WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

The city marshal is having a telephone placed in his office.

The weather bureau promises for tomorrow fair and cooler weather, and the chances are that the weather bureau is right.

The city recorder is doing business with the expressmen today, most of them applying for a renewal of their licenses.

A. M. Williams & Co. are offering their entire stock of muslin underwear at ridiculously low figures this week. See ad on first page.

When you can buy 50-cent garments for 25 cents; 75-cent garments for 38 cents, etc., it is time to buy. A. M. Williams & Co.'s muslin underwear sale. See ad.

Friday the thermometer registered 92, Saturday 98, and Sunday 94 at Mr. S. L. Brooks' place here. At Hood River Saturday it was 94, or four degrees cooler than here.

The Bonanza team won the rock drilling contest at the 4th of July celebration at Sumpter, making the record of 40 5-16 inches drilled in a solid granite boulder in 15 minutes.

Two Chinamen were arrested this morning for violating the fish laws. They were taken before Justice Filloon, and their examination was continued until tomorrow.

A special train passed through at 3:15 this afternoon. It carried J. J. Hill, president and general manager, of the Great Northern and General Manager Mohler of the O. R. & N.

George A. Young of Redway, who has been in Portland for a couple of weeks, returned to The Dalles last night. He has not yet sold his wool, of which he has a very choice lot.

July 13th round trip tickets to Pendleton can be purchased for the sum of $4.25. The great Democratic luminary, W. J. Bryan, speaks on the 14th, and the O. R. & N. proposes to give all its patrons who desire to do so, a chance to hear him.

We note that the good work of placing the O. R. & N. in the very best of condition is being continued by the new superintendent. At Mosier two bad curves are being taken out, and at other points wherever possible the road is being made straight.

Highest daily bowling scores at the Commercial alley last week were: Monday, H. Fredden, 45; Tuesday, Miss Myrtle Michell, 49; Wednesday, W. L. Bradshaw, 48; Thursday, Miss Ione Ruch, 40; Friday, Vic Schmidt, 47; Saturday, F. L. Houghton, 56.

A Portland paper says the hosiery cannery at Linton will resume operations as soon as the water subsides sufficiently; some of the machinery now being submerged. Three thousand nice young, juicy horses have been purchased in Eastern Oregon at prices ranging from $2.20 to $3.00 per head.

The highest daily scores at the Umatilla House bowling alleys last week were: Monday, C. E. Porter, 46; Tuesday, C. Roth, 56; Wednesday, H. Fredden, 49; Thursday, Robinson, 50; Friday, J. Unger, 59; Saturday, J. Erhart, 60; Sunday, Oscar Piper, 54. Grand total 374; average 53 3-7.

At the last meeting of the board of school directors of this district it was decided to postpone the opening of the public schools from September 6th to September 13th. This was done on account of the firemen's tournament, which meets here on the 6th, and which would interfere with the organization of the schools.

Company C arrived home last Monday night, having spent seven days in camp at Hood River and one day in Portland. The company is much improved in military discipline, having received excellent training in camp life. The officers of the second regiment speak in the highest of terms of Hood River as an ideal location for the camp.—Eugene Register.

Bills of lumber have been sold this week for a new hotel, a hardware store, a cabinet and carpenter shop, three residences and about ten other buildings under construction in Sumpter. The same amount of lumber has been sold for the Cracker district. A force of men are at work putting in the heavy foundations for the Sumpter Lumber Co.'s new mills.—Sumpter News.

W. S. Byers, of the Pendleton flouring mills, entered into a contract to deliver 15,000 barrels of flour for shipment to Japan. He had the option of furnishing 25,000 barrels more, but as it was required earlier than this mill could turn it out, he had to refuse the order. Perhaps no one in Pendleton has felt the improved condition in business more than Mr. Byers, says the Tribune. Whereas last year he was often obliged to turn out orders at a loss in order to keep the mill running, this year he has repeatedly been compelled to refuse orders. Moreover his business has been so steady and remunerative during the present year that he has been able to increase the salaries of his employees.

Bryan Speaks Tonight.

It is announced by those in charge of the affair that arrangements have been made by which Hon. W. J. Bryan will speak here for fifteen minutes tonight. It was intended to have the train stop at the Umatilla House, but as it has to stop any way nearly fifteen minutes to change baggage and express at the depot, it was the only arrangement that could be made to have the train held at the depot. So those who desire to hear the leader of Democracy and the advocate of free silver, will have to go to the depot to do so at 1 o'clock tomorrow morning.

A QUIET WEDDING.

