PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. C. M. Cartwright of Hay Creek is in the city. Mr. Thomas Balfour of Lyle came up on the Dalles City last evening.

AN AUTUMN REVERIE.

The Happy Bride was Entranced by Nature and So Was John. It was in the month of October and they had been married four weeks.

Day after day the autumn sun had been painting the trees in wondrous shades of tints, and now the mountains were great banks of rich maroon.

This afternoon she sat with him on the long, low piazza and gazed dreamily on the lovely picture spread before.

At first she talked to him sitting there so comfortable in his great rustic chair, but her voice grew softer and softer until it died away in whispers and she was still.

The mystic, restful touch of the sweet October days was upon her, and it was blissful peace to sit idly in the sun and look upon the beauties of the scene—silent she, as it was.

The old life of her girlhood had gone and she stood upon the threshold of this new life—this wondrous hall of womanhood, extending far, far before her, as were the valleys spread below the mountainside.

There was upon her soul the ineffable calm of autumn time, and the magic of the afternoon fascinated her. And it was not for her alone, but him; this man who now was part and parcel of her life.

He, too, she felt, must feel the rapturous thrill, the weird and witching spirit of the hour.

"John," she whispered, softly, as the hum of bee that knocks at the door of every honeyed flower.

But John did not respond. Ah, he too, is clothed in this charm, she thought.

"John," she said, again, this time with eager tone, as if to call him from his reverie and share with her the rhapsody that moved her very soul.

But to her ears no answer came to lay its soft response upon her heart. John was sound asleep.

PREVENTIVE AGAINST COLDS.

German's Novel Method of Keeping the Feet Warm in Cold Weather.

Warm feet during wet weather are the best preventive against so-called "colds" and their often dangerous consequences. Rubber shoes and cork soles have been pretty generally used to avoid getting cold and wet feet, but a new and very curious means to warm the feet has recently been patented by Paul Wonneberger, of Gruna, near Dresden.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

REV. IRA CHASE, Indiana's ex-preacher-governor, was by turns school-teacher, soldier, clergyman, lieutenant-governor, governor and bank organizer under Zimri Dwiggins.

EDWARD E. HALE says that his notion of happiness is that a person who sleeps nine hours out of every twenty-four and lives in the open air two or three hours of every day will be in good health if he does not drink liquor.

The variations which time works in family names was well illustrated at the Scotch family gathering in Chicago. Various members of the clan spell their names McLean, MacLean, McLain, McClean and McLane. The chief's name is spelled Maclean.

TWO INVENTIVE THIEVES.

They Took a Bicycle from the Rider on a Bet.

The bicycle thief is inventive this year. A young man was practicing circles in front of his house when two fellows stopped on the pavement to admire him.

The smaller of the two said that was too light, and that he believed in wheels weighing at least 30 pounds. Also, he mentioned that he once came in first in a ten-mile race and rode a wheel weighing 38 pounds.

"What do you know about wheels?" "Why, I've ridden more wheels than you ever saw," replied the other.

"I don't believe you can ride at all." "I'll bet you five dollars I can. Let me show him on your wheel. I won't hurt it."

He could ride all right. He wobbled slowly on the wheel for a short distance, and then swished around the corner and was away like the wind.

"You'd better run after that fellow," said the stranger: "I don't know him." The owner of the wheel set off, but the short stranger must have been a mile away by that time. Then when the owner came back the stranger also had gone.

LAY PREACHERS.

English Lords Who Deliver Sunday Discourses.

Emperor William's taste for preaching, even where there is a duty, qualified ecclesiastical within reach, is far more common fancy than most people might be willing to imagine.

Thus in England there are at least a dozen secular members of the house of lords who, not content with preaching to their own households and tenants, actually travel about in England and on the continent preaching wherever they can find either a congregation or a pulpit at their disposal.

Several of them, such as, for instance, Lord Radstock, have incurred the wrath of foreign governments in consequence of their religious zeal.

The young Earl Beauchamp is another of these lay preachers, but he confines his ministrations to the East end of London. Then there is Lord Bennet, married to an American wife and heir to the earl of Tankerville, who has been arrested for street preaching on several occasions.

The present duke of Hamilton does a little in the preaching line, chiefly among the poorer classes of London. But none of these peers come anywhere near the late earl of Shaftesbury so far as pulpit oratory is concerned, the earl being known by the nickname of "the lay bishop."
