HOOTED THE EMPEROR

The Berlin Public Expresses Its Opinion.

MAX PRACTH GETS AN OFFICE

Campos Advises Weyler's Recall From Cuba, and as He Is In Power, His Suggestion Will Be Heeded.

BERLIN, June 5.—Several unusual features accompanied the great spring parade on the Tempelhof grounds last Tuesday. By the rigorous police rule, barring all traffic from all streets leading to the Tempelhof, the public was practically excluded from this sight, which for many years has been a popular diversion. The orders were brutally carried out by the police, many persons being kicked and injured on the field. The number of carriages was much smaller than usual.

The emperor and empress, while going to and coming from the field, were not once cheered by the populace, which was in a very ugly mood, as the policy was attributed to the emperor's orders. Several persons in the dense crowd hooted the emperor, which was instantly answered by the police forcibly dispersing the throng and arresting a score of people.

The empress was pale and nervous, and was so affected by all this that she suffered from a violent headache, and insisted upon returning to the castle, the emperor, therefore, stopping the parade before it was half finished. In the jostle on leaving the Tempelhof the empress was again badly scared. Women of the lower classes suddenly appeared at the horse's heads, and, with a threatened gesture, one of the women threw a petition in the face of the empress. In the turmoil which ensued, her majesty lost a unique decoration, conferred upon her by Queen Victoria, and composed of the queen's enameled portrait, set with big diamonds.

The empress was present at the parade on horseback in a white riding habit of the pattern of the uniform of the queen's Pomeranian cuirassiers, and wearing a triple peak white cockade hat of the old Bayreuth dragons. Across her breast she wore the broad orange band of the Order of the Black Eagle.

The newspapers all condemn the severe police measures adopted in excluding the people from such occasions, and contrast them with the course under Emperors William I and Frederick III. Among the invited spectators at the parade were Ambassador Uhl and his family and John W. Foster, the United States seal commissioner, and Mrs. Foster.

Mr. Foster, while on his way to Russia, stopped four days in this city, and was given a reception by Mr. Uhl, which was attended by a number of diplomats formerly stationed in Washington.

Max Pracht Gets an Office.
WASHINGTON, June 5.—Max Pracht gets an office. He was reinstated as special agent of the treasury department to get around the civil service law. He was transferred and made a special agent of the general land office, and Hermann will send him to Oregon. It is not governor of Alaska, but it is something.

Campos Advises Weyler's Recall.
NEW YORK, June 5.—A special to the Journal from Madrid says. The recall of Captain-General Weyler from Cuba is almost certain, as the liberals have decided to take this stand if Senor Sagasta assumes office. Senor Celebrated for its great leavening strength and healthfulness. Assures the food against all and all forms of adulteration common to the cheap brands.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO. NEW YORK.

Pidal, president of the cortes, today advised the queen regent to reform the conservative cabinet in the direction of honestly placing reforms in Cuba to the island.

Campos has advised the queen not to form an intermediate cabinet, but to trust the government to the party which offers the best and most definite solution for Cuba, and the one most calculated to secure good relations with the United States, while being consistent with national dignity.

In addition, according to the Correspondencia de Espana, he advised the queen to recall Weyler.

Grant County Stock.

LONG CREEK, June 5.—The present indications are that this summer there will be the largest sale of cattle that has been known in Grant county for years. A prominent cattle-buyer says that the sales of Northern Grant county in the vicinity of Long Creek, will undoubtedly reach $100,000. Sheepbuyers have been over the country within the last two weeks, and will drive out a large number of sheep, the major portion of which will be taken over the trail to be delivered to Eastern Markets.

Sheep in this section have all been shorn, and the growers are now delivering their clips by freight teams, at Heppner and The Dalles warehouses.

An Important Arrest.

EL PASO, Tex., June 5.—A most important arrest was made here today. Colonel Buford, United States consul at Juarez, gave the facts to the treasury department officers that led to the arrest of D. G. Tipton, an El Paso gambler, who had in his pockets a perfect imitation of a United States rubber stamp for stamping Chinese certificates. He also had a blank certificate, a perfect forgery of the genuine one. It is claimed that Chinese have been smuggled in here for years.

A New Coal Deal.

NEW YORK, June 5.—For the last few days rumors have been current in Wall street that a new coal deal will soon be made. These rumors have it that J. Pierpont Morgan, while abroad, made arrangements to take up the option now held him on 75,000 shares on Lehigh Valley stock. These shares, it is said, came into Mr. Morgan's possession at the time he helped the Lehigh out of its difficulty.

SUGAR SCHEDULE NEXT.

Tariff Debaters Get Through the Wood Sections.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—When the senate laid aside the tariff bill tonight, it had reached the sugar schedule, which has been the subject of so much interest and conflict.

During the day, many of the paragraphs of the wood schedule had been agreed to, but that restoring white pine lumber to the dutiable list at $2 per 1000 provided the greatest stumbling block encountered since the debate began. It led to an extended debate, during which a wide divergence of views was developed on the Democratic side of the chamber.

Bacon gave his support to the committee rates, saying it was essential to the lumber industry of the South. He also spoke of a revenue tariff so adjusted as to give equal benefits to all industries. Bacon and Vest clashed several times on tariff doctrines, Vest expressing his regret that a Democrat chairman would aid in restoring to the dutiable list one of the three products—lumber, salt and wool—which the Wilson bill put on the free list.

Clay also spoke at length on the tariff bill, criticizing the sugar schedule and other features of the bill.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

Powder for Saluting Purposes.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Bids have been opened at the war department for supplying about 200,000 pounds of gunpowder for saluting purposes, for state, coast, field and siege artillery, with the following result: Bernard Pyton, of California, for powder delivered at Benicia arsenal, 9 cents per pound; Laffin & Randall, delivered at Benicia, Cal., 9.9 cents per pound; at Rock Island and Dover, N. J., 8 8-15; Dupont Nemours & Co., delivered at Benicia, 10 3/4 cents per pound; at Rock Island and Dover, 8.85.

The Westfield (Ind.) News prints the following in regard to an old resident of that place: "Frank McAvoy, for many years in the employ of the L. N. A. & C. Ry. here, says: 'I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for ten years or longer—am never without it in my family. I take pleasure in recommending it.' It is a specific for all bowel disorders. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Death of Mrs. B. F. Devienne.

LA GRANDE, Or., June 5.—Mrs. B. F. Devienne died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. P. Nash, in La Grande, last night of tuberculosis, with which she suffered many months. Mrs. Devienne came here last fall from her Eastern home, in the hope that the change of climate would prove beneficial.

The remains, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Nash, will be taken to Moberly, Mo., for interment.

Piano Fell on Miss Beal.

FOREST GROVE, Or., June 5.—Yesterday afternoon, Miss Ora Beal, of this place, and her mother, were moving their piano from one part of the room to another when the instrument was upset and the daughter buried beneath it. She is seriously injured, as the piano weighs 700 pounds.

Men Are Not Willing to Run.

CHENEY, Wash., June 5.—The approaching school election, June 12, makes known a peculiar situation here. The probabilities are that a majority of the board and the clerk here will be women. It is doubtful if any man can be found willing to run for director.

Lienholders Organized.

PACIFIC, Wash., June 5.—A number of settlers on lien lands met here today, and organized a secret club, the purpose of which is to fight the Northern Pacific Railroad Company to secure title to the lien lands.
