority to consider and audit the expense accounts of the sheriff of the county, necessarily incurred in the performance of his official duties, and that in this case it erred in disallowing charges which seemed to be reasonable and necessarily incident to the proper conduct of the office of such officer. Said claim is remanded with direction to allow the same."

The river has fallen about sixteen inches since yesterday morning, but is again almost at a standstill, with the present warm weather indicating another rise. Reports from up the country show that there is plenty of snow to make a very high water, should the weather remain warm for a few weeks. At Baker City, although the floods have been unprecedented, there is a report that another warm spell would cause yet a greater flood. We do not anticipate extra high water here, though it may come up to the 50-foot mark.

Kelchner's celebrated model of the Tabernacle of Israel, which is advertised to be exhibited at the Methodist Church Tuesday night, will also be shown Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. This has been arranged for to accommodate the school children, and prices have been fixed at 15 cents for those under 14 years of age and 25 cents for all over that age. The same prices will also be made in the evening, instead of those advertised in the bills. In the afternoon a special lecture suitable for children will be given explaining the exhibit. Do not forget the prices, both afternoon and evening being the same—15 and 25 cents.

Judd Fish has a fine specimen of purple eye-ris, it being his left optic. Just how he got it is a profound mystery, that will probably, like the fate of Charley Ross, remain forever undetermined. One statement was to the effect that he was rolling cocked hat in the new bowling alley and the pins flew out and struck him. Another is that he was holding a candle while another man caught some chickens (the chickens were Judd's) and that the candle going out, in moving around a chicken blew in his eye. Still another is to the effect that the other fellow was carried home in a coal oil can, which will also serve him for a coffin, and still there are others. Judd doesn't say anything about it, only remarking in reply to our sympathetic inquiries that he had "fully expressed his opinion on the subject when he got it."

The Iowa legislature has the blue-law craze. A few days ago a bill was passed making it a criminal offense to exhibit kinetoscope or other representations of prizefights, bullfights, etc., and to establish penalties for giving the exhibitions, renting halls for them, or even attending them, for the latter offense the penalty to be a fine of $5 to $25; also, providing severe penalties for playing baseball or football on Sunday. Two sections of the bill were dropped, one providing fines and jail sentences for cursing and swearing at another person in public; the other, fixing a penalty for marriage of cousins. Cursing and swearing can therefore be indulged in, and cousins can marry, if they choose. Motions for reconsideration of the baseball and kinetoscope sections were filed, and a lively contest is expected when there is a full attendance of the senate.

They Print the News.

"Citizen" in the Dufur Dispatch says there is a rumor afloat that the county court has allowed $3 per day for a special deputy to collect the taxes, and that said deputy is to be allowed his expenses, amounting to $4 or $5 per day besides. He also intimates that The Dalles papers omitted to print this bit of news at the request of parties interested. Citizen is mistaken in all his propositions. The county court has not appointed any deputy sheriffs, therefore, has not allowed them $3 and expenses, or any other sum per day. It also follows that the bit of news could not have been omitted by The Dalles papers at anyone's request. Nothing was printed because there was nothing to print. In conclusion we might add that The Dalles papers print all the news, and some things in these dull days that simply have to do duty as such.

Sermon and Lecture.

The Rev. Wilbur Harwood, D. D., presiding elder of the Puget Sound conference, colored M. E. church, arrived in the city this morning, and will occupy the pulpit of the Christian church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. In the evening he will deliver a lecture entitled, "A Missionary Voyage Around the Globe, or America the Cynosure of the Christian World." This lecture promises to be a treat, as the reverend gentleman has traveled extensively in Europe, Asia, Africa and the Oceanic islands. He is a native of Ceylon India,

Garden Hose

We are agents for the celebrated MALTESE CROSS. Every body knows that it is the best Hose on the market today.

We also carry the Ridge-wood brand of Hose, which we recommend as a superior article second only to our Maltese Cross brand in quality. It is made on extra strong duck, and of the best rubber. Then we carry the Wallabout brand which is a good quality and medium price, equal or better than the average so-called "best Hose on the market." We sell it for what it really is—a good, serviceable Hose. See our stock before buying elsewhere.

and was educated at King's college, London. He is now on his way to Transvaal republic, Africa. The lecture begins at 7:30, and everybody is invited.

High Water at Sumpter.

A number of Sumpter Valley residents say that Sumpter valley is covered with water and all the bridges on Powder river are in a dangerous condition. In their opinion Powder river has not reached the highest mark and when warm weather again comes there will be more water than ever. At the old Britten station the snow is a foot deep on the level and from that point to the high mountains the snow has not commenced to melt. Through the Democrat they warn the people of Baker City of impending danger.

Wasco Tribe No. 16, I. O. R. M.

The chiefs, braves and warriors of Wasco Tribe, No. 16, I. O. R. M., are requested to trail toward their wigwam (K. of P. hall) on tomorrow—Sunday—at the 2d run of that sun, for the purposes connected with the adoption of pale faces into the tribe. By order of A. AD. KELLER, Capt. D. T.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. J. A. Henderson came up from White Salmon last night, returning this morning.

Attorney W. H. Holmes of Salem, is in the city looking after some legal matters.

Joe Howard arrived in the city last night from Prineville. He drove down 150 head of beef cattle, which were last night at Eight-Mile. He came in very slowly, as the grass along the road was good, and the cattle arrived in fine shape.
