TERMS OF ADMISSION

Conditions Under Which Hawaii May Be Annexed.

GOVERNMENT IS PROVIDED FOR

Local Legislature Will Make Laws Which Then Must Be Approved by the President.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The Hawaiian commissioners, with secretary Sherman and Assistant Secretaries Day and Craddock, assembled in conference at the state department at 9 o'clock this morning and began a careful comparison of the text of the Hawaiian treaty. The treaty was signed at 9:20 by Secretary Sherman, for the United States, and Messrs. Hatch, Thurston and Kinney, for Hawaii. The document will be submitted to the senate today.

The treaty provides that the government of the islands cede to the United States absolutely and forever all rights of sovereignty in and over the Hawaiian islands and its dependencies, and that these islands shall become an integral part of the territory of the United States. The government of Hawaii also cedes to the United States all public lands, public buildings and public property of every description.

Congress shall enact special laws to govern the disposition of the lands of the Hawaiian islands. All revenue from all these lands shall be used solely for the benefit of the inhabitants of the Hawaiian islands, for educational and other public purposes. The Hawaiian islands shall be admitted into the Union as a territory of the United States, its local laws to be passed by the local legislature, but subject to the approval of the president. Until congress shall apply the laws of the United States to the islands the present laws of Hawaii are to govern the islands.

The present treaties and laws governing Hawaiian commercial relations with foreign nations shall remain in force until congress shall take action.

Further immigration of Chinese laborers is prohibited pending congressional action. The entry of Chinese from Hawaii into the United States is likewise prohibited. The United States assumes the public debt of Hawaii, but with the stipulation that this liability shall not exceed $4,000,000. The treaty, before it becomes effective, shall be ratified by proper authorities of the United States and Hawaii. No mention is made of any gratuity to Liliuokalani or Kaimali.

The Japanese government has filed a protest against the Hawaiian treaty on the ground that it promises to lead to a breach of treaty stipulations between Japan and Hawaii.

AS ARRANGED BY THE COMMITTEE

Senate Agrees to Rates on Agricultural Products.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The senate today agreed to the rates on agricultural products as fixed by the Republican members of the finance committee. The rates on fish were adopted.

The senate also agreed to the committee rates as follows: Figs, plums, prunes, pruned, 2 cents per pound; raisins and other dried grapes, 2½ cents; dates, ½ cent; Zante and other currants, 2 cents; olives, 25 cents per gallon; olives in casks, 15 cents per gallon. Assistant Secretary Pruden arrived at the capitol at 3:30 with the Hawaiian annexation treaty, but after consulting with Allison, retired without presenting it, with the understanding that the senate would be prepared to receive the

THE QUEEN IS ALMOST BLIND.

Regency Under the Prince of Wales May Soon Be Established.

LONDON, June 16.—The whole aspect of the coming jubilee has been suddenly changed by painful information which comes from a source making it impossible to doubt its accuracy. It is announced on the authority of one of the royal physicians attendant upon her majesty that "the queen is almost totally blind."

This is the true reason why she will not ride alone in the procession, and why she will not leave the carriage at the service at St. Paul's cathedral Tuesday. It is semi-officially announced that she will be unable to respond to the greetings extended along the line of the royal procession.

This explains the recent revival of gossip of a regency under the Prince of Wales in the near future.

Fiendish Negro Captured.

LOS ANGELES, June 16.—Sheriff Burr, with a posse of deputies and two bloodhounds, pursued and captured Cy Thompson, a negro charged with attempting to abduct Addie Brown, 15 year-old, who lives with her parents near Azusa, in the San Gabriel valley.

The crime was committed at midnight. The girl was awakened to find herself in the arms of a strange man, who was in the act of carrying her out of her room through a window. Realizing her peril, she screamed and seized the window sash, holding on with such tenacity that the man let go and fled.

Bitten by a Rattlesnake.

REDDING, Cal., June 19.—The 3-year-old child of Mrs. J. H. Porter, living six miles east of Redding, was struck by a rattlesnake and may die. The little one was playing in the yard with its mother not six feet away when the reptile appeared. Mrs. Porter, alarmed by the whirr of its rattle, screamed and leaped toward the baby. The cry and her quick movement angered the snake, which had coiled around the baby's leg, and it struck at the child, fastening its fangs in the little one's arm. The child is in a precarious condition.

Japan Not Looking for War.

