Two carloads of hogs were shipped from the Saltmarsh yards to Troutdale this morning.

The case of Davis against Riddell on appeal from the justice court, is on trial in the circuit court this morning.

Charles Knapp was arrested at Hood River yesterday, but so far no indictment has been found against him.

The O. R. & N. Co. have made a great reduction in rates to San Francisco, first-class fare being $8 and second-class $4.

The trial of the case of Davis against Riddell dragged along for a while this morning, but finally terminated in a non-suit.

Napoleon Davis has been elected to represent the Mystic Shriners in the Imperial Council, which meets in Detroit, Michigan, June 6th.

Venz Bauer was indicted this morning, the indictments charging him with the commission of rape upon the person of Resi Rupp, a girl under the age of 16 years.

The shirt waists advertised by Pease & Mays for their special sale, are displayed in their center window. We would advise an early call on Saturday if you expect to get one.

A grand ball will be given at the Bal-win opera house Friday evening, May 28th, (the closing of the dancing school) by Prof. F. G. Swanton. Admission 50 cents. Ladies free. m26 3c

There is one thing Portland people would like to know, and which it seems they cannot learn. This is whether or not the warship Oregon is to come to Portland to receive her set of silverware.

The salmon are not running well this spring, even the lower river failing to supply the Portland markets. With a falling and clearer water, it is thought the run will commence and that it will be a very good one.

After June 1st, on account of other matters interfering, rifle practice will be discontinued. All those who have not qualified, are requested to do so at once.
The range will be open for them from 7 to 11 o'clock Saturday and Sunday.

Dan Butler, the Indian found guilty of cruelty to animals, had, up to this morning, served out all but $4 of his fine. Tiring of the luxuries of the jail and pining for the freedom of the hills, he today paid the $4 and was discharged.

Mrs. Smith French received word of the death of Mrs. Acheah Hurd-Drew this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gene Gilman, at Heppner.

Mrs. French will leave on the 6 o'clock train for that place, to attend the funeral.

The river remained stationary from yesterday morning up to this morning, but will, according to the weather bureau, fall four or five feet within that many days, after which it will rise again.
It is not probable it will ever get back to the 42-foot mark again.

The grand jury, after examining into the matter of the theft of a pair of scales by E. Porter, sent that gentleman back to City Recorder Phelps to deal with.
Porter pleaded guilty and was fined $30, which he, having more time than money, will pay by staying in jail.

Tickets for admission to the graduating exercises of The Dalles High School will be on sale tomorrow at the Snipe-Kinersly Drug Co.'s store. They will cost just ten cents each, and are worth five times the money. It is requested that children under 12 years do not attend.

Mrs. C. H. Bell died suddenly on a farm five miles south of Salem Thursday morning. She went to bed Monday night feeling as well as usual, but about 2 o'clock in the morning woke her husband, complaining of a severe pain in the stomach. Before he was able to strike a light his wife died. She came with her husband from Minnesota to Oregon 23 years ago. She left three sons and a daughter.

Boggs, the man who skipped to Victoria with the Newsome woman, and whom Sheriff Driver swiped from under the noses of her Majesty's officers, having pleaded guilty to the charge of horse stealing, was this morning sentenced to three years in the pen. To the indictment charging him with the larceny of a buggy, his attorney, H. H. Riddell, entered a plea of "former jeopardy," which District Attorney Jayne conceded to be correct, and dismissed the indictment.

Bowling has become such a fad that the alleys are crowded all the time, and yet there are many who cannot get the opportunity to indulge in the attractive game. Messrs. Sinnott & Fish have for some time contemplated putting an alley in the Umatilla House, and it is probable this will be done very soon. The partitions will be taken out of the rooms along the ball leading back from the billiard room, and there the alleys will be placed. The location has one decided advantage, and that is it is one of the coolest places in the city.

The residents of the Sparta section, in Union county say that there are more rattlesnakes there than have been known for years. The greater number seem to be in the lower Powder locality, where a lava-capped rock formation exists. Many years ago the Sparta section was noted for its many snakes, but as the country became more thickly settled they were nearly all exterminated. This was during the placer mining days of the camp. Now that mining is not carried on so extensively the reptiles seem to be gaining lost ground.

