THE INDIAN TROUBLES

Lame Deer Agency Indians on the Warpath.

SETTLERS MOVING THEIR FAMILIES

An Excursion Steamer Runs Aground and Catches Fire—Cool Headed Passengers Prevent a Panic.

DENVER, May 31.—A special to the Republican from Helena says:

Cheyenne Indians have gone on the warpath and are said to have killed a dozen men including five United States soldiers. The Indians have no reservation, but make the Lame Deer agency their headquarters.

A man named Hoover, a shepherd, was recently shot by Indians, because he caught several of them killing sheep. The settlers armed themselves to protect their property. Two companies of colored cavalry from Fort Custer were ordered to the agency on Wednesday. On Saturday a courier arrived from the agency with the information that George Walters, postmaster, and Lou Anderson, a stockman, had been shot and killed, and also that the Indians shot into the cavalry and killed five men, and that they had sixty armed cowboys surrounded. Cavalry from Fort Keogh and company E infantry, left Saturday for the scene.

The settlers have moved their families from near the reservation to Miles City. Ranchmen and stockmen at the Cheyenne agency demand the Indians who killed Hoover. The names of the Indians are known, and they are protected by fifty bucks.

Orders have been given the ordnance officer at Fort Keogh to have 10,000 rounds of ammunition ready for issue today. It is supposed more troops are to go to the agency.

Deputy Sheriffs Smith and Winters were ordered off the reservation by the military agent, Captain Stouch, who did not want arrests of Indian murderers made at that time lest it cause more trouble. The deputies returned to Miles City and have gone back with Sheriff Gibbs, with warrant for the arrest of Agent Stouch for interfering with officers in the discharge of their duty and warrants for the Indian murderers.

Ranchmen Are Alarmed.

HELENA, Mont., May 31.—The excitement continues at Cheyenne reservation and settlements in that vicinity. Ranchmen in the Upper Rosebud have all deserted their homes. Six companies of soldiers from Forts Keogh and Custer are en route to the agency, as is also the sheriff of Custer county, with a large number of deputies. The sheriff has a warrant for the arrest of Indian Agent Stouch, charged with interfering with officers in the discharge of their duties, and also for three Indian murderers. The sheriff will probably arrive at the reservation with his deputies tomorrow and endeavor to arrest the murderers of the shepherd. Many are of the opinion that the seriousness of the situation is exaggerated.

MORE OUTRAGES BY SPANIARDS.

An Italian Nobleman Incommunicado at Cubaos.

HAVANA, May 31.—Among the foreigners here is the nephew of a Roman cardinal and the son of an Italian general of note. He was a lieutenant on his father's staff and after his departure from Abyssinia he visited the Holy Land, went thence to Barcelona and embarked for Cuba. His name is Victor Celebrated for its great leavening strength and healthfulness. Assures the food against alum and all forms of adulteration common to the cheap brands.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO. NEW YORK.

Emmanuel Dierezza, Count of Gaudo Pollon, a native of Turin. He holds two decorations from his monarch, the Order of the Crown and State and the Order of the Holy Sepulchre.

Count Dierezza was arrested by the Spanish authorities while he was endeavoring, they say, to reach the rebel lines, and Weyler has kept him incommunicado in one of the filthiest cells of Cabanas. He is charged with having come to Cuba as a rebel from the rebel junta in Paris.

At San Antonio de los Baños six poor countrymen, after having been in town two days without food, asked permission from the military commander to go a mile outside the fort for vegetables. Permission was granted, but half an hour later the local guerilla force was sent out "to operate against the enemy." The guerillas met the six pacificos and killed them. Their bodies were brought to town and cut to pieces. In one of the streets the bodies were put on a table with this inscription:

"Cuba pig meat for sale; meat of American pigs expected soon."

The Dispensary Law.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 31.—Judge Simonton in the United States circuit court today filed a decision in the case of Vandercook county against South Carolina restraining the state from preventing the sale of liquors brought into the state. This decision if sustained on the appeal, it is claimed, will have the effect to render nugatory the state dispensary law. The decision is based on the interstate commerce law, the court holding that the right of importation comprehends the right of sale.

The Mount Lebanon Shakers have recently perfected an ingenious cure for dyspepsia. Their Digestive Cordial consists of a food already digested and a digester of foods happily combined.

The importance of this invention will be appreciated when we realize what a proportion of the community are victims of some form of stomach troubles. Thousands of pale, thin people have little inclination to eat, and what they do eat causes them pain and distress.

The Digestive Cordial of the Shakers corrects any stomach derangement at once. It makes thin people plump. Every one will be greatly interested to read the little book which has been placed in the hands of druggists for free distribution.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

Trainwrecker Will Hang.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—From remarks made by Governor Budd on the conclusion of the hearing of the appeal made on behalf of Worden yesterday, it is concluded that the man convicted of wrecking the train near Sacramento during the big railroad strike will be hanged. His attorneys asked until today to present several documents. The governor's decision will be made public this afternoon.

NARROW ESCAPE.

The Paul Koch Aground in Long Island Sound.

NEW YORK, May 31.—With fully 3000 pleasure seekers on board the three-decked excursion steambot Paul Koch drove on a shoal near Penfield light-house, in Long Island sound, last evening. The vessel struck with a shock that pitched many passengers off their feet. The galley in the cookroom was overturned and the boat had hardly come to a standstill before a fire was blazing briskly in that compartment.

The cookroom is on the port side near the wheelhouse. Directly above it is a larger room in which several games of cards had been going on before the vessel struck. The players saw the smoke curl from the deck beneath them, and one or two of the occupants of the room made a rush for the doorway. One man with presence of mind blocked their exit and pointed out the disastrous result that might follow an alarm.

The men went below and found the cooks trying to extinguish the blaze, and the captain and officers were having their attention occupied by the other trouble into which the steambot had found her way, and did not know of the more threatening danger.

Captain Lynch knew of it a few moments later, when a passenger who had his family on board, made his way into the pilot-house and told him of the fire. The blaze could not be reached from the cookroom, and the passenger urged that the crew be called to fire quarters. Captain Lynch got some of his men to work with axes and had them cut a hole through the deck overhead. The hose was then brought, the steam pumps set going and in a little while the fire was drowned out.

But there was another peril that kept them uneasy. The vessel had struck two miles from shore, and only a short distance from the lightship which marks the dangerous Penfield reef.

There was a second bump and shock and the sound of grating sand as the vessel ground her keel into the shoal and came to a standstill with bow shoved up and stern depressed and seas racing along her sides and splashing over her guards.

The tide had commenced to run flood, and shortly after 7 o'clock in the evening the engines, which had been set hard astern, succeeded in clearing the vessel of the reef. The hull was intact and the vessel was headed for this city where she arrived at 11:30.

Cincinnati Was Shaken.

CINCINNATI, May 31.—Shortly after 1 o'clock an earthquake shock was felt here. The occupants of high buildings were alarmed. At Coney Island, Chester Park, the zoological gardens and elsewhere there was consternation among the holiday crowds. A lagoon on the Kentucky side was so rough the life-saving crew went to the relief of those out in electric pleasure boats.
