ACROSS THE SEA.

The Deserted Wife Won the Race by Four Hours.

A race across 2,000 miles of water for a wife was recently ended at Ellis' Island. The race was between Mrs. Franz Molineaux, a deserted wife, and a young girl, Bertha Neibling, the husband's sweetheart.

The wife won the race by four hours and, incidentally, the erring husband.

Molineaux had been wealthy in Berlin. He had married the daughter of a rich grain merchant. When he failed in business he quarreled with his wife, for she made some remark about his poverty which angered him. He left her, saying that he would go to America and begin life over again. They were proud and she permitted him to go alone, although in her heart she loved

The man came over here and by hard work established himself and was in receipt of a good salary. He thought sometimes of the woman over in Berlin. She was living with her wealthy father, who was very fond of her. In a spirit of pique the husband sent across the sea for another woman to share the home he had made here at 1860 Lexington

Mrs. Molineaux heard of the other weman and embarked in all haste on the steamer Lahn, bound for New York.

The other one, Bertha Neibling, was a steerage passenger on the Venetia from Hamburg. The Venetia sailed first, yet the fast steamer Lahn beat her into port by four hours, with Mrs. Molineaux in the first cabin.

Molineaux was taken there and the commissioner of immigration asked some very searching questions. Then he dismissed him to another room and talked to Mrs. Molmeaux. Neither husband nor wife knew of the presence of the other on the island.

They were brought into the same room. The wife at the sight of her husband threw her arms around his neck and fainted.

She recovered opportunely and told him how cruelly she had misunderstood him and that she would willingly share poverty and a crust of bread with

No man could resist talk like that. Molineaux kissed her on the forehead and vowed he would be true to her to the end of time. So they went to 1860 Lexington avenue together, where they will dwell.

The other woman? The story is practically finished as far as she is concerned. The immigration authorities came to the conclusion that as she had no friends here now and was likely to become a public charge the best thing they could do would be to send her back to Germany.-Chicago Record.