The case of the State against Clemens was submitted to the jury yesterday evening, and after being out fourteen hours a verdict was finally reached this morning, it being of the compromise order, and defendant being found guilty of simple larceny. The charge was larceny from a dwelling, the punishment for which is imprisonment in the penitentiary, while simple larceny is dealt with by a sentence to jail. Mr. F. W.

Wilson was appointed by Judge Bradshaw to defend the prisoner, and made a splendid fight for his client, as the result shows.

There was a lively runaway about 12:30 this afternoon, the team being that of E. J. Collins & Co. What frightened the horses, we did not learn, but they came up second street like a Kansas cyclone, and sticking to the middle of the road like a gold Democrat. There was some bread and several axes in the wagon when the race began, but these were thrown out promiscuously as the wagon hit the street crossings. In front of Fred Fisher's the runaways ran into a four-horse team, knocking two of the horses down, and falling themselves.
The tongue was broken from the four-horse wagon, but that was all the damage done.

A FIGHT TO THE END.

Southern Pacific Again Cuts Its Special Train Rates.

The black flag of uncompromising hostilities has evidently been hoisted by the Southern Pacific in its rate war on the O. R. & N., summer steamship travel between Portland and San Francisco, and a third cut was announced late last evening and ordered to be put in effect June 11. It is:

First class, sleeper included $10 00

Second class, sleeper included 7 50

In order, however, to secure these fighting rates, passengers wishing to go south or come to Portland will have to pay full rate of $20 first class and $15 second class, as evidence of good faith that they are going through to destination. Each ticket will be provided with a rebate coupon; and at the end of his or her journey, the traveler will get a rebate of $10 on a first-class ticket, and $7.50 on a second-class ticket. This the Southern Pacific is compelled to do in order to protect its intermediate passenger business, the local rates of which will not be affected by the rate war at the terminal points. It appears that the interstate commerce commission has no voice in this matter, from the fact that San Francisco and Portland are railroad points affected by water competition, and where a railroad company is supposed to be at liberty to meet the rates of a water rival. In this instance, however, the cutting of rates was inaugurated by the Southern Pacific, and not by the O. R. & N.

No information could be obtained last evening showing that the O. R. & N. had met this third cut rate of the Southern Pacific, and, the information coming so late, it is fair to presume that no changes were made; but it is safe to gamble on the proposition that the O.
R. & N. people will meet the cut today, and go their friends, the enemy, one better.—Oregonian.

A Bad Wreck.

At about 4 o'clock Thursday morning at American Falls, on the Oregon Short Line, there was a bad accident, resulting in the death of one passenger and eight or nine hoboes.

The west-bound passenger that passed here this morning was on the main track waiting for freight train No. 22 to pull in. The freight was loaded with lumber, and coming down the grade into the station the brakes would not hold, and there was a runaway. The engineer of the freight gave a danger signal, and the passenger train started to back out of the way. It had attained a speed of six or seven miles an hour when the freight dashed into it, running sixty miles an hour. The passenger train was not damaged, nor any one on it hurt.
One passenger who was on the platform and saw there was going to be a collision, jumped off at the depot, and when the crash came the freight cars left the track, demolished the depot, and killed the passenger who had just got off the train.

The engineer and fireman of the freight each received broken limbs in the crash, but stayed at their posts. A gang of hoboes, eight or nine in number, were on the freight and all were killed.

The Latest Thing in LAWN MOWERS

The Pastime.

The PASTIME cuts the grass within 1-16 of an inch of a tree, fence or wall. The old style will not cut within 3/8 inches.

The PASTIME drive wheels are inside the line of cutting knives, and therefore never go over unshown grass.

Anybody can sharpen the PASTIME with a common file. If you try to sharpen the old style you ruin it. The PASTIME is cheaper at double the cost of the old style mower, for the reason that during the life of a mower, the cost of sharpening alone equals the cost of mower.

Call and see the PASTIME at the store of

MAYS & CROWE.
