For genuine grit and determination a woman can double-discount a man every time, especially if it is in matters matrimonial that these traits of character are called into use. Recently at Atchison a woman was married to her second husband. She asserts that while the ceremony was being performed the ghost of her first husband stood at her side and shook his fist at her so vigorously that she was surprised that others in the room did not hear his bones rattle. And yet, in the presence of this ghastly visitor from the grave, she retained her grip on her husband-to-be's hand and promised to love and comfort him. It was a heroic act. A man, under like circumstances, would have fled shrieking from the second-handed spirit armed with a ghostly broom and a sardonic grin on her lower maxilla. He would have abandoned all ideas of making a second venture. The woman was braver, and as she probably didn't care a cent for the old man while he was still in the flesh, his bony framework had no terrors for her. Indeed, there are some women whose cup of happiness would be filled to overflowing, and who would be only too happy to have the first husband present in his bones at her second wedding.

Recently at Tacoma and San Francisco 315 Chinese were refused landing, they claiming they were on their way to Nashville, Tennessee, where they would open a theater. There was no other excuse for their being landed, and the officials very properly refused them. Now the dispatches state that "at the urgent request of the superintendent of the exposition" the secretary has consented to their being landed, but emphatically states that "no more will be permitted to land on this account." It strikes us the secretary has far exceeded his authority, and has himself violated the law just as much as the gang who were engaged in importing them from Victoria. The urgent request of the superintendent of the Nashville exposition is hardly sufficient to outweigh the act of congress. If it is sufficient, why should not the urgent request of the railroad magnates who want cheap labor, or anyone else, be also sufficient?

The southern Democrats who are now favoring protection must have been reading the remarks of John C. Calhoun on the tariff of 1816, when he said: "When our manufactures are grown to a certain perfection, as they will be under the fostering care of the government, the farmer will find a ready market for his surplus products, and a certain and cheap supply for all his wants; prosperity will diffuse itself through all the country." Calhoun only abandoned this theory when he found that manufacturing industries were not being established in the South, to thus benefit the farmers of that section. Now that manufactures are springing up in the South, the theory of protecting them and thus aiding the agriculturist is again taking possession of the southern mind—Astorian.

A perusal of Tony Noltner's paper, the Dispatch, shows that he is still dumb on the subject of his visit to Washington. One reason of this, perhaps, is that he is drumming for another class of goods. The last heard of Tony he was perambulating Eastern Oregon seeing how many legislators could be depended on to vote against Mitchell, or at least this is the occupation Madame Rumor gives him. It is further stated that if enough votes can be pulled away from Mitchell to make his defeat certain, a special session of the legislature will be called. It is unfortunate that this matter should also be confined to Tony's hat, which is already the receptacle of that other secret, Corbett's chances in Washington. Unbosom yourself, Tony, and tell us all you know.

The sugar trust is in evidence at Washington, with plenty of money to maintain a lively and energetic lobby. The trust want the Hawaiian treaty abrogated, so that its sugar will not come in competition with their product. The circumstances also make them inimical to the annexation of the islands. It remains to be seen whether congress will look after the country's interests by assuming authority over Hawaii, or whether the interest of Havemeyer and his gang is to prevail.

New York Weekly Tribune

—FOR— Farmers and Villagers,
—FOR— Fathers and Mothers,
—FOR— Sons and Daughters,
—FOR— All the Family.

With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.

We furnish "The Chronicle" and N. Y. Weekly Tribune one year for only $1.75.

Write your name and address on a postal card, send it to Geo. W. Best, Tribune Office, New York City, and a sample copy of The New York Weekly Tribune will be mailed to you.

L. COMINI, SOLE DEALER IN THE DALLES OF Marble Burial Vaults

A Perfect Protection from Water and Dampness. Preserves the Body by Excluding the Air.

It possesses every merit claimed for the most expensive vaults, viz: absolute security and durability, thus making a permanent and imperishable resting place for the dead.

This vault is made of six pieces of marble which can be firmly fastened together with cement, thus making them air and water tight.

All Kinds Cemetery Work

Mr. Comini has on hand a large supply of first-class Marble, to be used in Monuments, etc. Prices lower than in Portland.

This is Your Opportunity. On receipt of ten cents, cash or stamps, a generous sample will be mailed of the most popular Catarrh and Hay Fever Cure (Ely's Cream Balm) sufficient to demonstrate the great merits of the remedy. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York City.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement, "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed." Rev. Francis W. Poole, Pastor Central Pres. Church, Helena, Mont.

Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for catarrh and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.
