LARISSA EVACUATED

Greek Forces Give Way Before the Turks.

OSMAN PASHA'S PLAN OF CAMPAIGN

Will Recall the Turkish Army in Epirus and Join It With the Army of Thessaly.

ATHENS, April 24, 6:30 p. m.—Larissa has been completely evacuated by the Greeks, who spiked their guns and carried away all the movable cannon and munitions of war.

ATHENS, April 24, 7 p. m.—All telegraphic communication with Larissa is interrupted, but it is understood that the retreat of the Greek army was conducted with the best of order. The excitement and disquiet at Athens because of the sudden abandonment of Larissa continues, but the tranquility of the city is unbroken.

The foreign warships have been signaled off Phalerum.

ATHENS, April 24, midnight—A special dispatch received from the frontier asserts that the Turks, while attacking Mati, were repulsed several times yesterday. At 6 o'clock in the evening, the Greek forces were obliged to give way. The Greeks retreated in good order on Karacies, where they are entrenched.

ATHENS, April 25, 2:30 a. m.—The wounded remain at Larissa under protection of the Red Cross flag.

3 a. m.—The Saturday evening papers counseled the people of Athens to receive the bad news with patience and sang froid, considering that the army fought courageously in defense of the national honor, paying the price by heavy sacrifices.

A Semi-Official Announcement.

ATHENS, April 23.—The following semi-official announcement was made this afternoon:

"In a fierce engagement at Mati yesterday the troops fought heroically until 6 o'clock in the evening, and compelled the Turks to retreat, whereupon the Turks were heavily reinforced, and our positions were shaken and a retreat ordered. It is not yet known if the retreat was general."

A second dispatch from the headquarters of the staff says:

"Our troops are concentrated along the line of Pharsalos, and in consequence of these operations the abandonment of Tyrnavos and Larissa is considered inevitable.

The News From Other Sources.

LONDON, April 24.—Dispatches from Athens this afternoon say after a desperate battle at Mati, in which the Greeks were outnumbered, they retreated with heavy loss, abandoned Tyrnavos and Larissa, and removed their headquarters to Pharsalos, a small town on the right bank of the Pharsalitis, and at the north foot of the spur of the Chassidiari mountains.

PARIS, April 24.—A dispatch from Athens confirms the report that the Greeks have abandoned Tyrnavos and Larissa and concentrated on the second line of defense, at Pharsalos. The news caused the greatest agitation in political circles, and diplomats are freely discussing the question as to whether the time has not arrived for the powers to take immediate steps to arrest the further advance of the Turks in the Greek peninsula.

In Sight of Larissa.

VOLO, April 24.—The Turkish advance forces are reported to be in sight of Larissa.

Edhem Pasha's Report.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 24.—Edhem Pasha telegraphed that Thursday the Korkein division of the Turkish army pursued the enemy and captured a quantity of ammunition, provisions and rifles. The dispatch adds a portion of the fifth division occupying Diskata firmly maintained its position, inflicted considerable loss on the enemy and captured two prisoners.

OSMAN PASHA'S CAMPAIGN.

He Will Abandon Epirus and Strengthen His Invading Army.

PARIS, April 24.—It is stated in a dispatch from Constantinople this evening, that Osman Pasha's plan of campaign is to recall all the Turkish forces in Epirus, leaving only a strong garrison at Janina, and to abandon the province. The Turkish army in Epirus will be thus able to effect a junction with the army in Thessaly by marching northward around the mountains dividing the two provinces. Osman Pasha would have the whole Turkish force at his disposal, and would be able to deal a decisive blow.

Mrs. A. Inveen, residing at 720 Henry St., Alton, Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctored for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by the physicians, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which affected a complete cure. This is published at her request, as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

BULGARIA DEFIES TURKEY.

Refuses to Break off Diplomatic Relations With Greece.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 24.—As previously announced in these dispatches, the Turkish government some days ago called upon Bulgaria as a vassal of Turkey to break off all diplomatic relations with Greece and expel the Greek consuls and Greeks from Bulgarian territory.

The Bulgarian government took the matter under consideration, and it is now announced has declined to comply, declaring she will observe neutrality during the war between Turkey and Greece. This refusal of Bulgaria to acknowledge her vassalage to Turkey is regarded as a very important departure, and as foreshadowing a declaration of independence by Bulgaria.

Bulgaria Insurgents in Macedonia.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, April 24.—An insurgent band has entered Macedonia under a leader who was recently placed under surveillance. Other insurgent bands have gone north with the intention of crossing the frontier, working round, and meeting the first insurgent band in Macedonia.

Insurrection in Albania.

LONDON, April 24.—According to dispatches today an insurrection has broken out in Albania. Turkish troops are said to be participating in the revolt.

We would like to look into the pleasant face of some one who has never had any derangement of the digestive organs. We see the drawn and unhappy faces of dyspeptics in every walk of life. It is our national disease, and nearly all complaints spring from this source. Remove the stomach difficulty and the work is done.

Dyspeptics and pale, thin people are literally starving, because they don't digest their food. Consumption never develops in people of robust and normal digestion. Correct the and loss of flesh and we cure the disease. Do this with food.

The Shaker Digestive cordial contains already digested food and is a digester of food at the same time. Its effects are felt at once. Get a pamphlet of your druggist and learn about it.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

MONEY IN THE ASHES.

Discarded Tin Cans Resealed and Turned into Cash.

On every dumping ground where the city contractors of Brooklyn place their ashes one may see constantly Italians working hard leveling the heaps, as lead after lead is deposited, and carefully placing the tomato cans and other cast-off pieces of tinware in piles by themselves. The contractors do not object if the householders put old cans among the ashes, for this insures a careful leveling by the Italians at the dumping grounds at no expense to the contractors.

The revenue from these cans that are collected by the hundreds of thousands is a matter of surprise to most persons. A two-horse load brings from $6 to $8. It takes several days of hard work to get a big wagon load, but the Italians don't seem to mind the labor of it, for there is money immediately in sight as the piles of tin cans grow. They watch jealously their picking grounds, and sometimes make special arrangements with the contractors for the privilege of scraping and raking the ash heaps over.

The tin cans are sold to men with furnaces, who place them in a big caldron and under a slow fire melt the tin and solder and run that part off for future use and sale. Almost all the tin and solder is saved by this process, and is salable for use in making more cans for preserving vegetables.

The heat is then made intense and the iron that remains is melted and cast into sash weights. The demand for these old cans is said to be greater than the supply, and one of the most valuable of the scavenger privileges that the Italians in large cities assume is that of working over an ash dump.—N. Y. Sun.

Two years ago R. J. Warren, a druggist at Pleasant Brook, N. Y., bought a small supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sums up the result as follows: "At that time the goods were unknown in this section; to-day Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a household word." It is the same in hundreds of communities. Where ever the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy become known the people will have nothing else. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

THE FIRST BATTLE

THE FIRST BATTLE is an interesting story of the great political struggle of 1896, its most important events and the many issues involved; a logical treatise on Bi-metalism as uttered by eminent exponents, including the part taken by Hon. W. J. Bryan in the silver agitation prior to the Democratic National Convention, and during the campaign; the best examples of his wonderful oratory, the most noteworthy incidents of his famous tour, a careful review of the political situation, a discussion of the election returns and the significance thereof, and the future possibilities of Bi-metalism as a political issue.
