PITTSBURG GOES OUT

Coal Miners' Strike Declared in That District.

EXTENT NOT DEFINITELY KNOWN

Six Thousand River Diggers Known to Be Idle—Ohio Strikers Secure an Advance.

PITTSBURG, July 6.—A strike of coal miners is on in Pittsburg district, but reports as to its extent are so conflicting and meager, it is difficult to tell how many responded to the strike order. Most encouraging reports for the strikers came from the river mines, and it can be stated that fully 6000 river diggers are idle.

A dispatch from Wheeling, W. Va., says men at Schickanes, on the B. & O., in Ohio, are at work at an advance. The 3000 on the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railroad voted two to one against the strike, and are working as usual.

ALL CLASSES WILL SUFFER.

Miners' Strike Likely to Be Serious in Its Effects.

New York, July 6.—A World Washington dispatch says:

In speaking of the miners' strike, Secretary Sherman said that such disturbances were always serious, and threatened to become injurious to business interests. The withholding of so important a product as coal, if continued for a considerable period, he said, necessarily involves a liberal increase in price, and consequently affects all classes. He does not believe that politics enter into strikes—that any of the parties, or that either the preceding or the present administration could be held responsible for the existing disagreements between the operators and miners.

Secretary Sherman says that the solution of these problems must be found by the employers and those in their service. They must adjust their differences in their own way and to their own satisfaction. Outside suggestions and interference would be resented. For this reason he does not believe that any general plan of arbitration for the adjudication of labor troubles, as proposed by pending congressional legislation, would be acceptable to either of the parties, or could be made effective in practical application. The theory is good, he said, but the execution would be difficult, if not impossible.

Arbitration provided by law would be on the principle of leading a horse to water. The water can be provided and the animal taken to it, but he cannot be compelled to drink.

NO BOUNTY AT PRESENT.

The Beet Sugar Tariff Amendment Will Be Tabled.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The Republican senatorial caucus today decided not to again present a beet-sugar bounty amendment to the tariff bill, and Allison was authorized to move to have the amendment offered by Allen tabled. There was also a general agreement to take up the Thurston beet-sugar bounty bill as independent the first thing after congress meets next December.

The object of the caucus bore entirely upon the bounty matter. Aldrich was the first to make a general outline of the course which was ultimately agreed upon, including the postponement of the entire question until December. A motion to this effect was, however, made by Morrill, after a motion made by Davis to stand by the finance committee withdrawing the amendment, had been carried.

Foraker suggested that the entire question should be left open, leaving each Republican senator to cast his vote in such manner as he should choose, independent of party affiliations. He said the effort to lay the amendment on the table might lead to filibustering tactics, and cause more delay than would the opposite course of permitting the amendment to go to a vote on its merits.

This view was antagonized by the other senators, who said the Democrats would hold the bill up indefinitely, as long as there was a possibility of the amendment passing, and that the only way of insuring a speedy vote was for the party as a whole to support the motion to table. This opinion was so general that Foraker did not press his motion and no vote was taken.

When Allen was informed of the result of the Republican caucus, he said he would press his amendment to a vote, but that he would not filibuster to prevent its being laid upon the table. He said it was not his purpose to prevent an early vote on the bill.

Endeavor Trains Are Still Rolling Into San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—The first of a procession of forty trains bearing delegates to the great convention of Christian Endeavorers arrived this morning and at intervals of about an hour others poured their loads of human freight into the city all day long. As fast as delegates arrived upon this side of the bay they were registered by a force of nearly 200 clerks, and each individual was given a card upon which his or her name, address, denomination, church and San Francisco quarters were filled in.

The day's arrivals consist of delegations from Kansas, Maine, Connecticut, Vermont, Ohio and Nebraska.

SENATOR HANNA'S VIEWS.

Strikers Choose an Unfortunate Time to Make Their Demand.

New York, July 6.—A Herald dispatch from Washington says:

Senator Hanna, in speaking of the coal miners' strike, said:

"Owing to the existing conditions of business, no one can be expected to raise wages for the present, anywhere in any line of business, and therefore the strikers have chosen a very unfortunate time to make their demands, whether the latter be reasonable or not. With better times, greater confidence and an increased demand for the product of the mines, it ought to be possible to give laborers of all kinds a better return for their labor. That is what we mean by prosperity—an improved condition of business. When money is freer, operations are carried on upon a safe, sound and profitable basis, and the humblest laborer reaps the benefit of the good times in proportion to the value of his labor.

"The hoped-for good times are coming, I believe, before long, but they will not come suddenly, but gradually, and when business does improve, employers of labor can listen to the grievances of the employed. I do not see that they can be expected to do so before. It is to be hoped that the men will agree to submit the matter to arbitration and let their troubles rest for the present in a reasonable manner. Acts of violence prompted by thoughtless passion can never accomplish anything good.

"Of the effect of the strike on Ohio politics, I am not prepared to say anything. Business disturbances always affect the current issues one way or another, and misunderstandings frequently arise on account of them. I have no apprehension personally on account of the strike, however."

ASTOR IS INDIGNANT.

His Paper Was Slighted at the Queen's Dinner Party.

New York, July 6.—A dispatch to the World from London says:

W. W. Astor is indignant because his paper, the Pall Mall Gazette, was omitted from the invitation list for the queen's party at Windsor castle Saturday, to the members of the house of commons and their wives. The Gazette therefore boycotts the entertainment, explaining:

"We have to apologize to our readers for the absence of any account of what must have been a most interesting function; but as we did not see it, we cannot describe it."

No London evening paper was invited, and are all exercised at the slight, but the Pall Mall Gazette is the only one that makes its chagrin public.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

Deed of a Despondent Man.

LOS ANGELES, July 6.—W. B. Peterson, formerly employed in the freight department of the Santa Fe railroad, attempted to murder his 8-year-old daughter this morning and then committed suicide. Before he died he told the child of his plan, and persuaded her she would be able to see her mother, who is dead, if she took poison with him. He made her drink carbolic acid, and drank prussic acid himself.

The girl was taken to the hospital, and, although her tongue and throat were burned by the acid and she suffered great agony, her life was saved.

All the Family.

With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.
