WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

This being a legal holiday, the banks and all public offices are closed.

Remember the auction sale of Chas. Frazier's fruit ranch on Saturday, July 17th, at 1:30 p. m., in front of Bayard's office, on Washington street.

Recorder Phelps has been very busy the last few days winding up the year's business for the city. He has just completed the work and now has the books balanced up to date.

The excursion given by the Regulator company to Portland was well patronized. The Regulator left this morning about 6 o'clock with a full cargo of celebrators, and arrived at Portland some time before 12 o'clock.

Chas. Frazier will sell his fine fruit farm in Thompson's addition on Saturday, July 17th, at public auction, as business of importance demands his attention in the East.

The potato crop will be a record-breaker in Gilliam this year, says the Fossil Journal. Contrary to the usual course of things, there was rain almost throughout the month of June, and the "spuds" have profited by the moisture.

The highest daily bowling scores for last week are as follows: Monday, C. N. Clark, 46; Tuesday, Mrs. Judd Fish, 45; Wednesday, Judge Bradshaw, 51; Thursday, Judge Bradshaw, 55; Friday, Vic Schmidt, 55; Saturday, Judge Bennett, 41.

Among those receiving appointments to federal positions we note that of C. W. Rice, formerly of The Dalles, to the office of postmaster at Lakeview, Oregon. It is seldom Dalles people get left, and we are glad to note that Mr. Rice has come to the front.

The wool clip of Yakima county has all been sold, with the exception of three clips at North Yakima and four at Mabton, says Ranch and Range. James Bigham and T. H. Smith, of Yakima, each sold last week 20,000 pounds of to C. Carmichael, for 7 cents.

The new council will be called together this evening, but owing to the fact that this is a legal holiday no business will be transacted and the mayor will make no appointments. A meeting will probably be called next Wednesday evening, when the appointments will be made.

The 4th was rather a quiet day in The Dalles. The recorder only had two D. D.'s, one being fined $5 and the other $10. A drunken sheepherder broke a window in one of the saloons, cutting his wrist, so that it was necessary to call in medical aid. At the present writing he is resting easy.

At his farm, near Weston, during a thunder shower recently, W. H. Pruett tied a calf to the fence near his barn, and started for the house. He had hardly gone fifty yards before a blinding flash came, quickly followed by a peal of thunder. The calf was found dead. There were no marks on the animal's body to indicate that it had been struck by lightning, but there is no other theory to account for its sudden taking-off.

If you are buying children's and misses low shoes, it will be of interest for you to know that A. M. Williams & Co. have put on their bargain counters an assortment in sizes from 8 1/2 to 2, at 75 cts. and $1. These same shoes in tan and black sold regularly at from $1.50 to $2.40 per pair.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. French, Mr. E. M. Williams and Miss Sampson left this city for Hood River Saturday, and yesterday morning were driven to Cloud Cap Inn. A telephone message from Mr. Williams this morning informed his friends that they were enjoying a genuine snow storm.

A man confined in the city jail last night jammed his hand through the window in his wild desire for freedom. As the doctor sewed up the gashes made by the broken glass, the prisoner's longing for the wild freedom of the hills vanished, and he expressed a desire to enjoy the home comforts of the jail instead.

The bowling alley at the Umatilla House was opened today, with a grand galaxy of the leading lights of the city present. Among those bowling the first game were, Col. Sinnott, Judge Bradshaw, M. A. Moody, I. J. Norman, Judd Fish and about a dozen others. The boys who set up the pins were daisies, but we are not going to give them away. The alleys are fine, and will, no doubt, receive an abundant patronage.

Dufur had a big time Saturday, doing everything there was to do on the occasion of the nation's birthday and having a barbecue besides. Mr. N. J. Sinnott, our talented young townman, delivered the oration, which those who heard it say was out of the usual line and was a splendid effort. There was a big crowd, and to say that everybody enjoyed themselves is simply a repetition of the statement that they spent the 4th in Dufur.

Just to show that misfortunes never come singly, the Garfield Enterprise says that M. V. Butler, who lives four or five miles east of Garfield, lost a milch cow last week. She laid down and died. In no very cheerful frame of mind, Mr. Butler harnessed one horse and hitched it to the cow to drag it away. When he tried to start, the horse could not pull it. Mr. Butler thought the horse was grunting more than it was pulling, so he picked up a stick and hit it a whack. The horse reared and fell back on the cow, dead.

Hundreds of thousands have been induced to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy by reading what it has done for others, and having tested its merits for themselves are today its warmest friends. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

AT CAMP JACKSON.

A Fine Location and a Notable Gathering.

The encampment at Hood River is over. The boys in blue and brass buttons have folded their tents and silently stole away. The white tents have vanished, and with them have disappeared the hopes and hearts of many of Hood River's fair damsels. There is nothing catches the female mind like a soldier's uniform, with a soldier inside of it. The encampment grounds were beautifully located, and the whole affair was a success from start to finish. Saturday evening Governor Lord visited the boys and reviewed them.

At Hood River town, the G. A. R. had a big 24-pounder cannon, and arranged for giving the governor a salute of twenty-one guns. The cannon was planted in the old school house grounds and when the governor arrived, Comrade Hunt of the G. A. R. touched her off. There was a flash and a reverberation that made Mt. Hood tremble. The gun was the only thing that kicked during the encampment. There was only one shot fired, because it was too expensive, that shot breaking several of the windows in the school house. At Camp Jackson, though, there were no windows to be broken, and the guns belched forth a welcome to the "Commander-in-chief," that could be heard over half of Wasco county.

The camp proved a great attraction, many visitors coming from The Dalles and Portland, while half of Hood River valley turned out to see the boys.

Our reporter was handicapped by knowing a good many of the officers, as well as by an effort he could change the greeting, "Hello Billy," to "Ah! Glad to see you General." He wasn't "up" in epaulets, and so had to aim high, realizing that to call a captain "general" was all right, but to call a major "captain," inexcusable.

The boys broke camp last night and went to Portland this morning, to take part in the big parade there today.

The encampment was a grand success, and gave the boys a taste of camp life and discipline that will be of great benefit to them, and will develop a keener interest in matters military.

The Floyd-Craig Nuptials.

Sunday evening after vespers at the Catholic church, in the presence of a few friends, Mr. W. M. Floyd and Miss Katie Craig were united in marriage by Rev. Bronegoest.

Mr. Floyd is well known by all residents of The Dalles, as he was foreman in the railroad shops for a number of years, and until they were moved. He has the same position at the shops in La Grande, where is a most prominent and influential citizen.

The bride is one of whom we all feel proud, having been brought up in The Dalles from her infancy. Possessed of a charming disposition and a most enviable character, she has hosts of friends,
