The truth is the senate tacked an amendment on the civil sundry appropriation bill and passed it, but the house refused to concur in the amendment by a decisive majority, and so it failed to pass. The senate amendment was as follows:

That to remove any doubt which may exist pertaining to the authority thereto, the president of the United States is hereby authorized and empowered to revoke, modify or suspend any and all such executive orders and proclamations designating forest reserves, or any part thereof, from time to time, as he shall deem, best for the public interest; provided, that the lands embraced in such reservations not otherwise disposed of shall, until the surveys of such reservations are completed, be subjected to such orders as the president may make in reference to the same, so as not to disturb the rights of any actual settler or claimant now residing upon any of the lands embraced in such reservation.

The Wound Proved Fatal.

The death of Mrs. Pearl Rith, the unfortunate young woman who, in a fit of melancholy, sent a bullet crashing through her breast, at her home in Baker City Saturday afternoon, occurred Monday at 4 o'clock a. m. By the death-bed were a sister and three brothers, beside a number of friends, and all that loving hands could do was administered furing the sufferer's few lingering hours.

Coroner Snow empanelled a jury, and after examining a number of witnesses, returned the following verdict:

"We, the undersigned jurors, sworn to inquire of the death of Pearl Rith, on oath do find that she came to her death by a gueshot wound, inflicted by her own hand, on May 8th, and that death resulted on May 10, 1897, at 4 o'clock a.

It is stated that the cause of the deed was separation of Mrs Rith and her husband, the latter being now in California -La Grande Chronicle.