George Aleck, Not Yet of Age, Marries for the Third Time.

There was a quiet wedding in the sheriff's office this morning, the high contracting parties being Mr. George Aleck and Miss Nellie Argui, both of Hood River. Justice Filloon performed the ceremony in the presence of the county officials, Clerk Kelsay, Deputy Bolton, Deputy Sheriff Kelley, Janitor FitzGerald, and J. M. Huntington. We are told that Mr. FitzGerald, upon the conclusion of the ceremony, stepped forward and said: "A custom has been established at the Umatilla House by Col. Sinnott, that all brides married there shall be first saluted by him as senior partner of the firm. It is a pretty custom, and one that should become general. As the oldest and best looking man in the courthouse the pleasant task has been delegated to me." And then he put the tips of the fingers of his left hand under her chin, lifted it gently to an angle of 60 degrees, and with a legato movement imprinted the courthouse seal upon her lips. Mr. FitzGerald denies this, but insists that he tried to get the boys to delegate him, but they refused; and as they could not agree, each of them performed his share of the occupation.

The groom is the son of Joseph Aleck, who carries the mail from Hood River to White Salmon, and who is a full-blood Indian. So is the groom; but the bride is apparently only a half-blood. George is only 20 years old, yet has made an enviable record in the marital line, this being his third venture. His other wives left him one at a time (he had both at once), so this time he concluded to see if the white man's ceremony would tie the third Mrs. Aleck any more firmly to him. We fear his confidence and his money have been misplaced, but at any rate this one to marry again legally will have to tackle the divorce courts.

George is sporty, gambles and drinks, has kleptomania and other things, and the future of the bride of today seems to us at least far from roseate.

Yesterday's Excursion.

The excursion yesterday was not the success financially that it should have been, the receipts but little more than covering the expenses. The accounts have not yet been balanced, but the net returns will not exceed $15.

Otherwise it was one of the most delightful affairs of the kind ever originated in The Dalles. The day was beautiful, and with only 115 passengers those who went had plenty of room. The boat arrived at Multnomah falls at 10:45 and left at 2:15, and the three and a half hours up under the cool falls were all too short.

The band accompanied the excursion and furnished delightful music, as it always does.

Captain Waud and several others climbed the cliff to the top of the falls, and announced their arrival at the top by throwing their hats over. The good old Regulator, with flags flying and band playing, arrived at her wharf at 7:15, and was met by nearly everyone in town, who went down to welcome the excursionists home.

The members of the hose team worked hard, and it is too bad that their efforts were not crowned with a greater reward.

The Normal Institute.

The following persons were present at the opening of the normal institute today: John Gavin, J. S. Landers, Melissa Hill, Louise Rintoul, Lena Snell, Catherine Davenport, Curtis Egbert, Frances Fouts, Minnie Elton, Nona Rowe, Emma Roberts, Maggie Flinn, Tena Rintoul, Mrs. James Wilson, Clarence Gilbert, Hattie Stirnweis, Ada Bell, Maude Gilbert, Cora Stanton, Katie Cooper, Ella Cooper, Nan Cooper, C. L. Gilbert.

Considering that the institute will be in session one month and that most of those already registered are from The Dalles, the outlook for a full attendance is encouraging. About eighty-four teachers were enrolled last year, and this number is likely to reach that mark inside of the next two weeks.

The teachers will be pleased to have parents and others attend as visitors at any hour. The general discussion hour at 1:30 is always interesting, and tomorrow Mr. Gavin leads in the subject of "Preparation of the Teacher."

The Portuguese in Hawaii.

One effect of the reciprocity treaty concluded between the United States and Hawaii in 1875 was to create a pressing demand for labor to carry out the many new agricultural and industrial enterprises projected. Through the agency of Dr. Hillebrand, who was residing in the island of Madeira in 1877, arrangements were made for the emigration of Portuguese from the Azores and Madeira. A pioneer company of 180 Portuguese arrived in September, 1878, from Cunchal, and since then over 10,000 more have been added to the population of the island, and, with their natural increase, they now number about 15,000. They are an exceedingly valuable addition to the white element of the islands. Their status also in the new territory will be regulated by treaty between the United States and Portugal.

Boxing Match.

There will be a grand sparring match at the Baldwin opera house Friday night at 8 o'clock, between Jack McAuley of Grass Valley and Dan Godfrey, the colored Australian boxer. The match will be ten rounds for points, soft gloves being used. This will be followed by a bout of six rounds for points between Joe Daffron of The Dalles and Dick T. Rogers of Portland. Those who like to see sparring will see some good work done, especially in the first contest.
