

Close Your Eyes

To quality and the world is full of cheap things. But with your eyes wide open, the real good things are few and far between. When we buy our goods we look sharp for quality and workmanship. If they are right, we see about the price; if not, ten cents on the dollar won't tempt us to buy, for we have a reputation at stake. If you buy anything of us it's right; no matter how little you pay for it—it's right.

Daggett, the man who attempted suicide at Rufus, was brought here this morning and is under the care of Dr.
Hollister. He is doing nicely and will get well.

A trip into the East End this morning showed that usually bustling portion of the city phenomenally quiet. A few loads of wool were received, but that was all.

The New York World is responsible for the statement that the state capital at Albany is yet unfinished, but has cost more up to date than the capital building at Washington.

A letter from L. L. Hill received this morning says there is from one to five feet of snow in the country around Robinsonville, and that no prospecting can be done for a month yet.

A dispatch received from General Passenger Agent Hurlbut this afternoon states that the Redmen excursion train next Sunday will leave Portland at 8 o'clock and arrive here at noon. It will consist of ten coaches and carry about 1000 persons. The train will leave about 5 o'clock, and reach Portland about 9.

From present information it seems probable that more than a thousand visitors will be with us next Sunday.
They will most of them be Redmen, and we should see that they are also fed men.

A telegram received at Hood River announced the death of Mrs. Homer 11th. Mrs. McFarland was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Potter of Hood River. She leaves a little baby aged two weeks.

Just drop into Mays & Crowe's and see that new bicycle, "The Richmond." It is just what everybody has been waiting for, a wheel that does not jar you to death on our rough roads. It is, as compared with the ordinary bicycle, as a buggy compared with a farm wagon.

Sheriff Gray arrived from Prineville at noon today, bringing two prisoners, Walker and Mulgrave, who were sentenced at the recent term of court to the penitentiary for cattle stealing. The former goes for two years, and the latter for eighteen months.

We do not say that "delft ware is not as pretty as aluminum ware," but leave that to our customers to judge for themselves. We do say that it will wear three or four times as long, is easier kept clean, will weigh only a third as much as granite, and is the cheapest in the end. MAYS & CROWE.

The lecture by Professor Cooper, the blind phrenologist, given at the Baldwin opera house last evening, was quite well attended and very interesting. The lecturer thoroughly understands his subject, and has the happy faculty of interesting his audiences in his subjects.
The lectures are free, and those who go to hear him will find that he preents the subject of phrenology in a different light from that in which they have ever before viewed it.

A few days ago a man with so many names that anything will fit him, hired a team and hack in Rufus and proceeded at once to sell them. With the proceeds he came to The Dalles and picked up a pneumatic widow named Newsome, and with her and her progeny, took passage on the boat for Portland. His plunder was marked for Rosland. A warrant was sworn out for his arrest, and a telegram sent to Portland this morning, but the officers there have failed to locate him.

The house refused by a very decided majority to accept the senate amendment to the sundry civil bill. This amendment provided for revoking President Cleveland's forestry reserve order, and indicates that the reserves are to be maintained. A little light from the department of the interior would now be very acceptable. Our congressmen say they think there will be no more prosecutions; but that is a rather slender reed on which to lean. If the department would say whether sheep were to be permitted on the range or not, it would be doing not only its duty, but would give evidence of good faith.

The Weekly Oregonian, containing complete coast news, as well as the general news of the country, is one of the most valuable papers the farmers can possibly receive. It gives full market reports, and is filled with matter peculiarly adapted to the wants of the farmers of this section. We have made a special clubbing rate with it, and will furnish the twice-a-week CHRONICLE and Weekly Oregonian for the very reasonable price of $2.25 per year. You get 156 papers for $2.25.

We wish to call especial attention to the lots in The Dalles military addition advertised in this issue. They are very desirable in every respect. No expense of grading, piping, and sewerage easily established with scarcely no expense.
Their location is admirable, is high enough for drainage and low enough for plenty of water pressure to take it upstairs. They will be sold at half their value, and there is no better time for one to supply himself with a cheap and desirable house.

The Moro Observer thinks high water is coming as in 1894. We cannot agree with it, though the river may crowd up toward the 50-foot stage. The reports this morning from up-river points show the Snake down nearly seven feet, but at a stand. The upper Columbia is rising, and will probably continue to do so steadily and rapidly until its greatest height is reached. The weather on the upper Columbia and around the head of the Snake is unusually warm, and the Columbia here will begin to feel the effects of it tomorrow. The rise should be four feet by Sunday night.
