THE PUSH PUSHES.

The Corbett push is aggressive. It is in the fight to win. It has nothing to lose, everything to gain, and it is working the racket for all there is in it. It has sent J. Thorburn Ross, Wallace McCamant, Tony Noltner, and his accendency, the governor of this state, the last named gentleman being the last to go, to the front. They are attacking the proposition on the cumulative plan, and they have about reached their limit. Scott might easily represent the devil, and Lord the deep, deep blue sea.

Between the two, Corbett is liable to lose his reckoning. The governor can indorse Scott, and Scott can lend credence to anything the governor might say. By each other's kindly aid each may be able to prove an alibi. Scott can prove he was not in Salem by Lord; Lord can prove by Scott that he didn't do a thing until the legislature, which never met, adjourned. They can prove by each other that Lord's message to the legislature was delivered to the Oregonian, and in consequence that paper imagined it was the law-making power of the state. It still has that idea, but it is mistaken.

There remains Simon, and back of Simon loom up the shanky Bilyeu, the oily U'Ren, the prayerful Barclay, the infantile Jones from Sherar's Bridge. These should be called in. Edmunds and Hoar and Cullom, Allison, Vest, and the balance of the light weights of the senate who need information, should have something weightier than Scott and Lord. Our own only F. N. Jones is the man. He weighs 250 pounds, and is as reticent as the shades of Hades. By all means let Jones of Sherar's Bridge be added to the list. It may be expensive, but Corbett pays the freight.

The Reform club of New York gave a dinner at the swell hotel of New York, "The Waldorf," Saturday night, at which ex-President Cleveland responded to the toast "Present Problem." The ex-president of course declared adherence to the "single gold standard" and attributes the "discontent of the country" to the work of demagogues and "ruthless agitators." Mr. Cleveland, as usual, fails to see the real cause of discontent and simply sends up the "shrill cry" of his own environment in his effort to read the signs of the times. Mr. Cleveland's speech reads well and probably sounded patriotic to the well-fed fellows who heard it, but it will fail to reach the hearts of the people, as it contains nothing of point and good cheer to them. Mr. Cleveland spoke to the "business judgment of the country" and conveyed the impression that the people's existence depends upon the prevalence of the influence of this business judgment in affairs. When this "business judgment" is known to be of that kind that creates corners in wheat and other food stuffs, organizes trusts to rob the people, debauches legislatures to secure favorable legislation for syndicate interests and manipulates the money of the country in order that the government may be driven to sell bonds at an enormous profit to a bond syndicate, Mr. Cleveland appeals in its name to deaf ears. Mr. Cleveland means well enough, but he really does not understand the case under consideration, and is prescribing from a diagnosis that is made by the most selfish and narrow sighted interests, and that is radically wrong in the abstract, as well as ruinous in practice.

SHIPBUILDING ON THE CLYDE.

Immense Trade of the Scotch River Last Year a Record Breaker. People generally have a very faint idea of the extent of the shipbuilding industry on the river Clyde, Scotland, says the Fall River News. Some statistics have come to hand, however, which tell the story in a measure. In a recent issue of the North British Mail, of Glasgow, 70 firms are named who are constructing from one to ten large vessels from twin-screw steamers of 1,000 tons up to first-class cruisers and battle ships of 16,500-horse power. The year 1896 was a record-breaker on the Clyde, but the prospects for 1897 are equally satisfactory. The work on hand represents about 310,000 gross register tons. Compared with last year this shows an increase of 50,000 tons. The marine engineering trade is also well represented in 336,000-horse power, or 40,000 over that of the previous year. The government orders include one line of battle ship, two first-class cruisers and three second-class cruisers. The largest order given to the Clyde for a long time was that for the Nippon Yansen Kaisha, of Japan. This consisted of ten steamers of 5,824 tons register and 7,500 deadweight tons each. Four of these are already launched and six are being built—three in the yard of D. & W. Henderson and three in that of Napier, Shanks & Bell. The money value of the contract represents well on to $5,000,000.

We would like to look into the pleasant face of some one who has never had any derangement of the digestive organs. We see the drawn and unhappy faces of dyspeptics in every walk of life. It is our national disease, and nearly all complaints spring from this source. Remove the stomach difficulty and the work is done. Dyspeptics and pale, thin people are literally starving, because they don't digest their food. Consumption never develops in people of robust and normal digestion. Correct the and loss of flesh and we cure the disease. Do this with food.

The Shaker Digestive cordial contains already digested food and is a digester of food at the same time. Its effects are felt at once. Get a pamphlet of your druggist and learn about it.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