PARIS, June 16.—The Matin publishes an interview with Count Ito, of Japan, who is now in this city, on his way to attend Queen Victoria's jubilee, in which he says Japan never had any idea of entering into conflict with the United States as the outcome of the troubles between Japan and Hawaii, which, he added, have been greatly exaggerated.

Japan to Subsidize Sealers.

VICTORIA, June 16.—A. R. Milne, collector of customs, is in receipt of a letter from Hakodate, in which it is stated that the Japanese diet has passed a bill to subsidize sealers. This is expected to cause the transfer of many British sealers to the Japanese flag.

Dr. Edwards' Funeral.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The Herald says the gay commencement of the Princeton university was interrupted by the funeral services of Dr. George F. Edwards, who was considered the most popular graduate of the university since he obtained his diploma in 1880.

SUBMIT A SCHEME TO TURKEY.

Plan for Delimitation of the Frontier.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 15.—Delayed in transmission.—Ambassadors of the powers submitted to the Turkish government yesterday a scheme for delimitation of the frontiers of Greece and Turkey as drawn up by the military attaches of the different embassies. It gives Turkey the mountain crests on the frontiers of Thessaly, but the Turks are not allowed to retain any of the villages of Thessaly.

Tewfik Pasha, minister for foreign affairs, said he would submit the plan to the sultan.

Turks Preparing to Fight.

LAMIA, Thessaly, June 16.—Turkish troops are posting guns on Othrys heights, concealing them beneath the branches of trees. They have also placed artillery in the burned convent of Anazellita and Turkish scouts have been seen during the night time on neutral ground between the two armies. This activity upon the part of the Turks created much distrust among the Greeks.

Butler Was Convicted.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., June 16.—The trial of Frank Butler, charged with murder of Captain Lee Weller, while the two were on a gold-prospecting trip, was concluded today, the jury rendering the verdict of guilty.

JOYS OF TROUT FISHING.

Brief But Graphic Pen Picture of a Day with Rod and Line.

Silent as an otter, the man moves into the water till it curls about his knees, says a writer in Outing. An arm swings back and forth, and an insect buzzes softly upon the surface of the pool some yards away. Quickly the arm sweeps again, and again an insect kisses the surface of the water. A flash of a silver crescent, a splash in the water, a sudden, stronger swirl in the writhing current; then a sharp, metallic discord rings out against the song of the birds. The man's eyes blaze with a swift, eager light, his cheek flushes lightly; there is then exultation in every line of his face. His right hand clinches upon the wand, the rasping discord ceases, the wand arches to a semi-circle and quivers with perilous strain, while two keen eyes rivet upon a shifting, swirling commotion that maddens the water here, there, back, forth, unceasingly. A ball of snowy spume upon the surface, a spatter of jeweled drops, a tinted shape curving in air an instant, an apprehensive "Ah!" from the man's parted lips, and again the little wand curves and strains. So is fought the good fight, till skill conquers. Within the fatal net gleams a shining belly and pearl-bordered fins above a streak of olive gemed with ruby spangles. The man's face glows with pride as he carefully bears his captive to the shore. Upon a fragrant bier of freshest green within the creel a dead king lies in state. All day the silent man creeps hither and thither along the stream casting, fighting, waiting, noting many things, until darkness falls; then homeward through the scented shadows, with a whisper of falling song from darkened copses. The man's feet are tired with a healthy weariness; the creel strap cuts deep into his shoulder, but his heart is light and his soul at peace. Not one evil idea has entered his mind all day and he has learned much. That is trout fishing—and do you people with money and leisure bear in mind the fact that if you spare the rod you may spoil yourself.

MUST TELL THEIR AGES.

A Law That Is Not Likely to Prove Popular with Most Women.

According to a recent decree of the Austrian courts of law, concealment of age on the part of the bride is sufficient to invalidate the marriage. An Austrian baron has succeeded in obtaining an annulment of his union in consequence of his wife's having pretended at the time of its celebration that she was fifteen years younger than her real age.

Hitherto concealment of age by women has always been considered a to a certain extent defensible and customary, and no one has ever dreamed of regarding these departures from the strict truth in the light of a legal fraud. It is, however, well known to remember the old adage according to which a woman is as old as she looks says the New York Tribune, and if she passes in appearance it is useless for her to claim a fictitious youthful age.

There is an attractiveness attaching to each period of life, and the veteran is often in her way quite as charming as the debutante.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.
